

PROFESSIONAL COLUMN

Dr. H. T. ALLISON

Physician & Surgeon

Office in Guan Building,
HEPPNER, OREGON

Dr. N. E. WINNARD

Physician & Surgeon

Office in Fair Building
HEPPNER - OREGON

A. D. McMURDO, M. D.

Physician & Surgeon

Office in Patterson Drug Store
HEPPNER - OREGON

Dr. R. J. VAUGHN

DENTIST

Permanently located in the Odd
Fellows building, Rooms 4 and 5.
HEPPNER, OREGON

DR. D. E. HAYLOB

EYE SPECIALIST

Heppner - Phone 52 - Ore.

WOODSON & SWEET

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

Office in Palace Hotel,
Heppner, Oregon

SAM E. VAN VACTOR

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Office on west end of May Street
HEPPNER, OREGON

S. E. NOTSON

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Office in Court House, Heppner.

F. H. ROBINSON

LAWYER

IONE - OREGON

CLYDE and DICK WELLS

SHAVING PARLORS

Three doors south of Postoffice.
Shaving 25c Haircutting 35c.
Bathroom in connection.

PATTERSON & ELDER

2 Doors North Palace Hotel.

TONSorial ARTISTS

FINE BATHS SHAVING 25c

J. H. BODE

MERCHANT TAILOR

HEPPNER - OREGON

"Tailoring That Satisfies"

LOUIS PEARSON

MERCHANT TAILOR

HEPPNER - OREGON

ROY V. WHITEIS

Fire Insurance writer for best Old Line Companies.

HEPPNER - OREGON

BRADFORD & SON

"The Village Painters"

Contracting Painting and Paper hanging. Phone 553. Office
1st Door West of Creamery

Mrs. Lena Snell Shurtle, newly elected county school superintendent, has taken the oath of office and is now established in the court house. She has taken the same office that the retiring superintendent, S. E. Notson formerly had. Mr. Notson has placed his district attorney shingle over the door leading to a nice suite of rooms in the Roberts Building.

M. J. Devin, pioneer Sand Hollow farmer, was a pleasant caller at the Gazette-Times office one day last week. Mr. Devin has been farming in the Sand Hollow country and has developed a wheat ranch that stands well at the head of the list. He has arrived at that stage in life where he is now ready to retire and will dispose of his holdings in the near future. His family has been living in Heppner the last few years, Mr. Devin having purchased and improved a residence in the west end of town.

Household furniture moved quickly and cheaply. E. H. Kellogg, Main 163. Deliveries made to any part of town.

WEEKS' NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Ten good four year old mules for sale. Guv Boyer.

Walter Drum was down from Parkers Mill Saturday.

Warner Reitman, of Ione, spent Sunday in this city.

Roy Ashbaugh was down from Hardman Wednesday.

W. H. Hayes was in the city from Ione Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Sparks is visiting with Ione relatives this week.

Anson Wright and son were in the city Wednesday from Hardman.

Nat Webb, Jr. came down from Walla Walla the last of the week.

Sherman Wakefield, Heppner Flat farmer, was a Heppner visitor Monday.

B. J. Judy, Ione jitney man, spent several days in Heppner on business this week.

Two spans of geldings for sale, 5 years old, well broke. F. E. Mason, Lexington.

Harlan McCurdy was up from Ione Monday evening visiting with Heppner friends.

Milt Maxwell, Parkers Mill postmaster and merchant was a Heppner visitor last week.

Walter Cochran, editor of the Ione Independent, was an over-Sunday visitor in Heppner.

Dr. J. G. Turner, the Portland eye specialist, made his regular visit to Heppner this week.

H. S. Ewing, prominent farmer and stockman of Cecil transacted business in Heppner last Friday.

Frank Hopkins, Ione jitney, brought up a load of Egg City basketball fans Saturday evening.

For quick delivery service call Main 163. E. H. Kellogg and the motor truck will do the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bortzer of Ione were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tash in this city last week.

Classes in aesthetic and ball room dancing for children will begin Saturday afternoon. Ages from six to sixteen years.

O. M. Whittington went to Portland last Thursday where he will receive medical treatment at the hands of specialists.

Wm. Siebolds and family have returned to their Heppner home after a two week's visit with relatives in the Willamette Valley.

