Mr. and Mrs. Thos. O'Brien were visitors in this city from their home on lower Butter creek on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winnard departed for Portland on Sunday and will remain in the metropolis for the week, attending the Live Stock Show.

Phill Hirtl was in from his Lena ranch Tuesday. He now drives a new car and says that he will be able to get to Heppner oftener in the future.

Ed Winters and family have moved to Bend, Oregon, where they expect to make their home in the future. The parents of Mr. Winters now live at Bend.

Jas. Murtha, leading sheepman of Rock Creek, was in Heppner Sunday and Monday. He assisted the Hibernians in making their festivities a success while here.

J. E. Whiton, who has been foreman at the Herald office for the past couple of months, departed for his home at Newberg this morning, having given up his position in the Herald office.

Dan Hanshaw came up from Hillsboro Friday to be present at the public sale of personal property at his old home in Blackhorse. He remained over for a few days to look after business matters.

Max Crandall, who has been in Heppner for the past three weeks auditing the books in the Sheriff's office, completed his work yesterday and departed for Portland this morning with his assistants.

Gilbert Coats, who has been very sick at the Heppner Sanatorium for the past two weeks, suffering from stomach trouble, was removed yesterday to the home of his son Claud. He is still a very sick man.

John R. Murphy, of Portland, an assistant in the office of Judge Taxwell of the Juvenile Court of that city, was in Heppner over Sunday as the chief speaker at the banquet of the A. O. H. He returned home on Monday.

R. A. Thompson and family are enjoying a visit with Mr. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Mary Thompson of Sprague, Washington, this week. After a stay of two weeks here, Mrs. Thompson will go on to California to spend the winter.

B. F. Morgan and Geo. N. Ely, residents of the Morgan section, were in Heppner on Monday attending to business affairs. Mr. Morgan and family recently returned from a visit of several weeks at the home of Mrs. Morgan's parents at Dixie, Wash.

Paul Webb is shipping in a large quantity of alfalfa hay from the Walla Walla section which is being conveyed to his ranch south of Heppner. Mr. Webb will be prepared for any kind of feeding conditions that may come with winter weather.

James S. Higg, of Portland, who is income tax inspector for the treasury department for this district, is at the Palace hotel in Heppner to remain until Sunday. Those interested in the workings of the new income tax law and desiring information in the same would do well to consult Mr. Higg while he is here.

R. A. Thompson was down from Athena over Saturday and Sunday. He attended the sale at the Hanshaw place on Saturday, being interested somewhat in the disposition of the big combine that was up for sale. Before returning home he made a short visit at the Sand Hollow home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Edwards.

Two former residents of Stanfield, Miss Genevieve Sevy and Miss Alice Howard, took part in a recital given by the students of Columbia College of Milton on Tuesday evening of this week. Miss Sevy played two numbers on the piano, "The Little Boy," and "Lonely Honeymoon," and Miss Howard recited a selection entitled "Successful Strategy."—Stanfield Standard.

Miss Lenna Brown, a former resident of Heppner, where she made many friends, was recently married at North Yakima, Wash., to Mr. Wm. Louder. Mrs. Louder has been living at Yakima for a number of years past and the newly married couple will continue to make their home in that city, where Mr. Louder is engaged in the creamery business. The bride is a sister of Mrs. R. A. Thompson of this city.

A. E. Patterson and wife left for Portland the last of the week. Mr. Patterson will go on to Southern California, where he is interested in some racing stock, and Mrs. Patterson will remain in the Willamette Valley to visit with her mother, Mrs. Jas. Matlock. They expect to return to Heppner again by Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wing, of Vancouver, B. C., arrived in Heppner Sunday for a visit of a couple of weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Sigsbee. Mr. Wing was formerly engaged in the furniture business in Heppner and he is glad to get back here occasionally to renew old friendships and enjoy some real Eastern Oregon sunshine.

