

Town and Country.

L. D. Neill, Butter creek farmer, was a Saturday visitor in Heppner.

For Sale—house and lot. Inquire at this office for particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becket of Eight Mile were Saturday visitors in Heppner.

LOST—female dog, alreadale, with leather collar and long tail. Finder return to this office. Reward.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O. Turner of Sand Hollow are spending the holidays in this city with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Young, accompanied by Dr. A. D. McMurdo, went to Portland Monday, where Mrs. Young will undergo an operation.

Arch Cox, who has been living at Richland, Ore., during the past two years, arrived in Heppner Saturday to make a visit with friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Adkins left Saturday for Walla Walla to spend the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. Adkins' parents. Ed Clark is looking down Mr. Adkins' position at the depot.

WANTED to contract with responsible parties to log, saw and haul to cars, timber in six-south, 26 east. Might advance some money for equipment. D. D. Darling, 652 Belmont St., Portland.

Chas. B. Cox, west Heppner farmer, was in the city Monday buying Christmas presents for his friends. He reports crop conditions on his ranch excellent and looks forward to another big season.

Miss Augusta Baker of the high school faculty, left Saturday for Portland, where she will visit during the vacation week.

Mrs. Esther Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Johnson, is spending the holidays with her parents in this city. Mrs. Turner is teaching school in Umatilla county this year.

Miss Lela Campbell is spending the holidays as a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Willis G. McCarty, in Portland.

Sheriff George McDuffee returned the last of the week from Pendleton, where he had been calling on official business.

Miss Muriel Cason, of Vaughn & Sons, is spending the Christmas week in Portland, having gone down Monday morning.

Olin Hayes is spending a few days with the home folks in Heppner this week. He has been working for a mule buying firm in Idaho the past few months.

Miss Vera Mahoney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, has arrived home from Seattle to spend the Christmas holidays. Miss Mahoney is a student at the University of Washington.

W. J. Davis, veteran contractor and builder of Lexington, made a brief business visit in Heppner Monday. Mr. Davis made a pleasant call to the Gazette-Times office while in the city.

Miss Flora Noyes, daughter of Rev. H. A. Noyes, arrived in Heppner Saturday to spend the holidays with the home folks. Miss Noyes is a teacher in the school at Umapine, Umatilla county.

A. E. Bates of Hardman was a visitor in Heppner last Friday.

Joe Devine, Lexington wheat farmer, was a visitor in Heppner last Saturday.

Jas. Blahnik, resident of Lone Rock, spent several days in Heppner last week.

Misses Ellen O. Bergstrom and Lillian Troedson of Ione were Heppner callers Saturday.

Emmet Carpenter, the Eight Mile postmaster, was transacting business in Heppner Monday.

H. A. Yoakum is spending a few days in the city from his mountain ranch south of this city.

Clifford and Oral Henriksen of Cecil were week end visitors in Heppner, stopping at the Palace hotel.

Miss Elmira Brewer, a former teacher in the Heppner schools, is visiting in this city during the holidays.

John J. Kelley, well known sheepman, is spending the holidays in Heppner. He has been feeding his sheep near Cecil.

Mrs. Earl Pruyear of Ione was a visitor in Heppner last week. Mrs. Pruyear will be remembered by Heppner friends as Miss Edna McNabb.

Ernest Howell of Ione, who enlisted some time ago in the United States Navy, is home for a visit with his father Henry Howell and his brothers Lee and Richard.

Lost—One two buckle ladies overshoe and one four buckle man's overshoe, between Lexington and Heppner. Reward of fifty cents if returned to the Gazette-Times.

Frank Bowker, Geo. Caldwell, A. Hefly and Al Britling, members comprising the Bowker's orchestra, furnished music for a dance held at the opera house in this city last Saturday evening.

Max Rogers went to Portland Monday to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives. His brother Ray who is now with the National army at Camp Lewis, is also spending the holidays in Portland.

Creston R. Maddock is up from the University of Oregon at Eugene to spend a few days with the home folks during the Christmas vacation. Besides being a good student, Creston made his letter on the foot ball team this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carter of Rhea creek were in the city last week and while here made arrangements with the editor of the Gazette-Times to get some seed corn, acclimated to this section, which Mr. Carter will try out on his ranch. He believes corn will do well there.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

Subject of the morning sermon Sunday: "Looking Backwards and Forwards." Sunday evening: "Life's Attainments."

The services Sunday will close our work in Heppner. We leave with best wishes for the entire community. We have been treated with the utmost courtesy and kindness by the public, and desire that they will accept our thanks. If we have failed them in any way according to our ability, we sincerely regret it. We trust we leave with the good will of all those who are the friends of righteousness.

If anyone knows of any financial obligation unpaid, we will appreciate it if they will report to us.

With best wishes for the good people of Heppner we will make our public adieu.

TURNER B. MacDONALD, Minister.

Merry Christmas

The Season's Greetings

We thank you for being one of those whose friendly business
prompts this token of appreciation

Minor & Company

1917-1918

May the New Year
bring to my friends
and patrons a continuation of

Health, Happiness and Prosperity.

Oscar Borg

GIFTS THAT WILL PLEASE

Ladies' Black, Tan and Brown calf,
New Military Heel. Just received
$5.00 to $8.50

Men's Koko Russian calf with Brown
buck top. Tan and Black. Neolin or leather sole.
$4.50 to $9.00

Peters
"Diamond Brand"

No wet feet with our Childs' Rubber Boots. Just the thing to keep them

Healthy and Happy

E. N. GONTY, SHOE STORE

My Wish---

That the New Year
of 1918 shall bring to my friends an increase in Happiness and in Prosperity.

I thank you for your patronage of the past year.

Oscar R. Otto

Dealer in Musical Instruments

Heppner, Oregon