BUTTER CREEK GIRL DIES AT ANATONE, WASH.

Mrs. Clyde Boston (Mary Elizabeth Vincent) was buried at Lena cemetery Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the residence of W. W. Howard, at Pine City, and practically the whole population of upper Butter creek attended.

Mary Elizabeth Boston was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vincent. Her mother having died at her birth, she was taken by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Howard, where she made her home until twenty years of age. She was then united in marriage to Clyde Boston, of Portland, Oregon. They moved to Philomath, Oregon, and later to Anatone, Wash., where she resided until her death.

She was a member of the United Brethren Church, having united with this church at an early age and remained a faithful Christian until death. She is survived by her husband and one child; one brother, Waldo Vincent, of Lena; a sister, Mrs. Cora Elliott, of Lena, and many friends and relatives who mourn her loss.

Mrs. Boston was born near Pine City November 14, 1892, and departed this life May 27, 1916.—Echo News

GOOSEBERRY

The dance at the Dry Fork hall Saturday evening was the best of the season. Twenty seven numbers were sold.

L. Carlson left for Portland Monday to attend the Rose Festival and visit with friends and relatives.

Three auto loads of people from Hardman attended the dance at the Hall last Saturday evening.

Miss Amanda Carlson called at the home of Ben Anderson on Eight Mile last Saturday evening.

Erik Bergstrom was a caller at the Brenner ranch on Sunday.

Ben Buschke and lady friend from Heppner attended the dance at this place last Saturday evening.

There will be an ice cream social and dance at the Dry Fork hall Friday evening, June 16. Ice cream free and every body is cordially invited to come and have a good time.

Miss Winnie Williams closed her school in the Williams district Saturday with an ice cream social and supper for her home in Portland Monday. Miss Pearl Ball accompanied her to the rose city to visit for a few days.

Miss Bertha Stretcher has closed a very successful term of school in the Dry Fork district and leaves for her home in Portland this week.

FLAG DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, June 14th 1916, is the 139th anniversary of the adoption of the stars and stripes; and

WHEREAS, Organizations of a patriotic nature in Oregon are desirous that special emphasis be placed upon this day and its meaning; and

WHEREAS, This generation has seen no time when loyalty and patriotism are more required than now, or when the encouragement of these vital national virtues is more appropriate;

NOW THEREFORE, I do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 14th, as FLAG DAY throughout the state of Oregon, and I earnestly urge that the day be devoted to exercises indicative of and conducive to loyalty to the flag; that in homes, schools, churches and business establishments the occasion be fittingly observed; that the flag be displayed from public buildings, schools, homes and places of business, and that the entire commonwealth, at this critical period of international unrest, unite in honoring the flag of the United States of America and in pledging renewed and vigorous loyalty to it and the principles of liberty it represents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed this third day of June, 1916.

JAMES WITHCUMBE,
Governor of Oregon.

Mrs. J. E. Gillespie and children were in the city Wednesday from their home in Clarks Canyon. Hereafter the Gillespie family will be members of The Gazette-Times reading circle.

JOHNSON RESIDENCE DESTROYED BY FIRE

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson on Baltimore street was completely gutted by fire which broke out about 9:30 last Thursday night. The blaze started from an electric iron in the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson had retired for the night and Mrs. Johnson was awakened by the oppressive heat. She at once awakened her husband, who upon investigating discovered the rapidly growing flames in the kitchen. They hastened from the house without saving anything of value and at once gave the alarm. The fire fighters encountered some hindrance in getting water on the fire when they found the hose on the first cart had been wound on backward. However, in a short time three streams of water under high pressure gained control of the flames and the fire was extinguished.

So rapidly did the flames spread that it was impossible to remove anything from the house. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, with the aid of their sons, Tom and Harry, who live at home, had just completed the finishing touches to their new home, and much of the furniture and cabinet work was the result of many days of work by Mr. Johnson and the boys, who are all carpenters.

The house was insured, so the loss will not be as heavy as it might otherwise have been. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are living at present at the home of their son, Ralph, on upper Main street.

HEPPNER 25 YEARS AGO

From Heppner Gazette of June 11, 1891.

The attention of all stockmen and business men is being turned toward Morrow county, and each year Heppner, as the distributing point, is the recipient of many new patrons. The expense of shipping and freighting by Heppner is less than by others formerly patronized and the prompt attention given to all business by the Heppner warehouse will result in holding the trade of Grant county until some place nearer is made the distributing point by the construction of a railroad line.—Grant county correspondence.

A. B. Mackey sold 22 head of horses the other day to a gentleman who is buying for the Seattle market, colts and all going at $23 per head.

Elmer Gentry has rented the Geo. Russle ranch in Sand Hollow and will be a citizen of Morrow county again.

Last week the residence of G. W. Marvel, of Eight Mile, was destroyed by fire. How it originated is not known. Loss $2000; insurance $650.

Thomas Ross and C. Krause of Echo were in Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Ross is a well known wool buyer of that city and Mr. Krause is a member of the Echo baseball team. Through his pitching ability, Echo is now in first place in the Blue Mountain League. Krause will be remembered here as the man who pitched for Heppner during Chantauqua week last year.

Zoe Houser, prominent Echo citizen, was in our city Wednesday.

Mrs. M. D. Clark and daughters, Mary and Marjory went to Portland Tuesday to attend the Rose Festival.

Dr. J. G. Turner, the Portland eye specialist, made his regular visit to this city on Wednesday.

Many tourists have passed through Heppner the past week by auto, the majority of them being on their way to the Rose Festival at Portland.

A number of tourists from Pendleton passed through Heppner this week bound for Portland. We know they were from Pendleton because they were advertising the coming Round-up with large signs which adorned their cars. The "Pendleton spirit" is ever active.

A. D. Smith, traveling representative of the American Type Founders Company, was in the city from Portland Saturday. While in town, Mr. Smith paid this office a pleasant visit.

Freighters and fishing parties can get the best cold meats the market affords for lunches at the Peoples' Cash Market.

Edgar Stevens, special agent for the Home Insurance Company, was in Heppner on official business Friday and Saturday. Mr. Stevens was fortunate enough to be in Condon during the races last week and says they were good, some fast time being made in several events.

Miss Beatrice Huddleston is in Portland this week, being a guest of the O-W. R. & N. Co. at the Rose Festival.

David Hynd and sister, Miss Annie Hynd, of Sand Hollow, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barratt in this city last week.
