DR. J. G. TURNER

EYE SPECIALIST
Portland, Oregon.
Regular monthly visits to Heppner and Ione. Watch paper for dates.

M. J. Bradford has finished repainting all the "spot signs" at the railroad crossings between Heppner and Irrigon. The job was done for Morrow county and the signs have been made much plainer than they were heretofore.

NOTICE—Having bought the Wattenburger wood saw, I am now prepared to do your wood cutting on short notice.

T. A. DRISKELL, Phone 664.

FOR SALE—Two Shorthorn bull calves, 6 months old.
A. W. GAMMELL, Lexington, Ore.

Town and Country.

A. C. Allison, Butter creek farmer, was in Heppner Monday.

J. B. Sparks and wife were visitors in Condon one day the past week.

Oscar Edwards returned Saturday from a stay of some time at the coast.

R. F. and W. E. Wigglesworth, Butter creek sheepmen, were doing business in Heppner Saturday.

FOR RENT—Two well furnished sleeping rooms, close in; gentlemen preferred. Inquire at this office.

W. H. Cronk, manager of Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. at Ione, was a business caller in Heppner on Saturday.

E. D. Rood came up from Portland on Tuesday and will spend a few days in Morrow county looking after business affairs.

SEED RYE FOR SALE—Inquire of O. F. Ferguson at Hanshaw ranch, Blackhorse or phone F. A. McMenamin, Heppner.

A marriage license was issued on Wednesday by Clerk Waters to Geo. W. Duncan and Miss Ruana Schriver, both young people of Ione.

FOR SALE—1000 sacks good seed wheat, blue stem, part of 1916 crop, at my ranch.

B. F. SWAGGART.

Walter Luckman, Butter creek stockman, and W. G. Hynd, sheep raiser of Sand Hollow, were over Sunday visitors in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Newlon are in from the artesian well belt today. They made a sale of a quarter section of land to Wm. Heubner, one of their neighbors.

Mrs. M. Belle Thompson returned to her Portland home on Wednesday. She was accompanied by Miss Georgia Shipley who will make her home with Mrs. Thompson.

Willard Herren and W. W. Smead spent a few days this week in the mountains on a deer hunt. Some one evidently turned all the bucks loose; they returned empty handed.

LOST—A rather shaggy, bluish colored dog, has bobbed tail and weighs about 50 pounds. Answers to name Prince. Finder return to this office and receive reward.

Ralph Bengt arrived from Walla Walla with his family this week and will again take up his residence here. He recently purchased the Oscar Minor place just below town.

Henry Blahm, Willow creek farmer, was in Heppner Saturday and made himself "square" with this shop for another year. Mr. Blahm raised a good crop of wheat this year.

Leonard Anderson was in from Gooseberry Saturday getting acquainted with the recent new arrival in his family. He reports Mrs. Anderson and the babe doing nicely.

I will be in Heppner during the coming week for the purpose of settling up all my accounts. If I owe you anything, kindly look me up.

F. M. PARKER.

F. M. Parker is down from Walla Walla this week to close up business affairs here. Mr. Parker has secured a nice home at Walla Walla and is well pleased with his new location.

Ed Stevens, special agent of the Home Ins. Co. of New York, and owner of the Hanshaw ranch on Blackhorse, was up from Portland this week looking after his interests here.

Frank Glascock was down from Hardman Saturday. He is living on the Hiram Tash place near Hardman and was making arrangements with Mr. Tash Saturday to extend his lease.

Jack Hynd is up from Cecil today. He reports a considerable exchange of real estate down his way the past day or so, owing to the prevailing high winds. A big rain would be appreciated.

Judge C. C. Patterson returned Tuesday evening from a stay of several weeks at Hot Lake, Oregon. He feels somewhat improved in health but was pretty much tired by the trip home.

J. A. Deardorff was in Heppner today from his ranch near Echo. This is the first visit Jack has made to this city in more than four years, or since disposing of his Morrow county place and locating in Umatilla county.

David H. Grabill, retired farmer of Ione, is in Heppner today on business connected with the guardianship of the Jas. Grabill heirs. He has invested in Liberty Bonds for the two boys to the amount of $3000.

Mrs. George Stevenson and Mrs. Chas. Corder attended the convention of the Degree of Honor in Pendleton the past week. Mrs. Corder visited with friends and relatives in Echo on her return home.

W. P. McMillan, wheat buyer of Lexington, visited Heppner Saturday. He states that but little wheat is being sold outright at that point, the most of it being consigned to Portland and drawing the advance of $1.50 per bushel.

