NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon, April 2nd, 1917.

NOTICE is hereby given that Dennis Kiernan, of Lexington, Oregon, who on December 26th, 1912, made Homestead Entry No. 011038 and on June 14th, 1915 made additional

Will Remove to Southern Oregon.

R. B. Wilcox, who has been farming and dairying on Willow creek a few miles northwest of Lexington for several years past, and who has succeeded in developing one of the best ranches in the Willow creek Valley, has disposed of his entire holdings here and will move this week to the Umpqua Valley in Southern Oregon. Mr. Wilcox has lived in Morrow county for the past fifteen years and for a part of this time he was at the head of the Lexington schools, and has established himself as one of our best citizens. We regret to see him and his family leave the county and trust that they will meet with prosperity in their new home. Mr. Wilcox came from Southern Oregon to Morrow County, and he says that there is no certainty that he may not return here at some future date, as most people do who have lived in the county as long as he did.

Much Road Work in Progress.

The road supervisors up and down Willow creek and in many other parts of the county are quite busy these days in shaping up the highways. A lot of grading is being completed between Heppner and Ione and the road is being put in fine shape. This is also true in all directions leading out from the creek, and a general stirring up of the road beds is in progress. Many of the roads are being placed on a grade and will be turpined in good shape, making them more permanent. The season for road work is now very opportune as the weather conditions are such that but little work can be done in the fields and this leaves more hands and teams available.

RURAL CREDIT LOANS DECLARED TIMEY NOW

For Terms Apply to State Land Board Attorney For This County.

O. A. C., Corvallis, Ore., April 3.—Farmers of Morrow County who contemplate making loans from the State Rural Credits fund may secure blanks and instructions by applying to the State Land Board attorney for this county C. E. Woodson, Heppner. It is also suggested by Dr. Hector Macpherson, of the O. A. C. department of Rural Economics, who assisted in drawing the bill, that the loans be negotiated as soon as possible. General interest rates are likely in face of war conditions to rise as much as one per cent in a few months, and eventually put the federal loan measure entirely out of business as well as render the operation of the state law much harder. Such has been the course in British Columbia where similar laws were enacted four years ago but have not yet been put into operation because of the war.

"A great deal of confusion exists," says Dr. Macpherson, "as to how to proceed to get a loan. Intending borrowers should call up their county representative of the state land board, who can supply them with blanks and give instructions. Loans may be made for 10, 20, 30, or 36 year periods. Borrowers are advised to take the 36 year loans, which can be paid, principal and interest, in 35 annual payments of six dollars each and one-the last-payment of about ten dollars. If able to pay sooner they may pay as fast as they please, and interest will be stopped on all partial payments as soon as made."

Work on the new pool rooms in the basement of the Palace hotel is proceeding rapidly and they will be ready for occupancy before many weeks. At the present time the lathing work is being done under the supervision of Lige Pearce. When completed, the room will be ideally fitted for the purpose to which it will be put. M. C. Curran will have charge of the new business.

Bert Smith, who farms the Hodson place north of Lexington spent Tuesday in the city.

W. H. Cronk, the man who sells lumber for the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company in Ione, motored to Heppner Monday and spent a few hours transacting business.

According to Orve Rasmus, the local Ford dealer, he is having some difficulty in getting cars to fill orders. A large pile of orders now lay on his desk, but the demand seems to be far greater than the supply.

Emmett Carpenter, the Eight Mile postmaster, was in the city one day last week.

Herman Neilson came down from his ranch near Hardman Tuesday to attend the road meeting.
