WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Harold Cohn made a trip to Portland the past week.

Jack Hynd was in the city from his farm home at Ceell on Tuesday.

Harry Johnson recently returned from a few days' visit in Portland.

Jas. Carty was in the city Tuesday on business from his ranch at Tub Springs.

Miss Virginia Crawford will leave Saturday for a few weeks visit with friends at Tillamook.

Howard Swick was over from Monument this week after a load of freight for Sam Cochran.

Sam Cochran and wife of Monument have arrived in the city to visit with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Turner.

Mrs. W. W. McQueen of Milton has arrived in this city to visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Johnson.

W. W. Smead went to Portland Wednesday to spend a few days on business. He will return home Sunday evening.

H. A. Emry Hardman business man was a Heppner business visitor last Saturday. He reports conditions good in the south end city.

Miss Altha Devin has returned to her home in this city after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Scott on Heppner Flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buschke, of Rhea creek, were visitors in Heppner Wednesday. Mr. Buschke reports crop prospects fine in his locality.

FOR SALE—Several head of work horses, both broke and unbroke. Can see them at my Tub Springs ranch. JAS. CARTY.

County clerk waters recently issued a marriage license to R. B. Steers and Velma Baird, popular young people of the Hardman section.

Mrs. C. S. Van Duyn of Spokane arrived in the city last Friday to visit with her mother, Mrs. Eliza Ayers. Mrs. W. E. Walbridge is also a sister. Mrs. Van Duyn is a former resident of this city.

Mrs. Fred Elder went to Portland Sunday and will remain in that city several weeks visiting with relatives and friends. Mr. Elder expects to leave next Monday for Wyoming, where he will spend the summer with his father. He will visit Yellowstone National Park before returning home.

Prof. J. B. Horner of the Oregon Agricultural College will deliver one of his celebrated lectures at the Christian church in this city Saturday evening. Prof. Horner, who is instructor in history at the state college, has traveled extensively in foreign lands, and the results of his travel in the holy lands will be the basis for his lecture Saturday evening. Don't fail to hear him.

George Perry returned this week from Ritter, where he has been receiving treatment at the McDuffee hot springs. Mr. Perry says the springs are popular these days, there being more guests there than the hotel can accommodate. Many Umatilla and Morrow county people are registered there at the present time.

Sheriff George McDuffee spent several days in Umatilla county on official business the past week.

Dan Barlow and daughter, Miss Virginia, were in town yesterday from their farm home on Eight Mile. Mr. Barlow was enthusiastic over the recent rains and now looks for a bumper crop. He is of the opinion that spring sown grain in his section will yield heavier than the fall sown grain.

Ed Kellogg, jiteneur, has added to the capacity of his Ford with a trailer. Mr. Kellogg is now prepared to carry passengers and their camping outfits at reasonable charges. He will make a speciality of camping parties during the summer. See his ad in another column of the Gazette-Times.

Teachers Take Exams.

School teachers of Morrow county are taking the examinations at the court house this week. While the enrollment is not as large at the opening day as in former years, it is expected that more will arrive before the last day. Those who have registered are: Etta Adams, Hardman; Mrs. Bertha Stoneman, Hardman; Gladys Musgrave, Parkers Mill; C. F. French, Lexington; J. G. French, Lexington; Opal Briggs, Mrs. Blanche Watkins and Zetta Stephens of Heppner.

YOU CAN BUY LUMBER AS CHEAPLY HERE

At Home as You Can Anywhere in the World

The volume of business that we are doing in Lexington is certain evidence that the Tum-A-Lum policies are meeting with the approval of every lumber user here.

Drive right in and load up—no dickering necessary. You get the right price whether you ask for it or not.

Figure with any concern engaged in the lumber business any where in the world—try out any Mail Order House you ever heard of—when you get the figures come to us and ask us what our regular price is, and you will find, as others have found, that you can buy lumber at the right price at home—without dickering—without quibbling or even asking for our "best price."

Free complete blue printed plans and prices guaranteed to cover ALL material necessary for building.

The volume of business that we are doing—the increase in sales each month—the activities in the building line that are taking place—all can be taken as direct evidence that the TUM-A-LUM METHOD OF SELLING LUMBER is famously successful here.

Our well assorted stock—our method of selling at ONE PRICE TO ALL—of shipping direct from gigantic saw mills located right in the heart of the forests—all these things are only a few of the REAL REASONS FOR OUR INCREASING BUSINESS.

If you want the best price—if you want the best lumber—if you are tired of figuring lumber bills—come right to our yard and do just as the largest users of lumber do—buy your lumber where we are too busy to try to talk you into paying just a little more.

NO FIGURING NECESSARY—ONE PRICE TO ALL.
