HEPPNER GARAGE

HEPPNER COUPLE ARE WED AT WALLA WALLA

Surprising their many friends here, Robert Buschke and Miss Lorena Sperry were married last Thursday at Walla Walla. A few friends and near relatives were present at the ceremony. They managed to keep the affair pretty well to themselves until Monday night, when the truth came out and the young people were given a chivari. They are now busy receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends.

Mr. Buschke is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Buschke of Rhea creek and has been employed in the Oregon Garage in this city for some time. Mrs. Buschke formerly lived at Hardman but has been making her home in Heppner more recently. The young people will make their home in this city.

Married in Pendleton.

Mr. Chris Brown and Miss Alta Spurlock of Heppner were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Horn at 409 Lincoln street, Pendleton on Saturday, Sept. 22, at high noon.

After the ceremony a very delightful dinner was served by Mrs. Horn. Those present were J. C. Brown and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wightman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Horn and Leo Hicks. Mr. Brown is a prosperous young farmer of Morrow county and the newlyweds will make their home here. Their many friends join in extending congratulations.

ACOCK—STAMP.

Chas. W. Acock and Luella M. Stamp were married in this city Tuesday morning at the parsonage of the Federated church, Rev. H. A. Noyes performing the ceremony in the presence of Geo. Cook and Mrs. H. A. Noyes. Mr. Acock is a young farmer residing northeast of this city and Moves Goods to Condon.

M. H. Kopple, who has been conducting the Fair store in this city the past several months, moved his stock of goods to Condon this week. Mr. Kopple operates the Grand Leader store at that place and will devote his entire time to that store for the next few months. He expresses much regret upon having to leave Heppner at this time, but the change was made necessary through the drafting of his brother Lewis into the new National army. Mr. Kopple says he expects to return to Heppner at some later date to again become a business man of our city. He wishes at this time to thank his patrons for the business and good will given him during his residence here.

Up From Hood River.

Wm. Stauffer, who for many years was a farmer in the Social Ridge country and who still owns a ranch there, was up from his Hood River apple farm this week looking after interests here. Mr. Stauffer, in company with Mrs. Stauffer, spends each winter in California and they expect to leave for the southland in a short time.

Buys New Cole Eight.

Mrs. John Kilkeany of Hinton creek has purchased a new Cole Eight touring car from Harold Cohn, the local agent. This makes the second one of these cars sold by Mr. Cohn within a week.

Returns to University.

Creton Maddock left Heppner last Monday for Eugene, where he will enter the University of Oregon for the coming year. Mr. Maddock is in his Junior year at the state institution.

Peerless Engineers Favor Asphalt-Base Oil.

Further recognition for motor oil made from California asphalt-base petroleum was brought to light recently when a prominent Peerless dealer showed a group of newspaper men a letter from the Peerless factory.

This letter stated that after test several kinds of oil, the technical department was able to secure uniformly better results with a certain widely known advertised motor oil made here on the Pacific Coast from California asphalt-base petroleum, than from any of the oils which they tested.

S. P. Devin Sells Ranch for $15,000.

S. P. Devin has sold his Willow creek ranch which is situated just above the mouth of Skinner creek, to Ralph I. Thompson of Portland. The price paid by Mr. Thompson was $15,000. Included in the deal is 200 head of sheep which go with the place. The Devin ranch is considered one of the best small ranches on the creek, being ideal for diversified farming and stock.

Heppner Boy Joins The Colors.

Marshal Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Phelps of this city left Heppner Tuesday for San Francisco, where he goes to enlist in the Navy. If not successful in getting into the Navy young Phelps will enter any branch of the service which offers an opening.

Industrial Club Students Guests At State Fair.

As a reward of merit, four industrial club students of Morrow county are guests of the State Fair Board in Salem this week. The young folks

SUMPTER MAYOR SENDS THANKS TO HEPPNER.

Mayor S. E. Notson of Heppner is in receipt of the following letter from Mayor J. W. LaBau of Sumpter thanking the people here for their generosity:

Sumpter, Oregon, September 21, 1917.

Mayor S. E. Notson, Heppner, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of recent date permit me to thank you most sincerely for the kind interest you have taken in the matter of raising funds for relief of Sumpter. The generosity of the people of Heppner in raising the large sum of $300 shows that they fully understand the distressing situation in which the people of the place were left by the recent disastrous fire.

Assuring you that the Relief Committee will do all in their power to see that the money is used in a way to do the greatest possible good I remain,

Very truly yours,
J. W. LABAU,
Mayor City of Sumpter.

W. T. Campbell of Social Ridge Buys Amos Missildine Property.

W. T. Campbell, well known Social Ridge farmer, has purchased the residence property of Amos Missildine on Court street. The consideration was $3000. The deal was made by Willard Herren, of the Smead-Crawford real estate agency. Mr. Missildine and wife will move to Newport on the coast to make their home.

Heppner People Meet With Robbers Bold While Attending Round-Up

Robbers operated on a bold plan in Pendleton last week while thousands of visitors were there for the big Round-Up. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kenny of this city were victims of their operations and contributed heavily to thieves. While sleeping in their room in a hotel there, a robber or robbers entered the room and walked off with some eighty dollars, taken from the trousers pocket of Mr. Kenny and helped themselves to Mrs. Kenny's handbag, which had been left on the bureau. No trace was ever found of the pilferers, as the theft was not discovered until the next morning.

Lost A Sixty Dollar Lamb

Lambs are lambs these days and the loss of one may well be felt by any sheepman and especially if that lamb happens to be the off spring of some fine, high class imported stuff from New Zealand. C. A. Minor suffered the loss of one of his blooded lambs last week. He only had four of them and had previously been offered sixty dollars apiece for them.

left Heppner Tuesday. They are Vera Cowins, Birdeen Brown and Carroll Shurte of Heppner and Hulda Tucker of Lexington. The work done by these pupils was on exhibition at the recent county fair and the same exhibit will be placed on display at Salem.
