

Power

This is the world's most powerful low-priced car.

It is fundamentally the same car that year after year for many years has enabled Overland to lead by a wide margin, all cars of such comfortable size.

Power! Comfort!! Economy!!!

These advantages in true balance, as combined in this Overland, give unmatched satisfaction to the man who owns this overwhelmingly successful car.

May Move to California.

J. E. Musgrave, who owns property the other side of Hardman was in Heppner Tuesday on business. Mr. Musgrave is about to trade his interests here for property in California, and if the deal goes through he will move with his family to the southland.

Late Wedding Ceremony.

City Recorder J. P. Williams was called from his bed at 12 o'clock last Saturday night to tie the nuptial knot making Pete Nelson of Olex and Leslie Hacker of this county man and wife. The wedding was delayed on account of the contracting parties being unable to procure the proper witnesses to secure the marriage license. They will make their home near Olex.

Getting Wells Drilled.

J. S. Buseick, Hamilton sheepman, is spending a few days in Heppner on business. Mr. Buseick is now having three wells drilled on his Grant county property, T. B. Buffington of Ione having charge of the work. According to Mr. Buseick, Mr. Buffington has enough jobs contracted to keep him busy for the next three years.

Clarence J. D. Bauman, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bauman, who reside on Willow creek just above Lexington, left last Friday for Portland to enlist in the marines. Another son will leave soon to join the new National army.

M. O. Bennett, assistant state highway engineer, who has been making his headquarters in Pendleton, was in Heppner Friday. Mr. Bennett has sent in his resignation to the state department, but his successor has not yet been announced.

Bob Sargent, formerly of the Phill Cohn warehouse in this city, is down from Alberta for a few days visiting with old friends. Bob has been doing well in the north country.

Miss Madge Morrison, who has been spending a few weeks visiting at the farm home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Morrison, returned to San Francisco last Friday.
