

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Ralph Yeager has gone to Pendleton.

Henry Cohn has returned from a vacation of two weeks at Lehman Springs.

Robert Young and Arthur Crawford made a trip into the Echo country last Tuesday.

John F. Vaughn and family have returned from a two week's outing at Lehman Springs.

Andrew Reaney of Lexington was a Sunday visitor at the R. W. Turner home in Sand Hollow.

Karl Beach, Lexington garage man spent a few hours in Heppner Monday morning transacting business.

W. L. Copenhaver and sons Loney and Edgar were in the city Tuesday from their home in the Sand Hollow section.

Jack Hynd and family passed through Heppner Tuesday on their way to Cecil after visiting at the Hynd Brothers' home in Sand Hollow.

Victor Wiglesworth of Butter creek motored to Heppner last Friday to transact business. While in the city he left his order for a year's subscription to the great family journal.

Mrs. M. L. Oney has again accepted the agency for the Nu Bone Corset. Leave orders with Mrs. Mills or myself.

MRS. M. L. ONEY.

Jas. E. Bannon, popular travelling man of London, England, made Heppner a visit this week. He came over by the way of Pendleton in his Saxon Six.

E. R. Huston of Eight Mile was a Sunday visitor in Heppner. Mr. Huston is now in the midst of harvest and his grain is making an excellent yield.

Postmaster, W. A. Richardson and wife motored to Lehman Springs last Sunday and were accompanied home by their daughter Miss Josephine and Miss Nettie Curran.

Ray Rogers returned Saturday evening from a two week's vacation at Rockaway beach and has resumed his position at the head of the men's furnishing department at Minor & Co.

W. R. Irwin and son Stephen, accompanied by W. O. Minor, returned to Heppner last Sunday evening in the Irwin new Oakland Six. They made the trip to this city from Rockaway.

Ellis Minor of Butter creek was in the city Tuesday on business. He was accompanied by Chas. Johnson of Portland, nephew of Sam E. Van Vactor who has been visiting with relatives here.

Dr. R. J. Vaughn and wife and Miss Lucile Hyde returned Sunday from Lehman Springs. They came over with Harold Cohn, who had just taken his mother to the Springs for two weeks of recreation.

Andrew Patterson sold his lambs 900 head, yesterday by telephone to Bob Stanfield. They are to be delivered Sept. 10th at Whitney in Baker County, where Mr. Patterson has his summer range. The lambs are half-bred Lincolns and the price is $5.25 per head.

Prosperity comes with a rush. A son weighing eleven pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson of Lexington in this city Sunday. Mrs. Nelson is a sister of Ira M. Morgan, manager of the local creamery. Mr. Nelson, who farms near Lexington, will harvest 800 acres of 25 bushel wheat this year. He is to be congratulated all the way around for his good fortune.

Mrs. Wm. Cullek of Lena was in the city Sunday.

Jack DeVore was in town from his Rhea creek farm Wednesday.

Mrs. G. A. Farrens of Hardman was a Heppner visitor Sunday.

Dan P. Smythe and Pat Lonergan of the Pendleton Ice Company, paid Heppner a visit the first of the week.

David Hynd was a Heppner business visitor Tuesday from Sand Hollow. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Annie Hynd.

A marriage license was issued by County Clerk Waters on Saturday to Clifford R. Smith of Arlington and Sarah Jennie Schriver of Ione.

Miss Ella Sorber returned to her home in Goldendale, Wn., after visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gay M. Anderson for several weeks.

FARMERS—Before selling your wheat consult with Spencer Akers, who is in a position to offer market prices on all kinds of wheat and barley.

T. J. Humphreys returned the last of the week from Ditch creek where he and his two children, Roland and Elizabeth spent several days in recreation.

Floyd Fell and Leonard M. Barr of Lexington were in Heppner the last of the week. Floyd is a brother of Marshal Fell of this city and formerly lived here.

Miss Virginia Crawford will return Saturday from Tillamook where she has been spending the last two months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Van Winkle.

John H. Edwards, veteran farmer of Sand Hollow, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Edwards no longer participates in the harvest work, but now holds down that more responsible position of roustabout.

Paul Hisler of upper Hinton creek was in Heppner on business Wednesday. Mr. Hisler announces that haying will be over on his ranch next week. He expects to bring the children in to school about the middle of September.

Gay M. Anderson, deputy county clerk, took his vacation last week. He went to the mountains in company with Ed Kellogg and W. W. Smead and was much impressed with the Ditch creek country. He has decided to establish a camp at that place next year.

Claude Andrews, accompanied by Mrs. Andrews and daughter Cleone returned to their home in Heppner Sunday from their vacation at The Dalles and other points. Mr. Andrews, who has been conductor on the local train for the past two years, contemplates taking a position on another line in the near future and will move his family to The Dalles.

Walt Eubanks is to take charge of the R. L. Benge ranch which was purchased by Wm. Padberg last week. Mr. Eubanks has gone to Pendleton to get his household goods and with his family will move onto the place shortly. Walt is a local boy, having been raised here. He has been employed in the express office at Pendleton for the last three years. We wish him success.

