ARTICLES TAXABLE UNDER WAR REVENUE LAW

The treasury department, through the internal revenue service at Portland, Ore., has made public the following list of articles taxable on and after October 4.

The war revenue bill of October 3, 1917, effective on and after October 4, 1917, imposes taxes as follows:

Three per cent on all articles hereinafter set forth, sold by manufacturers, producers or importers on and after October 4, 1917.

The tax also applies to all the articles hereinafter set forth held and intended for sale by jobbers and wholesalers who are not manufacturers, producers or importers.

Every jobber and wholesaler is required to make inventories of all such articles as of October 4th, and to file returns within thirty days after such date, which inventory will in due course be verified by a revenue officer:

B. Chewing gum or substitute therefore, perfumes, essences, extracts, toilet waters, cosmetics, petroleum jellies, hair oils, pomades, hair dressings, hair restorers, hair dyes, tooth and mouth washes, dentifrices, tooth pastes, aromatic cachous, toilet soaps or powders, or any similar substance, article or preparation, by whatever name known or distinguished, to be used or applied for toilet purposes.

C. Pills, tablets, powders, tinctures, troches or lozenges, syrups, medicinal cordials or bitters, anodynes, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, pastes, drops, waters (except those taxed under Section 314 of the war revenue act—which refers to fruit juices, carbonated waters, etc.) Essences, spirits, oils and all medicinal preparations compounds or compositions whatsoever, the manufacturer or producer of which claims to have any private formula, secret or occult art for making or preparing same, or has claims to have any exclusive right or title to making or preparing same, or which are prepared, uttered, vended or exposed for sale under any letters patent or trade mark, etc.

Three per cent on all automobiles, automobile trucks, automobile wagons and motor cycles.

On all piano players, graphophones, phonographs, talking machines and records for the same.

On all cameras, tennis rackets, golf clubs, baseball bats, lacrosse sticks, balls of all kinds including baseballs, footballs, tennis balls, golf balls, lacrosse balls, billiard and pool balls, fishing rods and reels, billiard and pool tables, chess and checker boards and pieces, dice, games and parts of games, except playing cards and children's tops and games.

A record should be kept showing the exact quantity of each article sold and such record will in due course be verified by a revenue officer.

Prepared syrups or extracts, sold by manufacturers, producers or importers:

For not more than $1.30 per gallon, tax, 5c per gallon.

More than $1.30 and not more than $2.00, tax, 8c per gallon.

More than $2 and not more than $3, tax, 10c per gallon.

More than $3 and not more than $4, tax, 15c per gallon.

More than $4, tax, 20c per gallon.

Unfermented grape juice, soft drinks, etc., sold by manufacturers, producers or importers, and ginger ale, etc., and other carbonated water or beverages manufactured or sold by the manufacturer, producer or importer of carbonic acid gas used in carbonating the same, 1c per gallon.

Natural mineral waters or table waters sold by producer or bottler or importer at over 10 cents per gallon, 1c per gallon.

Carbonic acid gas, sold by the manufacturer, producer or importer thereof, 5c per pound.

Moving picture films which have not been exposed, 1-4c per linear foot.

Positive moving picture films ready for projection, 1-2c per linear foot.

CRESTON LEATHERS

Chester Leathers, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Leathers, of Hardman, died at John Day, Oregon, Oct. 11. Funeral services were conducted at the I. O. O. F. hall in Hardman on Saturday last and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery west of Hardman, Turner B. MacDonald, pastor of the Church of Christ at Heppner, officiating.

Creston was an unusually manly little fellow and the idol of his parents as well as of his many acquaintances. The funeral was largely attended and the love of the community toward him was plainly manifested in the many floral offerings and expressions of genuine sorrow. He was born at Lone Rock, Oregon, on May 24, 1912, and was aged 5 years, 4 months and 17 days at the time of his death. The afflicted parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

W. B. Jenks of Monument was a visitor in Heppner the first of the week.

L. E. Friedley, who farms extensively in the Lexington country was a visitor in Heppner Saturday and took in the lecture on smut by J. C. Hawkins.

J. D. Bauman, present owner of the Borg ranch near Lexington, was in Heppner Saturday and took in the preaching of Mr. Hawkins on smut.

Uncle George Dykstra was in town Saturday from his farm in the foothills.

Wm. Floren was down from his Willow creek ranch on Saturday.

Miss Cora Mae Crawford visited for a few days with some of her girl friends in Ione, taking advantage of the school vacation.

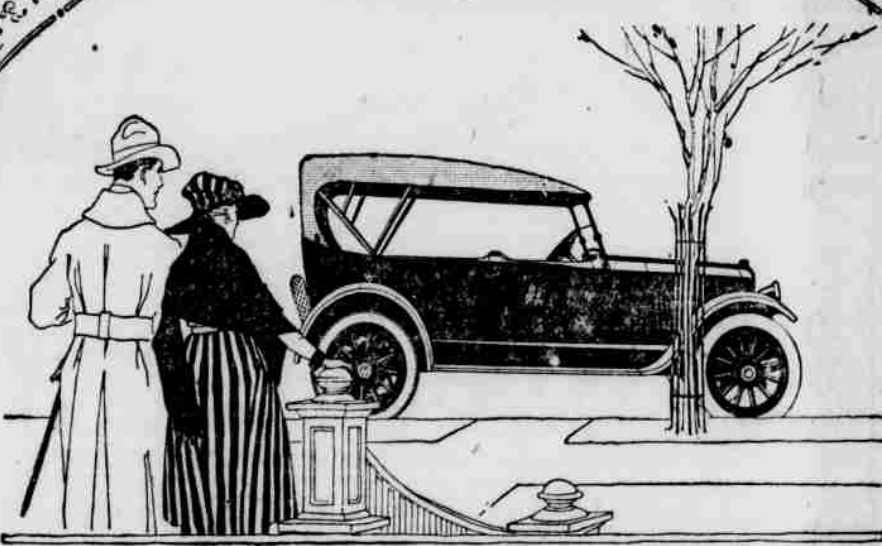

Dock Brown was over from Condon on Monday to attend the funeral of his old friend and neighbor, George Perry.

Marion Evans, ex-sheriff of Morrow county was up from his Willow creek farm Saturday for a short time.

E. G. Haverstick who farms the Adkins place on Rhea creek, was a Heppner business visitor Saturday.
