MRS. YANCEY CALLED TO HER REWARD

In the death of Mrs. W. H. Yancey at Portland yesterday morning, following an operation, Kelso lost one of its long time residents and an active worker in all community affairs. Although friends knew of Mrs. Yancey's serious condition when she went to Portland a short time ago, news of her passing spread general sorrow.

Hulda Ann Rhea was born at Eugene, Oregon, August 2, 1867, and resided there until she was 12 years of age, when the family moved to Eastern Oregon. Here, as in the Willamette Valley, the Rheas were well associated with that sturdy race of pioneers who cleared the way for the generation that has followed. On July 4th, 1882, Hulda was married at The Dalles, Ore., to William Henry Yancey. In 1890 the family moved to Kelso, then a small village, and have lived here continuously since that time.

Mrs. Yancey was one of those rare spirits who find their way into the hearts of all. She was dearly loved by all who knew her, children and adults alike; always forgetful of self; always doing something for others, her life has indeed been a blessing, and this world is brighter because she lived. Her wonderful vitality and indomitable courage during her illness of recent years was marvelous. She was a patient and uncomplaining sufferer, of an unusually cheerful disposition. For several years she had been active in the work of the Christian Church, of which she was a prominent member. She was also a member of the Ladies of the Macabees, and has held many important offices in that Order. She died in St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland on Tuesday, December 4, 1917, at the age of 50 years, 4 months and 2 days. She leaves a devoted husband, five children, Claude, Frank, Mrs. Laura Morgan of Albany, Ore., Edwin and Ray; an aged mother, Mrs. M. A. Donaldson, of Condon, Ore.; five sisters, Mrs. O. C. Veatch, of Condon, Ore.; Mrs. C. D. Barnard, Fossil, Ore.; Mrs. Henry Pies, Salberry, Ore.; Mrs. A. T. Tillard, Douglas, Wyo.; Mrs. T. W. Wyatt, Santa Cruz, Calif.; three half sisters, Mrs. R. L. Brackett, Portland; Mrs. P. Y. McCarter, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Jas. Luper, Heppner, Ore.; also three half brothers and two grandchildren.—The Kelsonian.

H. M. WARREN PASSES AWAY AT PENDLETON

(Pendleton Tribune.)

H. M. Warren, prominent business man, died at his home last evening at six o'clock. He had been ill with heart trouble for several months and lately has been confined to his bed, his strength gradually waning. The funeral will be held at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the Presbyterian church.

The deceased was born in Oregon and was about 50 years of age. He married in Heppner and later moved to Eugene, where for two years he was instructor in the school of music. About five years ago he moved to Pendleton and founded Warren's Music House, which he has conducted with success since that time.

He leaves a wife and two sons, one of whom is four and the other eight years of age. He was a member of the I. O. O. F., the Moose, the Elks and the Knights of Pythias.

Lexington Red Cross Doing Great Work.

The women of Lexington are the best equipped and are going into the Red Cross work more thoroughly than any other women visited in the county by Mrs. L. G. Herren.

Mrs. Herren spent last Saturday with the Lexington women, giving them instruction in making surgical supplies. An auto was sent up to Heppner to take Mrs. Herren to Lexington and she was returned home in the same manner.

The Red Cross workers meet every Saturday in the domestic science room of the Lexington High School, according to the report made by Mrs. Herren. They come dressed in the regulation uniform of white, bringing their lunches and prepared to spend the day in the work room. Three large tables have been provided for the work.

"It is an inspiration for anyone to witness the manner in which the Lexington women are entering into the Red Cross work," said Mrs. Herren. "They do nothing by halves and their organization is the best I have yet seen anywhere."

Baldy Strang is a rare impersonator of Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch comedian. His singing is said to be exceptionally good. He plays the bagpipe in an artistic manner, according to the highly complimentary press comments of his talent where he has entertained before.

R. F. Hynd, former resident of Heppner, was in the city the first of the week from his Portland home.