Benton Bowman, an attorney of Hillsboro, Oregon, was in Heppner on Wednesday on legal business. Mr. Bowman has been a member of the legislature from Washington county during the past two sessions, serving in the lower house.

Dr. Purkey and wife made a trip to Pendleton Sunday and on Tuesday afternoon visited Hermiston. They met with trouble on the way home from Hermiston and suffered a breakdown with their car, reaching Heppner at a late hour last evening.

WATCH FOR THIS.

A public sale of farm implements, stock, etc., will be held within the next two weeks at the Hanshaw ranch on Blackhorse, the definite date of which will be announced in next issue of this paper, as well as by posters, and the public is asked to watch for the date. The sale will include 14 head of work horses, 9 head of young stock ranging from one-year-olds to three-year-olds, 2 cows, 5 pigs, some 40 tons of rye and wheat hay, straw, Holt combine and a complete equipment of farming implements. This is a sale that should interest you. Keep it in mind.

Card Socials for Winter Months.

The ladies of St. Patrick's Parish intend holding in the Odd Fellows hall a series of card socials, commencing on Saturday, November 3. To the one making the highest total score in all the socials a valuable present will be given. "500" will be played, and refreshments will be served. The admission price will be 25 cents.

An Apron and Cooked Food Sale.

The Ladies Guild of the Episcopal church will give an apron and cooked food sale on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 31. The articles will be on display in the window of Roy E. White's office, and there you will find many nice and useful articles.

Putting Up Coal Bunkers.

The O-W. R. & N. Co. has a crew of men at work at the depot grounds this week, putting in coal bunkers. The sharp advance in the price of fuel oil has compelled the Company to resort to burning coal again and all oil burners will be replaced with coal grates. The change will take place just as soon as the exchange can be made.

Public Sale of Mules is Called Off.

The public sale of mules and mares which was advertised in these columns to take place on Saturday, Nov. 3, at my place in Clark's Canyon, has been called off. I have made a private sale of the mules, and do not care at this time to dispose of the work mares advertised.

W. H. PADBERG.

FOR SALE—House and lot. See Fred Elder.

Good Potatoes For Sale—Whites, $2.75 per cwt. Reds, $2.50 per cwt. Ranch or Heppner delivery.

BURTON H. PECK.

FORD FOR SALE—This office offers for sale a 1916 Ford runabout. The machine has just recently been overhauled and put in good condition by a first class mechanic; has run less than 3000 miles and was bought new in August, 1916. Price, $325.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gammell have gone to Tumalo, Deschutes county, where they expect to remain for at least a couple of months, and perhaps all winter, visiting at the home of their son, Walter. Walter Gammell has taken up a tract of land under the irrigation project there and has a good proposition, according to the statement of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, of Lexington, were visitors in Heppner Saturday evening and made this office a pleasant call. These young people are farming the Snider place this side of Lexington, and recently lost their residence and all contents by fire. They have a new home under course of construction which they hope to be able to occupy before bad weather sets in.

NOW'S THE TIME

TO BUY YOUR

MACKINAWS, STAG SHIRTS
OVERCOATS

WE take a great deal of pride in being able to offer so desirable a selection of Mackinaws, Stag Shirts and Overcoats this season. The scarcity of woollen materials, due largely to the fact that the government has taken practically the entire output of many mills, has made it very difficult to secure necessary material, but our unusually large early purchases have put us in the fortunate position of preparedness to supply our customers' wants.

The new Trench model or Army coat is sure to please in the overcoat line. We also have the conservative models for those who prefer them.

Our prices on Stag Shirts and Mackinaws are sure to please. Call in and have a look at the line and be your own judge.

How Would You Like to Receive a
Checque for $1000?

You can tell a good advertisement from a bad one. Perhaps you couldn't write a good advertisement, because you might be at loss for words, but if some one else had written the words for you and you merely had to select the best words and paste them together, you could probably make a pretty good advertisement.

$2000 in CASH PRIZES

are offered for the best advertisement of

The NEW EDISON

"THE PHONOGRAPH WITH A SOUL"

composed exclusively of quotations clipped from newspaper articles which the music critics have written about this wonderful new instrument. It costs you nothing to compete. Professional ad writers and all persons connected in any way with the manufacture or sale of phonographs are barred from the competition.

THE PRIZES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

$1000 first
500 second
250 third
100 fourth
50 fifth
and $10 each for ten that earn honorable mention.

Come to our store and get full particulars. We shall be glad to give you complete instructions and furnish you a sample advertisement already pasted up in proper form. We also provide a reprint of what the music critics have said about the New Edison.

Don't wait. The contest closes October 27th and your advertisement must be completed before that date.