J. L. Wilkins, W. W. Smead and George Pearce were in Pendleton last week on Blue Trail business. They returned home announcing that the Pendleton people listened kindly to their plea for tourist travel over the Pilot Rock-Heppner road and promised them they would direct the travel this way. Pendleton business men are now busy with La Grande and other points east on the Blue Trail, in keeping the main travel this way. It is announced that a move is on foot in Vale, Ontario and central Oregon to get the travel through there. Central Oregon people are also keen to have the Columbia highway through the center of the state.

LOOK HERE FOR IT

Many a Heppner Reader Will Be Interested.

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, is it surprising that they wonder if the statements are true? But when they read of cases right here at home, positive proof is within their reach, for close investigation is an easy matter. Read Heppner endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. C. Ball, retired farmer, Heppner, says "It has been several years since I have had occasion to take Doan's Kidney Pills, but speaking from past experience, I can conscientiously say that they are a good, reliable medicine for backache and kidney disorders."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ball had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Two complete shows at the Star theatre every Saturday evening.

Charles Groshen took a bunch of mules to Hernalston this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Campbell of Social Ridge paid Heppner a visit on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hill of upper Willow creek were Heppner visitors on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer are spending the week at their mountain camp on upper Willow creek.

Jake King of the Independent Garage spent several days in Portland this week on business.

Sunday matinee at the Star Theatre for benefit of harvest hands who would leave town before evening.

W. Pruitt Cox and Will Ball returned the first of the week from Lehman Springs, where they spent their vacation.

Louis Groshen of Rhea creek spent a few hours in Heppner Wednesday morning. He was accompanied by Miss Cecile DeVore.

Mrs. Albert Bowker returned last Friday from Coquille, where she spent two weeks visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Vern Hamilton.

Guy Huston, prosperous upper Eight Mile farmer, was in the city Wednesday after a load of grain bags. Mr. Huston has a good crop this year.

Another carload of Ford automobiles will be received this week by Vaughn & Sons, the local agents. Most of them have already been disposed of.

T. J. Mahoney returned the last of the week from Portland, where he attended the Chas. E. Hughes meeting. Mr. Mahoney is central committeeman from this county.

Miss Blanche Ward passed through Heppner last Monday morning from Hardman on her way to Pendleton. She had been spending several weeks at the home of her father, Frank Ward.

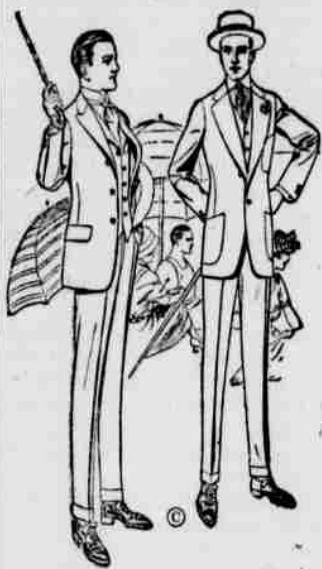

Mrs. Daisy Hendricson and mother have returned from their vacation of several weeks at Newport and Miss Hendricson has resumed her position in the ladies department at Minor & Co.'s.

Roy W. Gilmore, of Spokane, representing the Royal Typewriter Co., was in Heppner Tuesday in the interest of his firm. Mr. Gilmore reports business good and sales brisk in his line.

Robert Oliver, traveling agent for the Laurence Co., of Portland, a leather supply house, came over from Echo in his car Tuesday and interviewed our local harness maker, E. G. Noble.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elder returned the last of the week from the coast, where Mrs. Elder spent her summer vacation. Mr. Elder recently returned from Wyoming where he visited for six weeks with his father.

Who's your Tailor?
TRADE MARK REG. 1908 BY ED. V. PRICE & CO.

THE finest assortment of Autumn and Winter fabrics ever shown by ED. V. PRICE & CO., is now ready for your inspection at our store.

Select the Pattern for your Autumn Clothes Today and have them delivered to suit your own convenience.

This gets your order ahead of the usual rush season and insures more satisfactory results.

MINOR & CO.
"GOOD GOODS"

Tea

Is a very popular summer drink

Some like it hot, but the majority prefer it Iced during the hot season. Folgers Golden Gate or Folgers Shasta brands are especially adapted for use either way.

Golden Gate - - - 80c per pound
Shasta - - - - - 50c per pound

Both brands packed in tin, thus insuring them against deterioration and loss of strength.

Phelps Grocery Co.

Sunday Matinee Feature

A Sunday Afternoon Show Will Be Inaugurated at the Star Theatre Beginning Next Sunday. Show from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m.

"TRUE NOBILITY"

Is Our Regular Sunday Night Feature. A Five-Act Modern Drama and a MUTUAL MASTERPIECE Production

STAR THEATER SUNDAY

REDFRONT

Livery & Feed Stables

WILLIS STEWART, Proprietor.

First Class Livery Rigs

kept constantly on hand and can be furnished on short notice to parties desiring to drive into the interior. First class Hacks and Buggies

Call around and see us. We cater to the Commercial Travelers and Camping Parties and can furnish rigs and driver on short notice.

HEPPNER - - - OREGON

Wood and Coal

HEPPNER WOOD YARD

N. A. CLARK, Proprietor, SUCCESSOR TO E. E. BEAMAN

LET US SUPPLY YOUR FUEL NEEDS.

Phone 396 - - Heppner, Oregon