

Thomson Brothers

For Merchandise

Three complete departments from which to choose your every need

Hardware

Is all the name implies and nothing more. Some hardware is better than other. That depends.

We carry complete lines of Hardware in the best known and more widely advertised lines.

Vaughn & Sons

Hardware Dealers

People's Cash Market

Phone Main 73

Wholesale and retail dealers in FRESH AND CURED MEATS

Prompt attention given all orders.

HENRY SCHWARZ, Proprietor

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There's nothing of guessing or speculation in regard to Ford cars. Their practical value is being demonstrated by more than 1,750,000 Ford owners representing every phase of human activity. Ford Service for Ford Owners is as universal and reliable as the car itself. Dependability and economy in car and service. Better buy your Ford today—you want it and it will serve you every day, winter and summer. Touring Car $360, Runabout $345, Coupelet $505, Town Car $595, Sedan $645—f. o. b. Detroit. We solicit your order.

WALTHER-WILLIAMS HDWE. CO.

J. O. RASMUS, Mgr.

Sales Room in Yeager Bldg., Main St.

WEEKS' NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Pete Prophet, Hardman merchant, was in the city Tuesday.

Ed Neill was in the city from his Butter creek ranch Saturday.

Arthur Gay was in town on Tuesday from his Rhea creek home.

W. B. Ewing, Cecil farmer and stockman, transacted business in Heppner Tuesday.

Mrs. Emaline Howard is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Laura Griffith of Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn returned the first of the week from a visit of two weeks in Portland.

Herman Nielson, prosperous farmer of the Hardman section, spent Tuesday in this city on business.

Vine L. Pearce of McMinville visited this week with his son, George T. Pearce of the Heppner Herald.

Wm. Kummerland was in the city on Tuesday. He has a limited supply of good, clean rye seed for sale.

S. E. Notson was a passenger for Salem Monday, where he will spend the week visiting at the state legislature.

Rev. Dr. George B. VanWaters of Portland will preach both morning and evening next Sunday at the Episcopal church.

Frank Lieuallen of Rhea creek, was in the city Wednesday and returned home with a wagon load of new furniture.

Mrs. Willamina Macy has filed suit for divorce against her husband, G. Chester Macy. Woodson and Sweek are her attorneys.

Mrs. R. J. Vaughn and Mrs. C. L. Sweek are joint hostesses for a bridge party at the home of Mrs. Vaughn on Friday afternoon.

Ira Morgan, manager of the Morrow County Creamery, went to Wenatchee, Wash., Tuesday. He will be absent from the city several days.

C. B. Haywood of Portland spent last Thursday evening in this city. Mr. Haywood is a representative of the American Type Founders Co. of Portland.

Lee Padberg, county commissioner came up from his lone home on Wednesday morning to attend the monthly session of County Court in this city.

P. G. Farley is slowly recovering from an attack of the grip. Although able to leave the hospital, he is far from being fully recovered and suffers much from pleurisy.

R. W. Turner, representing the Farmers' Union in this county, went to Salem the first of the week to work for certain measures now pending before the state legislature.

Dr. H. T. Allison was called to Arlington last week to attend E. C. Maddock, who has been suffering from heart trouble. Mr. Maddock was taken to Portland, where he will receive treatment in a sanatorium.

Marion Evans, former sheriff of Morrow county, was in the city Wednesday from his farm home on Willow creek. Mr. Evans says the poorest roads encountered between his place and town, are within the city limits.

Dr. Purkey announces the arrival of a nine pound boy to Mrs. Fred Newton on Monday. Mrs. Newton, whose home is in Woodlawn, Wash., is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Driskell of this city, with whom she has been visiting.

Miss Anna Buschke, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the local hospital, was able to return to her Rhea creek home the first of the week. She was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buschke.

A new operator arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Parker in this city Monday. Mother and child are doing nicely. This is the second son in the Parker family. Mr. Parker is the Western Union operator at the depot.

Gus Williamson returned the last of the week from a visit of several weeks with relatives and old friends in Missouri. Mr. Williamson reports much snow in the middle west and says that the trains were tied up for several hours in Wyoming.

G. Lansing Hurd, member of the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural College was in Heppner last Saturday and spoke before the evening meeting on the value of bulk handling of grain. Mr. Hurd was formerly a newspaper man at Stanfield, but is also a practical farmer of many years experience.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth, and grandson, Ted Young, returned Tuesday from California, where they spent several weeks. According to Mr. Farnsworth, winter weather there this year has been unusually severe. The L. E. Blsbee family, who went south with the Farnsworths' returned to their Heppner home last week.

What's your tailor?

Our Policy:

Every line of merchandise which we sell represents the very best quality we can procure. YOU come first with us because it's YOUR SATISFACTION that insures our success. When we selected the incomparable tailoring line of ED. V. PRICE & CO. we did so not solely from a matter of profit but because YOU would be suited best.

We're ready to take your measure NOW.

Copyright by ED. V. PRICE & CO.

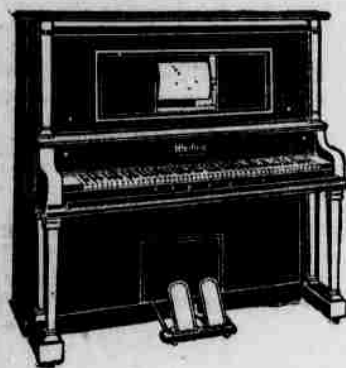

MINOR & CO.

"GOOD GOODS"

"GOOD GOODS"

$100 FOR $50

OWING to railroad conditions my stock of pianos arrived too late for the Holiday sales, which leaves me overstocked at the present time. However, this is your opportunity---your chance to get a

HIGH GRADE PIANO

at a figure seldom, if ever, equaled. For each first payment I will give you a receipt for double the amount, up to $50.00. For instance, should you make a first payment of $50 down, I will give you a receipt for $100. This offer applies to any and all high grade pianos in stock as long as they last

OSCAR R. OTTO