Emmett Cochran, Joe Simas and W. E. White, prominent Grant county men who live at Monument, returned Tuesday from Portland.

George Groshen, who has been confined to his home for several days with an attack of the grippe, is now on the road to recovery.

Geo. T. Pearce, of the Heppner Herald was an outgoing passenger Tuesday morning, going to Portland for a short business visit.

Wm. Lowen was down from Hardman last week making application for land under the recently enacted 640 acre homestead law.

John Blake and wife were among the Ionettes attending the basketball game here Saturday night. Mr. Blake refereed the boys' game.

Miss Ida Irby, who has been visiting for some time at the home of her uncle, J. B. Sparks in this city, departed Monday for her home in Baker.

J. H. Wilt and wife and daughter, Miss Dorris, were in Heppner Saturday evening, coming up to witness the battle between the basketball boys.

George W. Chapin, well known Hardman farmer was in the city last Saturday on business. This office acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Chapin.

W. W. Cryder, supervisor of the Umatilla National Forest reserve, spent Tuesday in this city on business pertaining to his office. He returned to Pendleton Wednesday.

Miss Edith Thorley, accomplished Heppner young lady, departed Sunday morning for Portland where she will spend several months under Portland's leading music instructors.

Wm. Gordon, of Middleton Idaho, who recently suffered severe illness from an attack of pneumonia, has gone to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bessie Thompson on Butter creek, where his condition is improving.

Miss Hannah Wilson, popular high school student, has been employed at the office of United States Commissioner, C. C. Patterson at the Court house the past week. A rush of applications for homesteads under the new 640-acre law has been the cause of an unusual rush.

Chas. Valentine was up from his farm below town Saturday. Mr. Valentine views the future with optimism and firmly believes that the coming year will prove equally as good as the one just past. He had an excellent crop this year.

PERFECT CONFIDENCE

Heppner People Have Good Reason For Complete Reliance.

Do you know how—
To find relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To assist weak kidneys?
Your neighbors know the way—
Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Heppner testimony:
Mrs. A. Missildine, Court St., Heppner, says: "It was a good many years ago that I took Doan's Kidney Pills and I know from the benefit I received at that time that they are all that is claimed for them. If it would be necessary to take a kidney medicine again, I would use Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used a great deal of confidence in them."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Missildine had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Frank Frates, Eight Mile farmer was a visitor in Heppner Friday evening.

Ralph Hymer and Ernest Higgs were Ione visitors in this city last Saturday evening.

Elmer Gentry of Colfax Wash., visited with his several brothers in this city last week.

Pat Connell, Castle Rock sheepman spent several days in Heppner on business this week.

W. K. Corson, head clerk in the Jos. Bargey store of Lexington, is spending the week in Heppner.

LOST—Somewhere in city, a pearl necklace with pearl pendant attached. Valued highly by owner. Finder please leave same at this office.

LOST—A light brown fur neck piece between South Methodist church and postoffice. Finder please leave at this office.

Rev. Dr. George B. VanWaters of Portland will hold services at the Episcopal church both morning and evening next Sunday. Every body is cordially invited to attend these services.

Wm. Lawson, the veteran miner, reports that word received from the Greenhorn district in the Blue mountains, is to the effect that there is at this time, six feet of snow in that locality.

Dave Hynd was in the city last Saturday from his Sand Hollow ranch attending to business matters. He was accompanied by his brother Chas. Hynd of Ukiah, who has been visiting at the Hynd home in this county.

Miss Blanche Minor, who has been visiting during the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor, in this city, departed Sunday morning to resume her studies at St. Mary's Academy in Portland.

Dr. C. E. Proebstel of Pendleton was a Heppner visitor Wednesday. Dr. Proebstel is representing J. R. Justice, importer of fine stallions. He will visit in other parts of the county during the remainder of the week.

Dr. Leonard R. Purkey, local osteopath is spending several days in Portland. While away he will attend the sessions of the Oregon Osteopaths Association. Dr. Purkey will return home on the 14th of this month.

