Lewis Cason was in the city Saturday from Hardman.

S. W. Spenced, Frank Gilliam, Thos. Brennan and Vawter Crawford represented Heppner Lodge of Masons at the funeral of R. M. Lindsey in Ione on Tuesday. They found the roads between Heppner and Ione not in the best of condition for auto driving.

I haul baggage and passengers to and from the depot to any part of the city. Phone 555 or 183. Lee Cantwell.

I will pay the top price cash for good fat chickens and all other poultry, fresh eggs, dressed veal, vegetables and fruits.

Feeding Fine Bunch of Cattle.

Wm. Beymer, of Heppner, is feeding a fine bunch of cattle which he will turn on to the market at the proper time in the spring. There are 400 head of these feeders and part of them are now being fed in Clarks Canyon and a part of them on the Munkers place north of Lexington. He is using straw stacks for feed, and states that the cattle are doing exceedingly well as the straw is rich in grain. There seems to be a lot of this kind of feed in the county this year, and Mr. Beymer states that his only regret is that there are not more cattle to use it up. John Brosnan and Dillard French, of Butter creek, will move over a big bunch of their stock cattle which they will feed on the Valentine place on Willow creek. They have been busy getting the feed racks ready this week.

HEPPNER BOYS WILL ENLIST IN AVIATION CORPS

Two more of Heppner's young men enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam this week when Henry Aiken and Emil Groshen left for Portland to enlist in the flying division of the U. S. Army service. Mr. Aiken is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Aiken and Mr. Groshen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Groshen. Both young men have been prominent students in the local high school and will be greatly missed by their many friends.

which was great, and some candy, a book and four cans of Velvet. It was very good of them to remember me so nicely.

How are the folks getting along on the ranch and how are they getting along with the well? Is it dug yet or not? I would kind a like to be there this winter but the chances are small cut out by censor—the U. S. plans for a five years of it but the sooner it is over the better for us. War news here is not very strong as our opportunity for news from the front does not come very often. I just received another bunch of papers mother sent me and there was lots of good news, but old to you I guess, but only wish there was more.

Well as I don't know any more news that I can write I will close for this time. Hoping to hear from you again soon, with love to all, and regards to all inquiring friends,
Your brother,
Marshal.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Whereas, It has pleased our Divine Father in Heaven to take from our order our beloved Brother J. R. Simons, therefore be it

Resolved that San Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33, while we as a body of fraternal Sisterhood realize our inability to reverse the decree of the Almighty, that will eventually enroll us one and all with the departed,

We are nevertheless in hearty sympathy with the relatives of our departed brother, who was near and dear to them. Hence, while life is extended to us, let us follow that example of our brother, and improve every opportunity of doing our part to perpetuate the grand tenets of our beloved order.

IRRIGON NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cabbage are spending the holidays at the home of their daughter in Seattle.

The oyster supper given to the people of Irrigon by the road men was a decided success and enjoyed by everyone. All went home glad the road men were so sociable.

Messrs. W. W. Card and Earl Caldwell and their families were down for Christmas.

Fred Davis drove to Hermiston last Friday, accompanied by his mother and sister. They found the roads very muddy going up but found them better upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and family of Eugene are spending their vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corey were entertained at Xmas by Mrs. W. R. Walpole and daughter Francis.

The Red Cross committee worked faithfully and we understand they did fine. We did not learn the number of new members secured.

Another new family moved into town last week from Kellogg, Idaho. This is what we like to see.

Mr. B. Lane came in Sunday and is visiting a few days with his family.

Among the returning students for the Christmas holidays is Miss Melba Griffiths who is attending the Oregon State Normal School at Monmouth. Miss Griffiths is visiting at the home of her uncle, John Patterson. She was a teacher in the local school last year and spent last summer in New Mexico with her mother.

Louis Groshen, Rhea creek farmer and sheepman, came down from the ranch to spend Christmas with his family.

There's a Reason?

Our Christmas business during the present month was more than one-third larger than last year; it was on account of the support of our many friends and patrons that made this possible.

We wish to thank you for your liberal support with
