Dr. A. D. McMurdo returned Thursday evening in his car from Portland, where he attended the Knights of Pythias convention. He was accompanied home by his niece, Miss Genevieve McMurdo, who will visit here for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford and daughters Cora Mae and Mary and son Spencer visited over the week end at the home of Mrs. Crawford's brother, John Spencer, on lower Intre creek. They were accompanied home by Miss Bernice Spencer, who will visit for several weeks at the Crawford home.

George R. Moore of De Moines, Washington, advance agent for the Juvenile Entertainers, who will appear at the Star theater in this city next Monday and Tuesday, was in Heppner the last of the week making preliminary arrangements for this premier attraction. Mr. Moore is an old printer and made himself at home while visiting at the Gazette-Times office.

In our last issue we stated that Spencer Akers had been called to Goldendale on account of the death of his brother. We have learned later that it was not Mr. Akers's brother, but his brother-in-law, N. R. McVey, a pioneer farmer in the Eight Mile country. Mr. McVey only recently disposed of his farm property in Klilkat country and moved to Goldendale. His death was caused by hardening of the arteries and he was sick only a few days. Mr. Akers and his wife attended the funeral.

Mrs. J. W. Moll and children, returned to their home in Spokane the first of the week after spending a month at the home of Mrs. Moll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Richardson returned Monday from Lehman Springs where they took their daughter, Miss Josephine and Miss Nettie Currin. The young ladies will spend several weeks at the Springs before returning home.

Miss Leona Waddell of Lena is taking the examination at Superintendent Notson's office this week for a teaching permit. Miss Waddell recently returned from Monmouth where she attended the summer session at the state normal school.

Andy Hayes left Tuesday on his vacation. He is going on a trip into the Canadian Northwest and will visit the city of Edmonton and other points of interest, returning by the way of Vancouver, Seattle and Portland. He expects to be gone a couple of weeks.

Nat Shaw, prosperous Clarks Canyon farmer, has sold 2000 bushels of his 1916 wheat crop to W. P. McMillan of Lexington for one dollar per bushel. The wheat is of the blue-stem variety and the 2000 bushels is only a part of Mr. Shaw's fine crop.

W. C. Lacy came up from Portland Tuesday and will spend several days in Heppner visiting with old friends. Mr. Lacy reports that his crop on the old home place at the head of Black Horse was damaged a little by the hail storm in June. However, it has recovered to a remarkable extent since then and will probably make a fair yield. Adam Blahm is farming the Lacy ranch at the present time.

Ed Duran of Lexington was in the city Wednesday.

Robert Allstott of Eight Mile, was in the city on business Tuesday.

Ben Evans, the horse buyer, shipped a carload of horses to Kansas City this morning.
