Can You Beat This.

The Smead-Crawford real estate agency is offering for sale a 900 acre wheat farm which this year produced $24 per acre. The owner wishes to sell only because of poor health and he is offering a bargain to someone. The entire ranch goes for $15 per acre or $20 per acre on terms. The ranch is situated 4 miles from railroad and about 200 yards from a good school. See Smead & Crawford.

Cleve Walton, former Heppner boy was in the city the past week on business. He now makes his home at Fox, in Grant county.

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Lyman D. Sweek of Grant county was a Heppner business visitor this week.

Mike Healy has moved onto the John Hughes ranch on Willow creek below town.

A. A. McCabe, well known west end wheat farmer, passed Wednesday in this city on business.

Dr. McMurdo reports Sam McCollough recovering nicely from a severe attack of pneumonia.

L. B. Ashbaugh was called to Pendleton the past week on account of the death of a friend there.

Martin Lovgreen, Eight Mile farmer, took out a new Buick Six from the Heppner garage this week.

Walter Cochran, editor of the Ione Independent, spent the fore part of the week in this city on business.

Good work horses for sale, ranging in age from five to nine years old. See Guy Boyer or phone 27 F 32.

Robert Dexter of upper Hinton creek is reported to be recovering nicely from his protracted illness.

Hanson Hughes returned last Thursday evening from Portland where he went on a brief business trip.

T. F. Boylen, prominent Echo sheepman was in Heppner the last of the week from his ranch on Butter creek.

There will be preaching at the Federated church Sunday evening. Mrs. Berwick will speak. Everyone invited.

Married, October 10 at the home of H. D. Mikesell, J. H. Metzker and Hattie H. Wilson, Turner B. MacDonald officiating.

Mrs. Andy Stevenson was taken suddenly ill on Saturday night, but we are glad to say her condition is much improved at this time.

George Krebs, extensive Skinner creek stockman, went to La Grande this week to buy in an isolated tract which he had advertised for sale.

Married, October 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kummerland, Albert Periberg and Lenora Kummerland Turner B. MacDonald officiating.

Chas. and Ed Pointer of Lexington were Heppner business visitors Tuesday. Chas. Pointer informs us that he is now busy putting in his 1917 crop.

D. and Dr. Culbertson will go on to Crystal Michigan. They expect to be absent from Heppner most of the winter. George N. Peck and wife will live in the Allison residence on Church street.

Arrangements are under way for one of the best wrestling matches ever staged in this city. Manager Sparks announces that Frank McCarroll of Pendleton will meet either Ted Thye or Tony Ajax in the opera house on either Nov. 11 or 18th. The exact date has not yet been fixed. As an added attraction, Mr. Sparks has made arrangements to run a Selig film athletic feature showing all the world's champions in boxing, wrestling and athletic feats.

A HEPPNER NAN GIVES EVIDENCE.

His Testimony Will Interest Every Heppner Reader.

The value of local evidence is indisputable. It is the kind of evidence we except as true because we know we can prove it for ourselves. There has been plenty of such evidence in the Heppner papers lately, and this straightforward testimony has established a confidence in the minds of Heppner people that will not be easily shaken.

I. R. Esteb, Heppner, says: "I am a strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills and whenever I can recommend them to others, I don't hesitate to do so, for I know they can't be beat. Whenever I feel in need of a kidney medicine, I get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from Humphreys Drug Co., and in a few days that misery in my back lets up and my kidneys become normal."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Esteb had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
