Dr. J. G. Turner of Portland, was in the city Wednesday on his regular monthly visit.

C. C. Paine, prominent Boardman citizen, was a Heppner business visitor Wednesday.

Victor Wiglesworth and family were Heppner visitors Tuesday from their Galloway home.

Lester Ingrum returned the last of the week from a visit of several days with friends at Joseph.

Chas. E. Frazier, well known salesman of Portland, paid Heppner his regular visit on Tuesday.

B. L. Lewis of The Dalles has taken a position with Vaughn & Sons in their automobile department.

Lee Padberg came up from Ione yesterday morning to attend the December term of court here this week.

Pete Prohet and M. Z. Biddle, Hardman merchants, were transacting business in Heppner on Tuesday.

C. E. Jones and wife and R. W. Turner and wife are attending the Farmers' Union convention in McMinnville this week.

Mrs. Vawter Crawford returned to her home in Ione Wednesday after spending a week with the Heppner branch of the family in this city.

Married on Thanksgiving evening at the home of L. V. Gentry, George Layton Cason and Miss Sylvia Brown. T. B. MacDonald officiating.

Hon. Henry Blackman returned to his home in San Francisco Friday after spending Thanksgiving at the home of Phil Cohn in this city.

Married: Dec. 2nd at the home of the minister; Marion Gray and Martha May Brown. The happy couple will reside at Hardman. T. B. MacDonald officiated.

The interior of the First National Bank building has been under going some improvements the past week at the hands of Bradford & Son local painters and paperhangers.

Misses Zara and Beatrice Snell, popular young ladies of Arlington were Thanksgiving Day visitors with relatives and friends in this city. They returned to their home Sunday.

W. L. Leighton, general agent for the Union Pacific Life Insurance Co., is in Heppner this week looking after the interests of that company. Mr. Leighton makes his headquarters in Portland.

The Womens' Missionary Society of the Federated church will meet at the home of the Misses Lula and Sybil Hager on Chase street Tuesday afternoon, December 12 at 2:30. A program will be given.

Harvie Young and wife were passengers from Heppner Sunday morning to McMinnville, where Mr. Young goes as a delegate from Eight Mile Farmington local to the state convention of the Farmers' Union.

E. C. Watkins of Willow creek was in the city Wednesday making arrangements for the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Willow Creek Telephone Company. The meeting will be held Saturday, December 16 in the office of the Humphreys Drug Company in this city. Mr. Watkins is secretary of the company.

Rev. H. O. Perry, of Kennewick, Wash., will occupy the pulpit of the Federated church next Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend. Rev. H. A. Noyes who has been called as the pastor of the Federated church, will take up his work some time this month, probably about the holidays.

W. O. Minor, pioneer stockman and veteran Shorthorn breeder of the Pacific Northwest went to Portland Wednesday to attend the Pacific International Livestock Exposition. For several years past, Mr. Minor, with a number of other Shorthorn breeders of the Northwest, have held a sale during livestock week and Mr. Minor had intended to place some choice stuff on the market at this time. However, he was unable to do this for the reason that he could not get a state veterinarian up here in sufficient time to inspect the cattle. A surplus of red tape in connection with the cattle business works as a handicap to the industry of raising blooded cattle, according to Mr. Minor.

ANNOYING KIDNEY ILLS

Make Life Miserable for Many Heppner People.

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have given peace and comfort to many Heppner people. Profit by this Heppner resident's experience.

C. W. Shurte, Heppner, says: "Several years ago, I was more or less subject to bladder trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and too frequent in passage. During these spells, my back felt weak and lame. After taking a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got over the bladder trouble and my back felt as strong as ever."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Shurte had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Experienced young man, wants work on farm around Heppner. J. H. Ray, Portland, Oregon, Gen. Del.

M. S. Corrigan, president of the First National Bank was in the city this week from his Butter creek home transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baird of Hillville, Penn., are visiting their daughters in this city, Mrs. C. C. Patterson and Mrs. J. O. Hager.

Secretary Smead has announced that Bawker's orchestra will come up from Portland twice each month hereafter to play for dances at the Fair pavilion. Christmas and New Year's dances will be special affairs.

Hugh Bran has received a new Dort car from Beach & Allyn of Lexington. This is the first one of these new cars introduced in Heppner. It is a pretty machine and appears to have everything that is found in a larger car.

Stephen Irwin, local agent for the Oakland Six, returned from Portland Monday with one of these popular cars which he will use for demonstrating purposes. He reports the roads are very slick between this city and Portland at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney and son Kenneth of Bonners Ferry Idaho are visiting at the home of Mr. Mahoney's brother T. J. Mahoney in this city. Mr. Mahoney, like our fellow townsman, is in the banking business, being vice president of the First State Bank of Bonners Ferry. They will remain here until the end of the week.

R. J. Judy of Ione was in the city Monday, making the first of his regular runs between that city and Heppner with his auto. According to Mr. Judy, the lone, Heppner auto stage service is a regular convenience now. He will make two trips daily. Mr. Judy has been in the employ of the Parker Taxicab service in Pendleton the past few years, but prior to that time, he made his home in Ione.

Alma, the little twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheelhouse had the misfortune of running a needle into her leg and having the broken point remain in. She was taken to Portland where it was expected that it could be removed with a magnet, but it remained to be moved by an operation, which was performed Tuesday and the little girl is getting along very nicely.—Arlington Independent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pask were here receiving a visit the past week from Mrs. Sweek's father, B. J. Hawthorne of Eugene and her sister, Miss Minnie Hawthorne. Her brother Tom Hawthorne and wife were also here from Irrigon a few days. Mr. Hawthorne held a professorship in the University of Oregon for nearly thirty years and after leaving that institution, he was admitted to the bar. He is probably the oldest man ever admitted to the practice of law in this state, being 76 years old when he took the examination. He is now practicing law in Eugene.

Such tobacco enjoyment

as you never thought could be is yours to command quick as you buy some Prince Albert and fire-up a pipe or a home-made cigarette!

Prince Albert gives you every tobacco satisfaction your smoke-appetite ever hankered for. That's because it's made by a patented process that cuts out bite and parch! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

PRINCE ALBERT

has a flavor as different as it is delightful. You never tasted the like of it! And that isn't strange, either.

Men who think they can't smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette can smoke and will smoke if they use Prince Albert. And smokers who have not yet given P. A. a try-out certainly have a big surprise and a lot of enjoyment coming their way as soon as they invest in a supply. Prince Albert tobacco will tell its own story!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and that corking fine pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such clover trim—always!

On the reverse side of this tidy red tin you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907" which has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked before!
