

DODGE BROTHERS ROADSTER

The goodness of the car is seldom called into question. The thoughts about it are the same thoughts in thousands of minds. The market grows by what it feeds on—and what it feeds on is the performance of the car. Deep and abounding satisfaction surrounds the sale and the use of practically every car that leaves the works.

It will pay you to visit us and examine this car.

The gasoline consumption is unusually low. The tire mileage is unusually high.

Roadster or Touring Car, $835; Winter Touring Car or Roadster, $1000; Sedan or Coupe, $1265. (All prices f. o. b. Detroit.)

WALTHER-WILLIAMS HARDWARE CO.
THE DALLES, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Natt Shaw, Clarks Canyon farmer, transacted business in Heppner Saturday.

E. S. Duran, wife and daughter of Lexington were visitors in Heppner on Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Adams of Hardman was a Monday passenger from this city for Corvallis.

Mrs. Ann Minor returned home Monday from Rockaway Beach on the Pacific, where she spent the summer months.

Miss Marie Cason and Miss Bertha Miller of Lexington were Sunday visitors at the Walter Cason home in this city.

J. W. Morrow, of the O-W. R. & N. Co. head offices in Portland, was in Heppner the first of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek returned last Friday from Newport, where they were guests at the summer cottage of Mrs. Sweek's parents.

Dave Wilson, popular book keeper at the First National Bank, left Sunday for Seattle to spend his vacation. He has relatives at that place.

Leo Nicholson left Monday for North Yakima to visit with his father for a few days before returning to Heppner to enter school for the winter.

Walter Kilcup and wife are now touring California by automobile. During their absence, Gene Campbell is keeping things going on the ranch.

Chas. Vaughn and wife have returned from their mountain vacation. They spent a couple of weeks in the vicinity of Slogum's Mill on Willow creek.

Millard French returned to Midvale, Idaho, Tuesday, after having spent the summer here. He expects to remain in the Idaho country during the coming winter.

C. H. Furlong was down from Hardman Monday. He has finished loading and will begin threshing immediately. Carlson Bros. of Gooseberry will do the work.

Ed Adkins was down from the mountains Monday. He has one of the finest camps in the Slocum Mill section and expects to keep his family there for some weeks yet.

Tom Boyd and family left Monday for Portland to spend their vacation of several days. Mr. Boyd is the efficient round house man for the O-W. R. & N. Co. in this city.

Mrs. Jerry Brosnan was called to Pendleton recently on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Jas. Nelson. Mrs. Nelson's condition is greatly improved at this time.

Garnett Barratt has arrived home after spending the summer in the mountains with his father's sheep. He will resume his studies in high school with the opening of the term.

Miss Flora Noyes, daughter of Rev. H. A. Noyes of this city, left Monday for Umapine, Umatilla county, to take her position in the schools there. She has been spending the summer at the Noyes home here.

Miss Melba Griffiths, formerly of this city, who has been spending the summer with her mother in New Mexico, is now back in Oregon and will attend the Oregon State Normal School at Monmouth this year.

Hugh Bran, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, returned Friday from a vacation trip to Yellowstone Park. He made the trip as far as Boise in his car, but roads were so rough he left his car there.

E. R. Merritt is busily engaged in getting out a lot of wood at his place up the left fork of Willow creek. He figures on harvesting a crop of about 100 cords for which he will doubtless find a ready market at a good price.

A. L. Ayers has undertaken the job of cutting a winter's supply of cord wood in the vicinity of the old Hamilton mill site on Willow creek. He is now engaged in the work and making fair progress with the assistance of a competent helper.

Jimmie Wilson has returned to his position at Minor & Co., after spending a couple of weeks at Lehman Springs. He has been accused of spending some of the time at the Sam Nelson home on Butter creek. However, Jimmie denies that assertion.

Mrs. Jas. Morgan and Mrs. Gus Ayers of Little Butter creek were passengers Monday for Portland to make a visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cullek. They were accompanied by the young children of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cullek.

C. A. Minor, wife and daughter returned Monday forenoon from a short visit in Portland, making the trip by auto. Mr. and Mrs. Minor are having a new residence constructed in Laurelhurst addition to Portland and were down to see how the work is getting along.

M. L. Case returned Saturday from Portland, where he spent ten days attending classes in a school of embalming, which undertakers from over the state hold there each year. In this way all undertakers keep in close touch with all the late advancements made in the profession.
