WEEKS' NEWS.

Local And Personal Happen- ings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson of Eight Mile spent Wednesday in this city.

G. W. Verdor has been receiving treatment for la grippe at the local sanatorium.

John Hayes came up from Portland Tuesday evening and will remain here to look after business interests.

A thirteen pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Sharp at the home of J. W. McCraw in this city on Monday.

Mrs. Lee Slocum of Slocum's Mill visited during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Slocum in Lexington.

Mrs. E. G. Noble departed on Wednesday for Monmouth, where she will spend the Christmas vacation at the home of her parents.

M. J. Bradford has been confined to his home the past week on account of illness. It was thought for a while that he was suffering from pneumonia, but his condition is improving at this time.

Ellis Cason of Lone Rock, who recently underwent an operation at the Heppner Sanatorium for appendicitis, is recovering slowly, but satisfactorily, according to his attending physician, Dr. N. E. Winnard.

R. F. Hynd is in the city from Portland looking after business interests. Mr. Hynd is president of the Heppner Milling Company. While in the city, he is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barratt.

Mrs. E. G. Slocum of Lexington returned to her home in that city last Sunday from Pendleton. She brings back the report that a nine pound girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Kem. Mrs. Kem was formerly Miss Happy Slocum.

FOR SALE—Two story store, five room apartment and stock of groceries, near new park and playground, walking distance from Jefferson High school. Only $2750. $1250 cash and balance mortgage. Owner 1150 E. 18th street, North Portland, Ore.

T. J. Mahoney has been confined to his home this week with an attack of lagrippe.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Justus returned to their Heppner home Wednesday, from a visit of several days in Portland, where they were visitors at the live stock show.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned the last of the week from McMinnville where they attended the Farmers' Union Convention. Mr. Jones says they were royally entertained by the McMinnville people, during every minute of their stay in that city.

W. W. McQueen and wife, parents of Mrs. Ralph Johnson have been visiting at the Johnson home from Milton. Mr. McQueen recently sold his farm near Milton for $48,000. He left the first of the week for a visit in the East, but Mrs. McQueen will remain here for some time.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs.
Laxton McMurray of Ione was brought to the Heppner Sanatorium on Tuesday and was operated upon immediately for appendicitis. His condition at this time is said to be grave. Dr. Winnard of this city and Dr. Chick of Ione had charge of the operation.

W. R. Irwin and Frank Engleman returned last Monday from Toledo, Ohio where they attended the agents' and dealers' convention of the Willys-Overland Co. They were met at Arlington by Stephen Irwin, who brought them home in his car. Mr.
Irwin did not go to Canada to visit as he had first planned.

Henry F. Blahm of Willow creek was in the city Saturday. He is recovering satisfactorily from the injuries he received some time ago, when he fell from a wagon. He reports that his daughter, Amelia, who recently married a prominent young man of Walla Walla, is doing nicely and invites any of her Heppner friends to visit her anytime they are in Walla Walla.

Horace Addis, field editor of the Oregon Farmer arrived in town Wednesday to attend the annual convention of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association. Mr. Addis arrived a day early and is spending the time in looking over our town and visiting with his many old friends here. He has a wide reputation among the farmers and stockmen, having been connected for many years with the Rural Spirit.
