The Roberts building is undergoing a thorough renovation prior to the reception of the Humphreys drug store. The interior walls have received a new tint, a new hardwood floor is being laid and Mr. Humphreys is installing a complete new set of shelves for his prescription counter. When all remodeling has taken place, Mr. Humphreys will have a modern and up-to-date store. He will move into the new quarters just as soon as they are made ready.

Hardman Boy is Victim of Too Much Giant Powder.

Clarence, the little ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Burnside of Hardman, was brought to Heppner Saturday after being injured in an explosion of giant powder. One eye and one hand were badly injured and he was taken to Portland Monday for medical treatment.

Young Man From Lexington Will Attend School Here.

Arthur Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Campbell of Social Ridge, has enrolled as a student in Heppner High school for the coming year. Mr. Campbell has been attending the Lexington High school the past three years and will finish here. He was prominent in all branches of school life while at Lexington and will fit into his new environment nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell contemplate moving to Heppner in the near future.

Will Spend Winter in Walla Walla.

John C. Brown and sons Ed and Henry and daughters Miss Molly and Miss Clara left Heppner today for Walla Walla where they will spend the winter. They have property up there. Ed Brown expects to begin construction work on his new residence in Heppner with the opening of spring. The contract has already been let, but owing to the scarcity of labor, Mr. Brown decided to wait a few months.

Wheat is Making 28 Bushels.

Frank Munkers was a business visitor in Heppner Monday and states that threshing is just commencing on his place one mile west of Lexington. Although but one setting has been threshed, it was making a yield of 28 bushels per acre and Mr. Munkers will have a big lot of wheat to sell.

Ora Adkins Moves to Eight Mile.

Ora Adkins, who farmed the C. A. Rhea ranch on Rhea creek until it was recently sold to W. H. Padberg, has rented the upper ranch of C. A. Stanton in the Eight Mile section and has already moved to his new location with his family. The Stanton ranch, which is considered one of the best in that section, has been farmed the past year by Tom Arnold. Mr. Arnold will continue to farm the lower place.

Garrigues Building Receives Paint. The Garrigues building on the corner of Main and Willow streets is receiving two coats of paint this week. M. J. Bradford and his men are doing the work.

Curt Rhea Sells Holdings.

Curtis C. Rhea has sold out all his land holdings in the Rhea creek section to W. H. Padberg and will probably rent a ranch on Eight Mile. Mr. Rhea retains all his stock and equipment and is prepared to continue farming in good shape.

Eugene People Visit Here.

H. B. Rankin and wife and two daughters, Mabel and Hazel, accompanied by Marvin Roy and brother passed through Heppner Monday on their way to Pilot Rock from Eugene. Mr. Rankin has been supervisor of the Siuslaw Forest Reserve with headquarters in Eugene since leaving Heppner in 1913. He was formerly supervisor of the Umatilla Reserve and the Rankins made their home in Heppner for two or three years. A son, Earl Rankin lives at Pilot Rock. The two Roy brothers are just returning from an auto trip through California. They are engaged in business at Pilot Rock.

Will Hold Public Sale.

J. A. Williams was up from Ione one day last week and arranged with this office to get him out a bunch of sale bills. He will offer a number of good work animals for sale, as well as other stock at his place nine miles southwest of Ione on Monday next. Mr. Williams has rented his farm for a period of years to Chas. Nannemann and will go to Portland a little later on, where he expects to reside with his family during the winter. Mr. Williams has been following the game of farmer in the west end of Morrow county for many years and has reached the point in life where he thinks he is entitled to take a rest. Mr. Nannemann is a good farmer, understands the game well and will make a success in running the Williams place which is one of the very best farms in the entire county.
