DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

Heppner People Should Act in Time.

If you suffer from backache;
If you have headaches, dizzy spells;
If the kidney secretions are irregular.

Don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick.

Heppner people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here's a Heppner experience:

Mrs. H. Hughes, Court St., Heppner, says: "For about a month, I thought my back was broken. It ached and throbbed so badly at times that I could hardly stand. My kidneys acted too freely. The secretions were unnatural and I felt miserable all over. I had taken only a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills when I noticed a big change. My back felt stronger and my kidneys acted more regularly. One box permanently overcame the trouble and since then I have enjoyed the best of health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hughes had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props, Buffalo, N. Y.

Jas. Carty, Lexington sheepman, was a Saturday business visitor in this city.

John F. Vaughn transacted business in Ione and vicinity the last of the week.

Guy Boyer is in the market for some good work horses. See his advertisement in another column.

Dr. B. F. Butler, Ione's new dentist, was in Heppner on business a few hours the first of the week.

A. W. Gammell of Lexington was in the city Tuesday, being a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gammell.

Walter Hill has moved his family into his recently acquired home on Gale street. He will probably build a new house in the Spring.

Miss Josephine Richardson entertained a number of her friends on Saturday evening. The guests were Mrs. Bert Stone and Misses Lela and Lula Campbell.

Arthur Smith is visiting with relatives in Portland and at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Webster in Salem. Mrs. Smith has been visiting at the Webster home for several months.

Stephen Irwin, local agent for the Oakland Six, sold one of these cars last week to E. E. Edwards of Sand Hollow. Mr. Irwin will bring another one of these cars up from Portland this week.

Hardman will hold a city election on Tuesday, December 5. At that time three councilmen will be elected to serve for two years and one councilman will be elected to serve for one year. So far, there have been no avowed candidates and the election gives promise of being a very tame affair.

"GOOD GOODS"

As trustees the undersigned are offering for sale to the highest bidder, the following described lands in Morrow County, Oregon:

What is known as the J. P. Rhea farm, situate on Rhea creek, a tributary of Willow creek, 17 miles from Heppner, the county seat, seven miles from Jordan Siding, a railway station on the Heppner branch of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company, and ten miles from Ione.

This farm consists of two thousand acres, of which according to the records in the office of the County Assessor, ten hundred and ninety-five acres are cultivated land, the greater portion of the remainder, or nine hundred and forty-seven acres, is non-tillable land. In addition to the cultivated land mentioned, there is a considerable portion of the non-tillable land which can be cultivated.

This place carries a state water right to irrigate fifty-two acres of alfalfa, and there are fully forty acres of bottom land which can be irrigated. The improvements on the place consist of house, barn and outbuildings.

Also what is known as the C. A. Rhea farm, situate on Rhea creek, fifteen miles from Heppner, nine miles from Jordan Siding and twelve miles from Ione:

This place consists of two thousand acres, of which according to the records in the office of the County Assessor, eight hundred and thirty-five acres are in cultivation; the remainder, or twelve hundred acres are shown as non-tillable land. Of the latter, however, there is a considerable amount which is susceptible of cultivation.

This place carries a State water right to irrigate sixty-six acres of bottom land, which is sown to alfalfa and there is about fifty acres additional which can be sown to alfalfa, and easily irrigated. There are also good improvements, consisting of house, barns, sheds and outbuildings.

Sealed bids will be received for both or either of said farms, by the undersigned, at Heppner, up to and including the first day of December, 1916.

Not less than twenty per cent. of purchase price cash, balance to be secured by first mortgage on the lands purchased, deferred payments to bear interest at 6 per cent. per annum.

The right to reject any and all bids reserved.

Detailed information furnished on request.

Certified check for $500.00 must accompany each bid as evidence of good faith, to be forfeited in case bidder fails to perform.