Mrs. L. G. Herren went out to Hardman today to assist the Red Cross ladies there in getting started in their work, this being their first work day. J. C. Owen, of the Hardman-Heppner stage line donated free transportation to the Red Cross for a lady from Heppner to Hardman and return, and also free transportation for materials sent out. For this he has the thanks of the ladies.

D. J. Selleck and family departed for Portland the last of the week. Mr. Selleck has been head miller for Heppner Milling Company during the past three months and a change in the management of affairs left Mr. Selleck out. We understand that Chas. Corde, who served in capacity of second miller last winter, will now take charge of the mill for the Farmers Elevator Company, the new owners.

A very sad death occurred at Hermiston last Friday when Mrs. J. A. Reeves, whose husband carries the mail on the rural route, committed suicide by burning herself to death. During a temporary fit of insanity she saturated her clothes with kerosene and then set them afire. All the clothes were burned from her body and she died in a few hours in great agony from the effect of the burns. It is a very sad death, as she leaves a husband and three small children.—Stanfield Standard.

RED CROSS AT HARDMAN.

A delegation of members of the Red Cross from Heppner went to Hardman Sunday and assisted in the organization of an auxiliary at that place. The parties going out from here were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Van Vactor, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shutt, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pattison, Mrs. Tom Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Phill Cohn, Harold Cohn, Mrs. A. E. Bluns, Miss Augusta Baker, making three auto loads. The new auxiliary at Hardman starts off with a membership of 14 and has the following officers: Mrs. W. P. Prophet, chairman; Miss Minnie Wright, secretary and Mrs. G. A. Bleakman, treasurer. They are enthusiastic over the work and expect to be very busy from this on. The senior class of the Hardman High School, consisting of six girls, are preparing to give an entertainment in the near future the proceeds of which will be handed to the Red Cross, and it is expected that other activities will continue to add funds with which the members will be able to carry on their work. A hustle is to be made from now on for new members and the Hardman auxiliary will become a prominent factor in the Red Cross work of Morrow county.

Road Elections Carry in Favor of Tax

The elections held in the various road districts of Morrow county on Tuesday last resulted in the 5 mill tax for construction of road bed on the survey of the Columbia Highway, carrying. Being confined to property owners, the vote was not large. District No. 1 had 15 yes, 0 no; No. 2, 10 yes, 0 no; No. 3, 32 yes, 6 no; No. 5, 7 yes, 5 no; No. 6, 14 yes, 7 no; No. 10, 20 yes, 0 no; No. 11, 15 yes, 7 no; No. 12, 61 yes, 25 no. This result now insures a good road down Willow creek to Heppner Junction and east from Heppner to the Umatilla county line.

Young Man Dies Suddenly.

Ray C. Brown, son of Mrs. Charlotte Brown of Heppner, died at the home of his brother, Roy E. Brown, 11 miles south of Heppner on Saturday, November 17, 1917. For a number of years Ray had been afflicted with epileptic fits and had always been in the constant care of his mother, who would seldom leave him out of her sight or care. Mrs. Brown happened at this time to be in Heppner and Ray was allowed to go out by himself for a short time, during which he was attacked by a fit and fell, seemingly having smothered to death in the dust of the garden. He had been dead but a short time when discovered.

Deceased was 21 years and 3 months of age. He was born in Morrow county on August 17, 1896. For the past nine years he had been a faithful member of the Christian church and his funeral was conducted from that church in Heppner on Monday forenoon, Turner B. MacDonald, the pastor, conducting the services, and the remains were placed to rest in the cemetery on Rhea creek near the Jas. Hayes place, where other members of his family lie buried.

He leaves an aged mother, six sisters: Mrs. Ed Driscoll and Mrs. Walter Davis of St. Maries, Idaho, Mrs. L. L. Hlatt, and Dora, Arwilda and Freda, and five brothers: Edward, Artie, Roy, Ross and John, all of Heppner.

Portland shipbuilding district has 48 ways with 33 wooden ships under construction. More new orders will be placed. Industry has suffered from inaction by shipping board and closed shop strikers. Portland still has need of several thousand mechanics in wood and metal work at the shipyards.
