BUYERS WEEK IS 5TH ANNUAL EVENT

Merchants Convention at Portland August 6 to 11 Will Be a Big Attraction as Usual.

"Business as usual" is the slogan adopted by Portland merchants who are to participate in Buyers Week for the fifth time. They will entertain their up-state friends August 6 to 11. The slogan fits in with President Wilson's idea of going on with the usual occupations of the people and letting the war department and Congress run the war.

Conducting "business as usual" leaves the ordinary citizen in position to respond to special calls for his time and money when the President and the country need them. "Business as usual" will keep the country sane and strong to meet the emergencies of the war. Buyers Week at Portland this year will be a conference of the business men of the Northwest over war conditions, as well as an inspection of the gigantic stocks of goods carried in that city. One interesting feature is to be the inspection of the shipyards where wood and steel vessels are being turned out, and the offering of an opportunity for every merchant to secure first hand information as to the influence this industry is going to exert on all lines of business. It has already stimulated the lumber camps and mills, and the immense number of mechanics it employs is creating a steady demand for products of every section of the Northwest.

League Will Preach Patriotism Through Organization

New York, July 24.—The greatest patriotic educational campaign this country has ever seen is being organized by the National Security League. It is a campaign to arouse the people of the nation to a realization of what the war means and what their patriotic duty is. The first definite plans were laid at a meeting of prominent educators called by the Security League in this city early in May. Since then, college and university presidents and professors, university extension systems, Chautauquas, lawyers, writers, editors, judges, politicians and business men in all parts of the country have endorsed the idea and promised the Security League their fullest cooperation in carrying it out.

The League's plan is to organize through its Committee of Patriotism Through Education, of which Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard University, is Chairman, a system of addresses on patriotic and war topics by means of which trained speakers will carry into every city, town and hamlet in every state in the Union the following message—The causes of the war, the reasons for the entrance of this country into the conflict, what the United States must do to carry out its part, and the knowledge that not only the existence of democracy in the abstract but also the very life of this nation itself depends upon victory over Germany.

Percy Garrigues came up from his Portland home the first of the week and is spending a few days here inspecting the new building that has recently been built on his property adjoining the Heppner Garage.

Dillard French, extensive cattleman of eastern Morrow county, recently bought 1000 tons of hay in the lower Butter creek country at $10 per ton. Reports say that later Mr. French was unable to buy any hay in that section for less than $16 per ton.

Miss Melba Griffiths, a popular young lady who taught in the public school the past year here, has gone to New Mexico to join her mother, expecting to make her home there. Miss Griffiths will be greatly missed by her many friends in this city but they wish her success and happiness wherever she may go.

Starkey & Hill have opened up their business in a new building on Willow street adjoining the paint shop of Bradford & Son. Mr. Hill is the local agent for the Universal Tire Filler Co., and Mr. Starkey, who is an electrician, will carry a complete line of electrical fixtures. The building is owned by Clyde Wells.

Big Shipment of Wool East.

Shipments aggregating three quarters of a million pounds of wool with a valuation of about $400,000 are being made by Thomas Ross to the Boston firm of Crimmins & Pierce. Twenty-two large cars have been ordered by P. C. Hunter, local agent of the O-W. R. & N. Co., in which to make the shipments. All of the wool was purchased for the Boston company by Mr. Ross during the past few weeks, and does not include any of the Echo wool which went to market early this spring.

Following are the points from which the 22 car shipments are being made: Shaniko 6 cars, Condon 4 cars, Pilot Rock 4 cars, Heppner 4 cars, Gwendolyn 2 cars, and Juniper 2 cars.—Echo News.
