OFFICIAL PAPER FOR MORROW COUNTY.

EASTERN OREGON MAN FOR SENATOR.

Robert N. Stanfield, of Stanfield, Umatilla county, has thrown his hat in the ring for United States Senator. Rumor has of late been connecting the name of Mr. Stanfield with the office of Governor, and we had been looking for the announcement almost any day that he had entered the race for nomination to this office. He had also been mentioned by his friends as possible timber for the senatorial race, and now we are able to announce, officially, that he has entered the race for the republican nomination to the United States Senate.

We shall not have any hesitancy in supporting Mr. Stanfield for this position. He is eminently fitted for the place, and being an Eastern Oregon product, he is entitled to unanimous support from his party at the primaries, and also the general election.

In the Red Cross drive for funds for war work, Morrow county subscribed $15,629.73. Of this amount $4589.25 was pledges, payable in monthly installments, usually. In many cases, however, terms of payment were made to suit the convenience of the subscriber and a great many made their pledges payable Dec. 1, 1917 and Jan. 1, 1918.

To the credit of Morrow county it may be said that a small proportion, only, of these pledges remain unpaid and it is confidently expected that after December 1st the greater portion of these will have been paid.

The amount of unpaid pledges at this time, as furnished this paper by Chairman M. D. Clark, is as follows:

Heppner and vicinity, including Hardman, Eight Mile and Lena	$ 600.50
Lexington and vicinity	287.50
Ione and vicinity	668.00
	$1,556.00

The Red Cross War Fund headquarters for Oregon sent an urgent call recently for these unpaid pledges and we desire to stress that call, for the need is immediate. For your convenience, payments can be made at the First National Bank, Heppner; Lexington State Bank, Lexington; and Bank of Ione, Ione. The committee trusts that they are not over optimistic in predicting that after Dec. 1st the number and total aggregate of unpaid pledges will be less than in any other county in Oregon.

grateful for what he had been able to accomplish since becoming a citizen under the Stars and Stripes.

John Kilkenny, "king of the Irish," as announced by the toastmaster, demonstrated that he was equal to the occasion and made a pointed address that showed without equivocation where he stood and just what he thought of any Irishman or other foreigner who might come to this country and enjoy the liberties vouchsafed here, and was not willing to fight for the privilege. Mr. Kilkenny is entitled to be given the place he occupies among the Morrow county Irishmen. He is somewhat of an orator, too.

Father O'Rourke, always entertaining in his addresses, was even more so on this occasion, and his address rung with patriotism from beginning to end. He especially lauded the Irish people for the way they had responded to the call to defend their adopted countries, and he can see growing out of this present great conflict the triumph of democracy for the world and independence for the Irish people as well, an end devoutly hoped for by all right thinking people.

The entire entertainment was a success, and the occasion is one long to be remembered.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

general get-acquainted meeting took place, at which several of the young beauties of Heppner High managed to capture several of the charming visitors. The gathering broke up after everybody had satisfied themselves with entertainment and a pledge of friendship between the two schools was established.

The Ciceronian Literary Society will present a literary entertainment on Wednesday evening, Nov. 28th. This entertainment will consist of a Thanksgiving program with scenes by the Pilgrims and Indians, tableaux, and other interesting and entertaining numbers. The society is going to also make this a general social evening for the citizens of Heppner, and will have committees to show the people who have never seen the different departments of the school through the building and explain the efficiency of the different departments.

The report cards for the month of October were given out Wednesday afternoon, and the hum and buzz around the assembly room just after they were received was a good indication of the interest that is being manifested by the students in their studies, or especially their grades.

Norton Winnard, manager of the Y. M. C. A. drive in the high school announces that the quota of the high school and surrounding districts has been a little better than filled. It was managed so that the quota would be raised, because it was not deemed wise to raise so very much more as there will probably be many calls for donations to these great works of humanity in the future.

The high school appreciates very much the support which was given the football game last Saturday, and believe that everyone who attended the game, felt well repaid for the small amount paid for admission. The students expect to have more games at Heppner in the future and believe that the people of Heppner will not be backward in giving the same whole hearted support to these that they did before.

The high school is planning to give a play in the early part of December. We are sorry to report the sickness of Miss Flora Barlow, who is in the hospital. She is getting along nicely at this time.
