The Donation Table was very well patronized. This will be a permanent feature of the Lexington Branch. All donations will be cared for and sold at the Red Cross counter at Barnett's store.
A total of fifty dollars was realized from the entertainment.
The Lexington Orchestra gave a dance November 17th and turned the proceeds into the Red Cross. This money with some raised by private donations and from the sale of the Red Cross buttons was enough to cover the Lexington assessment for the Christmas packages.

The ladies of the Lexington Branch meet each Saturday at the schoolhouse at 1:30 p. m. The meetings are well attended and much work is being done for boys "over there."

When Postmaster Richardson arrived at the postoffice Monday morning, he found Charles Notson waiting to loan Uncle Sam some of his money by buying thrift stamps. Charles wanted to be number one on the list of Heppner boys who invested in thrift stamps.

Do Your Own Bookkeeping.

I have decided to do away with bookkeeping in my shop. Beginning with the first of this month I have adopted a coupon system which will enable my customers to do their own bookkeeping and we desire to have you call and look up our new system. Buy your coupon book and then make your purchases from that. It will greatly aid us in carrying on our business, and help you to keep the butcher straight. You can pay for the book when you take it, or at the end of the month, just as you desire. We extend our thanks to the many patrons of the shop for the business given us in the past, and trust that you will accept this new order of things to our mutual benefit and profit.

HENRY SCHWARZ,
Peoples Cash Market, Heppner.

F. N. Noble, owner of the Mt. Vernon Springs was in Canyon Monday. Many attended the dance at the springs Saturday night, and Mr. Noble said, "That he had 90 for midnight supper." Mr. Noble recently purchased the springs from Mr. Waters. He is a Heppner boy and was engaged in business at Heppner for a number of years. He is contemplating some extensive improvements and intends to have the resort in fine shape by the time that the John Day Highway is open for traffic. His hot springs will be one of the points of attraction along this famous highway.

At the shooting tournament at Enterprise the past week, Albert Bowker of this city made a good record. He carried off one prize, a $50 Liberty Bond, and came within a few points of getting the second one. Mr. Bowker is a good hand with the shot gun and can crack the blue rocks very regularly in a shooting match.

Back From Montana.

James McEntire was in the city from Lone Rock on Saturday. He has recently returned from Iron Mountain, Montana, where he was during the past summer with his sheep. Mr. McEntire is now located on the Andrew Neel ranch at Lone Rock and will run his sheep there for the winter, at least. He says the part of Montana where he was is a fine sheep country, but is too far from the railroad to make the business profitable, as it costs too much to get in and out. This part of Oregon is pretty hard to beat after all as a place to run stock, and Mr. McEntire will be satisfied to remain in the business here.

Church of Christ.

Subject of morning sermon, "Causes of Spiritual Weakness." Evening, "The Gate and The Way."
TURNER MacDONALD, Minister.

Will Make Official Visit.

Grand Chancellor Leslie Crouch and Grand Keeper of Records and Seal Walter E. Gleason will pay an official visit to Doric Lodge No. 20, Knights of Pythias, on next Tuesday evening, December 11. Every member of the order in Morrow county is urgently requested to be present and meet the grand officers and hear what they have to say. Following the meeting refreshments will be served.

Dr. H. T. Allison reports the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Farley in this city on Tuesday, December 4. Both mother and babe are doing well.

L. W. Briggs has been named as executor of the last will of Mrs. Eliza Ayres, which was filed for probate this week.

H. A. Emery was down from Hardman several days this week, attending to business matters in Heppner.

D. O. Justus departed for The Dalles this morning, where he will attend the sessions of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association. From what we have been able to learn, there is not a very large representation of the Morrow county sheepmen at this meeting.

Mrs. Frank Fox, of Vancouver, Wash., was present to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Ayers on Saturday. Mrs. Fox was formerly Miss Edna Van Duyn. She returned home on Sunday.

Were Not Correctly Informed.
Basing our information on what we supposed was reliable data, we mentioned in last week's issue that Jack DeVore had been taken to the hospital where his leg was broken and re-set. We were just a little off on this, so Dr. Winnard says. Mr. DeVore was not taken to the hospital, neither was his leg broken and reset. The doctor finds it necessary, however, to prevent a stiff knee joint, to put Jack through some pretty severe massage treatments. We are glad to report that Mr. DeVore is getting along well, and also glad that it was not necessary for him to be placed on the "rack" and have his leg broken over again. One ordeal of that sort should be enough.
