Town and Country.

D. C. McCroskey and wife of Astoria were in the city Monday.

W. W. Ewing of Cecil spent Monday and Tuesday in Heppner.

J. L. Wilkins left the first of the week for a vacation of ten days.

Criss Hamilton of Monument was a visitor in Heppner the first of the week.

Bernard Pehr, principal of the Hardman school, was in the city Tuesday.

Ralph Burnside was a Heppner visitor Monday from his home in the Hardman section.

Mrs. C. C. Chick of Ione motored to Heppner Monday and spent a few hours in this city shopping.

I. P. Richardson, Standard Oil representative, with offices in Portland, paid the local office a call this week.

County clerk Waters issued a marriage license this week to G. H. Tupper and Reine Otea, both young people of Ione.

Dr. N. E. Winnard reports the arrival of a fine daughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bray in this city Saturday, August 18.

Attorney Cal Sweek and Mrs. Sweek are spending their vacation at the summer cottage of Mrs. Sweek's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne at Newport beach.

Helen Whittington, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington, underwent an operation last week for the removal of her tonsils. Dr. Winnard had charge of the case.

A new subscriber to The Gazette-Times this week is Frank Woods. Mr. Woods will have charge of one of Ed Neill's bands of sheep in Idaho for the next few months. He left Heppner this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn spent several days in the mountains last week gathering the luscious huckleberries. They met with such good success that they will return there in another week.

Vawter Crawford and Tom Childsey are spending a few days in the mountains this week, hunting, fishing, picking huckleberries and otherwise enjoying the recreative effects of Blue Mountain air.

Fred Ashbaugh, accompanied by his wife and son paid Heppner a short call Tuesday. Mr. Ashbaugh is a thresherman of prominence in the Hardman section, and has just recently branched out into the saw mill business.

Contractor Ed Buckman is busy this week laying new concrete walks along the front of the properties owned by Mrs. Elizabeth J. Ayers and A. L. Ayers on Chase street. He just finished a considerable stretch of walk along the A. M. Slocum property in west Heppner.

Oscar R. Otto left Wednesday for a brief business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Frank J. Hopkins, formerly Miss Sarah Snell, is visiting with relatives in Arlington this week.

Andy Rood and daughter, Miss Millie, left last Saturday for a vacation visit at Portland and the coast.

Leonard Carlson was in the city Tuesday from his Gooseberry ranch making preparations to start threshing.

Miss Evelyn Shipley returned Monday from a ten-days' visit at Portland and Seaside and has resumed her position in the sheriff's office.

W. P. Dutton returned to his Portland home Wednesday after spending a few days in Heppner attending to business matters.

John Hiatt and family have returned to their Heppner home after spending ten days at the Hiatt ranch in the mountains.

Aaron Peterson and son Henry of the Gooseberry section were in Heppner Sunday. Mr. Peterson says his grain made a much better yield than he had anticipated earlier in the season. The average yield was 15 bushels per acre.

Ralph Bengé, formerly extensive wheat grower of Morrow county, was in Heppner this week on a brief business visit. Mr. Bengé owns a ranch in the Six Dollar neighborhood which is being farmed at the present time by Frank Parker.

E. P. Jarmon was in Heppner the first of the week from his ranch on Butter creek. He reports the hay crop a little short this year owing to the protracted dry spell. General conditions in his locality are good in spite of this according to Mr. Jarmon.

Lowell Twichell, who has been working with the Sherman Wakefield harvest crew on Heppner Flat, met with an accident Saturday morning which will probably lay him off for the next thirty days. The accident occurred when he attempted to jump from a header box to the spout on the header. In some manner he fell and dislocated an arm at the elbow.

'IN A BAD WAY'
Many a Heppner Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information.

If your back gives out;
Becomes lame, weak or aching;
If bladder troubles set in.
Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Local evidence proves their merit. Mrs. J. C. Wattenburger, Heppner, says: "I have never had occasion to take a great many of Doan's Kidney Pills, but what I have taken has proven very satisfactory. Different ones of my family have used Doan's whenever it has been necessary to take a kidney medicine, and have found them very beneficial. I can always speak a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know they are a medicine of merit."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wattenburger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GOOD GOODS

Much Time and Money

have been wasted in a vain endeavor to convince people that there is real virtue in Imitations and Substitutes, not alone in the goods themselves, but in the methods of selling. In the end the people find out that it is only a "new slant" to the old game and that any variations from the established principles of sound business dealing are sure to result unsatisfactorily. Let your local dealer show you "the Nigger-in-the-wood-pile." It's there.
