Will Make Fine Home. One of the fine new residences to be completed in Heppner about the first of October is the five-room house on Center street, which is being built by Mike Kenny. Mr. Kenny is building the house to relieve the situation in Heppner to some extent as regards houses for rent. He has already rented the property to Mike Curran and family. The house will be modern in every respect and a credit to Heppner.

G. E. Jones, Grant county farmer and stockman, spent a few days in Heppner the first of the week on business. Mr. Jones says the hay crop was light in his country this season, but there will be plenty of feed for stock, in his opinion.

Charley Burchell and family of Lexington were Monday visitors in Heppner. Mr. Burchell has finished his threshing and his grain made him better than 17 bushels to the acre, a pleasant fact to be announced when he was not expecting to get much better than an average yield of 10 bushels to the acre.

A. C. Allison and wife of Echo spent the week-end in Heppner.
