WILL WIPE OUT LYCEUM DEFICIT

Home Talent Entertainment Will Be
Given Under Supervision of Mrs.
J. E. Berwick and Mrs. N.
E. Winnard.

In order that the deficit which now stands against those who signed up for the lyceum course last year, may be wiped out, the services of Mrs. J. E. Berwick, well known elocutionist, and Mrs. N. E. Winnard have been secured. Mrs. Berwick will appear on the program a number of times in elocutionary work and Mrs. Winnard will have charge of the musical feature of the entertainment.

Mrs. Berwick needs no introduction to the Heppner public, since she has appeared to advantage on previous occasions. She will give a number of well known readings.

The entertainment will be given in the high school auditorium on the evening of Wednesday February, 28, beginning at 8 o'clock.

The program outlined by the ladies in charge will take the form of the following:

- (a) "Mr. Brown Has His Hair Cut."
(b) "Pa's Initiation."—Mrs. Berwick.
Music—Selected.
(a) "Holding a Seat at the Benefit."
(b) "Rosa," (Italian dialect)—Mrs. Berwick.
Music—Selected.
"The Soul of the Old Violin"—Mrs. Berwick.
Music—Selected.
(a) "Daddy"
(b) Selection from "The Call of The Wild."—Mrs. Berwick.
(a) "Speak up Ike"
(b) "Old Glory."—Mrs. Berwick.
Star Spangled Banner, by the audience.

Mrs. Berwick And The Press.

The Toledo Leader says:—Our people turned out well and were responsive to the reader's every mood. Mrs. Berwick has a pleasing personality and before the conclusion of her first number, every person in the opera house was her friend. Mrs. Berwick has one of the best entertainments we have ever heard. As a child impersonator especially, she is almost perfect. Everything she renders is clean, elevating and instructive.

Former Seattle Mayor Writes.

In a letter from Geo. L. Cotterill, former mayor of Seattle, he says: "Your audiences will always be abundantly amused and interested, but, by the use of such selections as you favored us with last week (when it was my pleasure to introduce you to that vast Seattle audience) they will also be stirred to the depths of human sympathy and raised to the heights of the noblest ideals."

The press notices and words of commendation taken from scores of kindly criticisms of Mrs. Berwick's work as a reader, impels us to say that the people of Heppner, who take advantage of this opportunity of hearing her in a full evening of readings, have a real treat ahead.

Those who heard Mrs. Berwick Friday evening, are enthusiastic in commendation of her work as a reader and impersonator. Broad in human sympathy, she is keen in interpretation, in which she shows an originality which is an absolute essential to the successful impersonator. She demonstrated likewise the versatility which made her alike effective in such antipodal selections as "Pas Initiation" and "The Soul of the Violin." The program presented a pleasing variety which held the close attention of the audience for a little over two hours.—Newberg Graphic, Newberg, Ore.

The ability of Mrs. Berwick as a dramatic entertainer and child impersonator is unequaled by any, and I take great pleasure in recommending her. Her ability to hold and entertain an audience is remarkable. F. T. Mellinger, Editor Dayton Tribune, Dayton, Ore.

I consider Mrs. Berwick one of the best readers and entertainers I have ever heard.—Rev. C. L. Hamilton, former Pastor Central M. E. church, Portland, Ore.

Leases Hotel Basement to Install Amusement Parlors.

C. L. Curran of The Dalles, who recently installed a bowling alley in the north room of the Palace Hotel basement, has leased the entire basement floor space, with the exception of one back room, and he will soon put in new billiard and pool tables. Although the billiard and pool room will be separated from the room in which the bowling alleys are situated the two will be connected by large doors. Both places will be equipped with soft drink fountains and confectionery, cigars and tobacco will be handled.

The skirted Animal.

(Carolyn Wells.
Half an inch, half an inch,
Half an inch shorter,
Whether the skirts are for
Mother or daughter!

Briefer the dresses grow,
Fuller the ripples flow,
While whisking glimpses show
More than they oughter!

Forward the dress parade!
Is there a man dismayed
No! From the sight displayed
None could be sundered!

Theirs not to make remark:
Clergyman, clubman, clerk—
Gaping from noon till dark
At the four hundred.

Short skirts to right of them!
Shorter to left of them!
Shortest in front of them,
Flaunted and flirtd!

In hose of stripe and plaid,
Hued most exceeding glad,
Sporting in spats run mad,
Come the short-skirted.

Flashed all their ankles there,
Flashed as they turned in air!
What will not women dare?
Though some of the exhibits show,
Some of them blundered.

All sorts of types of pegs—
Broomsticks, Piano legs;
Here and there fairy shapes,
Just built to walk on eggs,
Come by the hundred.

When can their glory fade?
Oh, the wild show they made!
All the world wondered.

Grande dame and demoiselle,
Shop girl and Bowery belle—
Fourhundred? H'm—oh, well.
Any old hundred!

—Judge.

The Federated Church.

The topic for the morning sermon will be: "How Far Away is God?" Evening: "The World as Christ Found It." Leader for Christian Endeavor, David Wilson. You are cordially invited to attend the services next Sunday.

H. A. NOYES,
Pastor.

On Tuesday of last week Lou Winebarger of Mitchell forged a check on the Shaniko bank for $475, signing the name of his grandfather, Marion Osborn, and cashed the check at Steiwer & Carpenter bank, Fossil, after it had been endorsed by S. A. Stewart of this place. The forgery was discovered when Mr. Osborn came to Fossil Thursday and learned that the check had been presented and cashed. Young Winebarger boarded the train at Condon, Wednesday morning, ostensibly bound for Boise, Idaho and Sheriff Kelsay started after him Thursday evening, but returned home without Winebarger last evening, after a week's fruitless search.—Fossil Journal.

D. E. Gilman returned the last of the week from a business trip of several days to outside points.

E. S. Duran came up from Lexington on Tuesday.
