CHAS. GROGAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Chas. Grogan, age 38, passed away at his home in this city last Thursday night, the cause of death being tuberculosis. Mr. Grogan had suffered almost continually with this dread disease for the past 16 months but all care and attention given him was of no consequence, his condition steadily growing worse the last few months, when all hopes for his recovery were given up. He leaves a wife one son and a daughter.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon, Rev. Turner B. McDonald of the First Christian church conducting the services. Interment was made in the Maconic cemetery.

Chas. Grogan was a native of Illinois. For several years he was a resident of Missouri, where he worked in a lead mine. It is believed that while working in these mines that he contracted the disease which finally led to his untimely demise. When the break with Spain was declared, Mr. Grogan enlisted with the Kansas volunteers and saw active service in the Spanish-American war. He came to Oregon a little more than two years ago with his family and they have lived in Heppner most of that time.

His untimely departure from this world is regretted by his many friends, and the heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing wife and her two children.

Percy Hughes and family visited in Heppner from their home near Lena last Saturday.

Dr. A. P. Culbertson proved up on his homestead in this city before U. S. Commissioner, C. C. Patterson last Saturday. The land is situated in section 2, township 1 north, range 27. James T. Ayers, Chas. Bartholomew, Albert C. Allison and Will Howard appeared as his witnesses.

Loy M. Turner, county surveyor, went out to his father's ranch last Friday to survey off a piece of land for the new road which follows down the canyon between the Turner ranch and the Hyad brothers place. The new road when entirely completed, will be a big improvement over the old in that it is on an established grade with a well rounded surface beside being well drained.

J. A. Patterson made a business trip to Lexington last Saturday.

Roy White's spent several days in Grant county last week, transacting business in Ritter and vicinity. Mr. White's says the Ritter people have now completed their end of the Ritter-Heppner road and are very anxious for the Heppner people to finish up their end of the road. Mr. White's father states that Ritter people are anxious to trade with Heppner and the completion of this new road will put the two sections in much closer touch with each other.

Frank Fuchs, the city baker, is just completing a new concrete walk in front of his residence property on Baltimore Avenue.

Jay Devin motored to town behind a pair of mules from his Sand Hollow ranch last Friday. Although Mr. Devin owns a jitney, he declares the mule system of navigation is the only way when the roads are in their present muddy condition.

John McEntire of Lexington transacted business in this city last Friday. Jas. Carty, well known sheepman of the Tub Springs country, was in the county seat on Saturday attending to matters of business.

Paul Webb and wife motored in from their home south of this city last Friday. Mr. Webb now drives a new Dodge car. His brother, Nat Webb, Jr. of Walla Walla visited here several days the past week.

Mrs. Esther Turner of Weston is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Johnson in this city.

W. B. Tucker and J. H. Prad, members of the Black Horse Belghian Horse Company were business visitors in Heppner Saturday. Mr. Prad pronounces crop prospects excellent in his section.

Miss Zara Snell of Arlington was a week end guest at the home of Miss Marcia Winnard in this city. Miss Snell is a niece of Mrs. C. W. Shurtz of this city.

W. G. Scott, Lexington business man transacted business in Heppner a few hours last Friday.

Mrs. Walter Cason and daughter, Miss Muriel were up from Ione on Friday evening and attended the graduation exercises of Heppner high school.

G. A. Wilcox, wife and daughter, Miss Mabel, attended the graduating exercises of Heppner High school Friday evening. They came up in their new car.

Henry Holgate came up from Ione Friday. He has recently disposed of a one-half interest in the butcher business there, and in company with J. Frank Hall and family will go overland to his home in California. Mr. Hall is seeking a location either in Southern Oregon or California.
