Calvin L. Sweek, local attorney, returned Sunday from Caynon City, where he had been called on legal business in connection with the circuit court which convened there. Mr. Sweek says the Grant county docket was an exceptionally heavy one at this term, over fifty witnesses being called from Monument on one case. In returning home, heavy snow drifts were encountered just this side of Parkers Mill, and it was with difficulty that Mr. Sweek was able to get through the mountains.

Conditions governing the cost of living and conducting business are such that there must be an universal readjustment of values, upward.

On the first of the New Year photographs must go up ten to twenty-five percent.

Make an early appointment, save the necessary increase of cost, and pleasingly perpetuate the memory of yourself among your friends.
