HEPPNER GARAGE

Heppner Has Chance For City Mail By Carrier If We Want It.

The postoffice department is authorized to establish village delivery service in towns having postoffices of the third class, or of the second class not entitled to city delivery.

Postmaster Richardson says that Heppner may avail itself of this service, although the government requirements are that certain civic improvements must be made before the service is inaugurated. The improvements include suitable side walks, cross walks, street signs and house numbers.

In order that the service may be obtained, the department must be assured of two things. These are that the civic improvements have been made or will be made within a reasonable length of time, and it must also be shown that the delivery service is desired by a majority of the residents of the town.

The receipts of the local postoffice for the year 1916-1917 have exceeded $7,000 each year, thereby entitling Heppner to be designated as a second class postoffice instead of a postoffice of the third class.

If She Had Been A Muly Cow This Wouldn't Have Happened.

Roy Ayers, son of J. T. Ayers of Butter creek, is minus a little finger today as the result of an encounter with a stubborn milk cow at the Ed Neill ranch last week.

Young Ayers, who has been working for Mr. Neill, was in the barn assisting Mr. Neill with the milking when this cowbrute made a bolt for the door. In an attempt to head her off, Ayers threw up one hand and the point of one of the horns of the cow caught under a ring on the boy's little finger. The result was that the little finger was torn completely off just above the first joint.

The cow went out of the barn and took a piece of Ayers' little finger with her. Mr. Neill brought the young man to town where he received medical and surgical assistance and the injury is now reported to be healing nicely.

The Snakes Are Out in December

Can you beat it? The snakes are crawling around in the middle of winter. August Rahner, Heppner Flat farmer brought a small blow snake into town Saturday. He had picked it up by the road side near his ranch. He believes that the snake was fooled by the warm balmy weather we have been having and thought that Spring was really here. The snake, although not a curiosity by any means, is on display at Gurdane & Son's store, in order that the doubtful Thomases can see it for themselves and thereby have the proof of the story.

Christmas Trade Good.

Heppner merchants report that the present Christmas trade has far exceeded last year. In some cases holiday purchases have increased threefold and every merchant says more money has come over the counter than was experienced in 1916 following the bumper crop.

Miss Martina H. Thiele, instructor in the local high school is spending the Christmas holidays in Portland.

Odd Fellows Elect.

At a recent meeting of Willow Lodge No. 66, Independent Order of Odd Fellows the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: L. W. Briggs, Noble Grand; George W. Sperry, vice Grand; A. M. Phelps, secretary and Hanson Hughes, treasurer. These officers will be installed early in January and the appointive officers will be named at that time.

Home For Vacation.

Two Heppner boys who have been away to school and who returned home Saturday to spend the Christmas vacation with relatives and friends here, are Emmett Hughes and Earl Gordon. Mr. Hughes is in his freshman year at the Oregon Agricultural College and Mr. Gordon is a student at the North Pacific Dental College and School of Pharmacy.

Students Here For Holidays.

John Kilkenny Jr. and sister, Miss Rose Kilkenny, are spending the holidays at the home of their father, John Kilkenny at their home on Hinton creek. John is a student at Columbia University and Miss Rose has been attending school in Pendleton.

Stephen Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Irwin, who has been attending school at the University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio, returned home last week and will spend sometime here. He recently enlisted in the aviation service and will be called to some training camp before long. Until he is called he will remain in this city.
