

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Chas. B. Sperry, lone wheat buyer, was in the city Monday.

Jake Osten and Anderson Hayes motored down to the Egg City last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford of Ione were in Heppner last Monday evening.

Mrs. L. G. Herren, local milliner, returned home Tuesday morning from Portland.

Percy Garrigues of Portland is spending several days in the old home town.

Berl Gurdane motored to Ione last Sunday for a short visit with friends in that city.

M. L. Case, local undertaker, was called to Arlington last Monday on professional business.

M. S. Corrigan, accompanied by his son Ralph, spent Tuesday in Heppner from their Butter creek ranch.

R. J. Carsner, prominent Wheeler county stockman, arrived in the city Tuesday to transact business.

Mrs. George Hendry was a passenger to Ione last Sunday morning for a short visit with her parents at that place.

Dr. J. G. Turner, the well known Portland eye specialist, made his regular monthly call to Heppner on Tuesday.

Frank Cronan, of the Bank of Ione, was in the city last Sunday evening, returning to the Egg City Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mahoney returned home last Thursday from a visit of several weeks to Portland and the coast.

W. H. Instone and W. H. Clark, Lena farmers, spent several days in Heppner transacting business the last of the week.

Spencer Crawford and Miss Lera Githens and Robert Hopkins motored to Ione Saturday evening returning to Heppner Sunday.

Berl Gurdane returned from Lehman Springs last Friday evening, where he spent the last week at that popular summer resort.

Mrs. Susie Clark and daughter Myrtle were in the city from Monument Monday. Miss Myrtle is a teacher in the Monument school.

Walter Cochran, editor of the Ione Independent, transacted business in this city last Saturday evening and returned to Ione Sunday morning.

FOR SALE—Several head of work horses, both broke and unbroke. Can see them at my Tub Springs ranch. JAS. CARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Shaver, Earnest Higgs, Mr. Breaker and Miss Mary Geinger of Ione motored up from the Egg City Sunday afternoon.

Carl Yount, who is buying wheat for M. H. Houser at Ione, made his first visit to Heppner Monday to get acquainted with the local wheat market.

Jesse and Sam Turner of Sand Hollow spent the week end in Heppner. Sam was offered some flattering prices for his wheat and barley while in town but refused to sell at this time, believing he will be able to sell for more at a later date.

N. A. Leach brother of W. E. Leach of Lexington and formerly a citizen of this county, has been promoted to the head agent of the Portland house, Kerr-Gifford & Co., grain buyers, according to information received in this city. Mr. Leach engaged in the general merchandise business in Lexington a number of years ago.

Chas. B. Cox was in the city Saturday from the Her ranch. He will have a bumper crop this year.

George Thomson returned home the first of the week from Portland, where he attended Buyers' Week.

Frank Turner and family spent the week end in this city, returning Sunday evening to their home northeast of here.

"Red" Fulwider has gone to the mountains in search of deer. He went loaded for bear so surely will get one or the other.

Curtis Rhea of Rhea creek was in the city the last of the week in search of harvest hands. He has an excellent crop this year.

County Clerk Waters issued a marriage license this week to Augustus D. Darland of Arlington and Velma Ashpaugh of Lexington.

Lowell McMillan and Mr. Nelson of Lexington transacted business in this city last Monday. They came up in the former's jitney.

FARMERS—Before selling your wheat consult with Spencer Akers, who is in a position to offer market prices on all kinds of wheat and barley.

Game Warden, Bob Young, visited in Ione last Sunday. Before returning home he will journey to Condon and neighboring cities on business.

J. H. Cox of this city has been awarded the contract by the Lexington school district to complete the inside finishing work in their new school building.

Max Rogers, Kenneth Binns, and Vawter Crawford Jr. and Jasper Crawford motored up into the mountains last Sunday for a few hours of the cool mountain air.

Jack McCullough, well known farmer and sheepman of upper Willow creek, has decided to give his horses a rest, so he took out a brand new Six on Six automobile from Vaughn & Sons last Saturday.

Oscar Keithley, eight mile farmer, was in the city Saturday to take a look at the wheat market. Oscar states that his arm still pains him and he is afraid he will not be in condition for the Round-Up.

Work of building new stock barns at the Fair grounds is progressing rapidly. The sheds will be up-to-date in every particular and exhibitors can rest assured that they will have a good place for their stock at fair time.

Miss Sybil Hager returned to her home in Heppner Tuesday from the Willamette Valley. She has been visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. Clifford Sims in Eugene and at the home of Dr. M. A. Leach in Corvallis.