N. A. Clark the local wood and coal dealer explains that the two prices for coal is on account of the grade. One grade is from Rock Springs and sells for $11 per ton while the other grade is Centrallia coal and sells for $9 per ton.

C. H. Goldsmith and wife and son Harold of Newton Illinois arrived in Heppner last week to visit at the home of N. A. Clark. Mr. Goldsmith is a mechanic by trade and may decide to become one of Heppner's permanent citizens.

Silas Harris, Civil war veteran and pioneer homesteader of Morrow county, came down from his home near Parkers Mill last Friday to transact business in this city. They have had a mild winter in his locality, according to Mr. Harris.

Harry Brown, blacksmith at the W. P. Scrivner shop received severe injuries to his left eye one day last week when that member was hit by a piece of hot metal. After receiving the attentions of a doctor, Mr. Brown is again able to be at his work.

F. M. Templeton, prominent stockman of Spray is seriously ill at his home near that place with pneumonia. Dr. Gaunt of Hardman is in charge, and he called Miss Gertrude Deen, nurse at the Heppner sanatorium, to attend Mr. Templeton.

Andy Rood Jr. and Herman Nielson returned the last of the week from a visit of two weeks to Portland and Seattle. While in the Washington metropolis, the Bremerton navy yards was one of the many points of interest visited by these gentlemen.

Lester Ingram, who has been clerk at the Palace hotel for the past year and a half, left Tuesday for LaGrande where he has accepted a similar position with the Foley hotel. Mr. Ingram was formerly a popular high school student and has many friends here who wish him success in his new location.

LOST—One gray horse six years old. Roached mane, no distinguishable brand. Raised in Hamilton county. Notify Walter Becket, Heppner, Ore.

FOR SALE—1840 Acre Wheat and Stock Ranch, well improved. Plenty of spring water for stock. All farm implements and improvements go with the place. Easy terms. Eight miles from railroad. Inquire M. J. Divil & Sons, Heppner, Ore.

President Barratt of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association, recently received a highly complimentary letter from Henry Blackman of San Francisco. Mr. Blackman was touched by the tribute paid by Mr. Barratt to the pioneer stockmen of Oregon. Mr. Barratt's address has been the cause of favorable comment and praise from all sections of the country.

I have a good assortment of fruit, shade and ornamental trees, shrubs and plants of the most desirable sorts, guaranteed true to name. Will give you better value and satisfaction than you can get elsewhere. CUMMINGS NURSERIES, Heppner, Ore.

House For Rent.
One of the best houses in town for rent, $15 per month; safe from flood. Inquire of Geo. J. Currin.

Jesse O. Turner this week received a letter from Walter Yeager. Walter is now in Oakland, Cal., and is attending the California Technical School. He is staying with Harry Wright, another Heppner boy and they are taking the wireless course at the College. Ellis Hendricson, who completed the same course nearly a year ago, had just left Oakland for South America, having a berth as wireless operator on one of the coastwise vessels.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Clark returned last week from Newton Illinois, where they were called by the serious illness of Mr. Clark's father. The condition of the elder Mr. Clark is not improved at this time and his advanced age serves as a serious handicap to his recovery.

For Sale or Trade—Belgian stallion, 8 years old, weight 1600, bred from imported horse, will sell for $200 or trade for horses. Good colt getter. Jas. Carty.

Archie Barnard is improving the "shinning days" by running a road scraper over the principal business streets and thereby smothering over the rugged and traffic cut thoroughfares. From the results obtained it is apparent that no better time than the present could have been selected in which to do the work.

AT
Minor & Co.
"GOOD GOODS" "GOOD GOODS"

Ties OF Quality

We ask you to see our new line of
"CHENEY SILK" TIES
at $1.00 and $1.25.

The newest of new designs in neckwear--"The Moire."

We are showing these in many shades of blue, green, and red, in changeable silks, and flowered and moire patterns.

"CHENEY SILK" has a reputation worth while for designing, for service and for satisfaction.

SEE OUR WINDOW
wherein
The "Mysterious Clock" shows the correct time of the day

MINOR & Co.

"GOOD GOODS" "GOOD GOODS"

Small Horses Wanted

Mares and Geldings, 14-3 to 16 Hands. Solid Colors.

GUY BOYER, Heppner, Or.