NOW IS THE TIME

Now is the time to consider kitchen-comfort this summer—now is the time to buy an oil cook-stove.

Look for the specially-decorated windows of the merchants listed at the left. The orange discs proclaim a message welcome to every housewife. They tell how the New Perfection drives out the drudgery and discomfort of summer cooking, and at the same time gives better results than your regular kitchen range for all-the-year-round cooking. This is New Perfection Oil Cook Stove Week. Ask these dealers to explain how the long blue chimneys of the New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove prevent all smoke and smell. Learn the comfort and economy of cooking with Pearl Oil.

NEW PERFECTION OIL COOK STOVE Week

The Morrow County Creamery has increased the efficiency in the milk and cream department by purchasing a Ford truck with which to make deliveries. The truck is invaluable for hauling butter and ice cream to cold storage and bring cream cans to and from the Alfalfa Lawn Dairy.

R. M. Farrens of the Gooseberry section spent a few days in Heppner the first of the week.

Robbie Lowe left for Ukiah Sunday to spend his holidays with his uncle Charlie Hynd and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Patterson left for Portland on Saturday and will visit in the metropolis until after the Fourth.

Mr. T. M. Scott, of Salem, is visiting at the home of his son-in-law, L. Redding on Eight Mile. He came up from the Capitol City the past week and reports a very backward season in the Willamette Valley.

LIVE LEXINGTON NEWS

The Christian Endeavor Rally was a decided success. It opened Saturday evening and continued throughout Sunday and Sunday evening. With the help of Union 17 officers and the Ione and Heppner C. E. societies, we feel that we had a genuine rally.

Miss Rice of Milton, the Columbia Union secretary and Miss Hoosier of Stanfield, chairman of the prayer meeting committee, delivered splendid addresses along their special line of work. Miss Stoops and Olive Hartwell represented the Ione C. E. and Norton Winnard the Heppner C. E. Sunday afternoon was probably enjoyed as much as any of the program, when the Juniors gave their program. Mrs. Karl Beach had this program in charge and with the help to the Ione Juniors and also Rev. Lee Sadler a very interesting program was given. A great deal of the success of the Rally is owed to the large attendance and the Lexington C. E.'s do appreciate the interest shown not only by local people but also those who came some distance to attend and help the work.

Rev. Blackman of Arlington attended the Rally Sunday and was so pleased with the Lexington orchestra that he suggested they play at Arlington for the rally to be held there some time this month. One feature of Sunday's program which was enjoyed by all was the social hour and basket supper which followed. It has been some time since a picnic supper had been held in Lexington and so well attended. We wish we could have more of such events to better acquaint ourselves with our neighboring people.

Quite a number of Lexington people returned from Portland last week where they attended the Rose Show. Among these were George McMillan, W. E. Pointer, Harvey McAllister, Mrs. E. Chas. Pointer and Clyde Gentry.

Harvey Miller, son of E. C. Miller, is visiting in Lexington this week. Mr. Miller has made his home near Lexington during the summer seasons. He is a graduate of the U. of O. in the 1917 class.

E. A. Zochert is now drayman, Prof. Daok having bought a ranch in the Ione vicinity. Mr. Daok expects to move from Lexington the first of the week.

Word has been received that Marshal McAllister, one of Lexington's young men, has enlisted with the engineering corps of the army.

Mrs. J. L. Jones of Ione was a Lexington visitor on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Beach returned to their home in Portland Monday.

W. D. Newlon was a business visitor in Lexington Monday.

Mrs. Warden is making an extended visit with her sister and friends in Portland.

Regular church services will be held at the Church of Christ Sunday, Lee Sadler, minister.

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.
At 10:30 the Sunday school and congregation will unite in a patriotic program to be given by the children of the Sunday school and others. Among other good things we shall have a short address to the children on the "Meaning of Patriotism," by Mrs. Shurte; a solo by Mrs. Sims; short address, "The Duty of the Citizen," by Mr. Woodson; unveiling of the "Heppner Honor Roll." There is no public service here on the Fourth, so come out next Sunday morning and join us in prayer for our country and for righteous world-wide peace.