Sam Hughes returned last Sunday evening from Portland where he was an interested guest at Buyers' Week. Mr. Hughes reports there were many retail merchants at this year's meeting and that the attendance increased one hundred per cent over last year.

Tom O'Brien, accompanied by Tom and Gilbert Mahoney, came down from the Herren Mill Tuesday. Mr. O'Brien is tending camp for Corrigan & Mahoney and reports the sheep in good condition. The Mahoney boys are spending the summer in the mountains with Mr. O'Brien.

Glenn Jones came near losing a hand last week when his left arm was caught in a belt on the threshing machine. He tried to run the belt on while the machine was still in motion. Had the engine not been stopped when it was, the results would have been serious to Glenn.

A party consisting of H. H. Hoffman, Loy M. Turner, Oscar Borg and Willard Herren left Heppner the last of the week for the mountains in quest of deer. One of their party made the statement that they would not return until they bagged the big game, so we may not expect these bold hunters home before the snow flies.

REACHING THE SPOT.

It Has Been Done, So Scores of Heppner Citizens Say.

To get rid of an aching back, The sharp twinges, The tired-out feelings, You must reach the spot—get at the cause.

In many cases 'tis the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Heppner citizens testify.

Mrs. B. G. Sigsbee, K St., Heppner, says: "Speaking from personal experience, I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have always found them to be just what is represented of them. Whenever I get that tired, dull ache across the small of my back and notice my kidneys are not acting as regularly as they should, I get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them a few days, I feel as well as ever."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sigsbee had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

FEATURE AT STAR TONIGHT

Scene From the American-Mutual Three-part Drama "The Suppressed Order."

Professor W. L. Suddarth and wife of Irrigon who have been visiting in Central Oregon, are now on their way to their home on the Columbia.

Robert H. Young, local game warden, went to Condon last Saturday to check over the licenses issued by the county clerk of Gilliam county in the fish and game department.

Miss Etta Adams of Hardman visited with Heppner friends last Saturday. Miss Adams graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College this year and will teach in the Hardman school. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Hardman.

Albert Bowker of the Heppner Garage, local agent for the Buick automobile, received a car load of these machines the past week and is now busy delivering them to their new owners. Among those who have recently bought Buicks are Geo. N. Ely, of Morgan, Louis Padberg of Lexington and Emmet Clehran of Monument. Mr. Bowker has several other prospective buyers to whom he expects to deliver cars in a few days.

A number of friends of Miss Lea Briggs gathered at her home Monday evening, in honor of her birthday. Games were played until a late hour after which they retired to the house where they were served with ice cream and cantaloupe. Among those present was Vieta Hayes, a former resident of Heppner now residing in Portland. She is spending a few days with friends in and near Heppner. Others present were: Demsey and Glea Boyer, Ethel Smith, Elra Hayes, Mary Notson, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Edmundson, Sam Stevens, Loren Mikesell, and Robert Notson.

Who's your Tailor?
TRADE MARK REG. 1908 BY ED. V. PRICE & CO.

THE finest assortment of Autumn and Winter fabrics ever shown by ED. V. PRICE & CO., is now ready for your inspection at our store.

Select the Pattern for your Autumn Clothes Today and have them delivered to suit your own convenience.

This gets your order ahead of the usual rush season and insures more satisfactory results.

MINOR & CO.
"GOOD GOODS"

Tea

Is a very popular summer drink

Some like it hot, but the majority prefer it Iced during the hot season. Folgers Golden Gate or Folgers Shasta brands are especially adapted for use either way.

Golden Gate - - - 80c per pound
Shasta - - - - - 50c per pound

Both brands packed in tin, thus insuring them against deterioration and loss of strength.

Phelps Grocery Co.

COMING SUNDAY
To Star Theatre

"A LAW UNTO HIMSELF"

Featuring Crane Wilbur

HORSELEY MUTUAL MASTERPIECE

Star Theatre Sunday

REDFRONT

Livery & Feed Stables

WILLIS STEWART, Proprietor.

First Class Livery Rigs kept constantly on hand and can be furnished on short notice to parties desiring to drive into the interior. First class Hacks and Buggies Call around and see us. We cater to the Commercial Travelers and Camping Parties and can furnish rigs and driver on short notice.

HEPPNER . . . OREGON

Wood and Coal

HEPPNER WOOD YARD

N. A. CLARK, Proprietor,
SUCCESSOR TO E. E. BEAMAN

LET US SUPPLY YOUR FUEL NEEDS.

Phone 396 - - Heppner, Oregon