

BROWNIE

HOLIDAY Gifts of candy, stationery or dainty toilet luxuries are always welcome, either to others or to yourself, and you will have your tastes interpreted more exactly here than anywhere else we know.

ALTHOUGH you have a grandfather's clock in the hall, a Dresden clock on the drawing room mantle and an alarm clock in your bed room, you always wear a watch.

You may have other cameras, but you need a Vest Pocket Kodak. You can wear it like a watch.

FROM the kindergarten days up, there's wholesome fun for the children, and lasting joy for all the family, in the Kodak and Brownie pictures the children make—and Christmas day, with its home pictures, is an excellent time to start.

Come in and see our stock of Kodaks and Brownies. There's no obligation.

FIRST NATIONAL WILL MOVE SOON.

The First National Bank of Heppner expects to move into their magnificent new banking quarters shortly after the first of the year. The new bank building is now completed and ready for occupancy with the exception of the banking fixtures, which are now being installed by H. J. Griffith of Portland. Mr. Griffith is superintendant of the Northwest Bank Equipment Co.

Probably there is not a city in the state of Oregon that can boast of a more up-to-date banking house than can Heppner. The new First National Bank building will meet every phase of a modern banking house both from the standpoint of the public and the convenience of the officials of the bank.

The upper story of the building is given over to apartments and these have already been filled. S. E. Van Vactor has moved his law office into rooms of the rear of the bank and is now comfortably and conveniently located.

War Savings Campaigns.

War-savings campaigns, similar to the war-savings certificates and Thrift-Stamp campaign just launched by the Treasury Department of the United States, are proving highly satisfactory in England. There as in the United States, the laboring classes, and their children, unable to invest in the bonds of larger denominations, do take pride and patriotic satisfaction in investing their small earnings in "Baby bonds," for they realize that they are thus helping to win the war.

Already the effects of the educational features of the propaganda are being felt. Parents and children alike are learning to save. They are lending to the government and at the same time are putting more money in the savings banks.

Basil B. Blackett, of the British treasury, in an address to the American Bankers' Association advised that the working people of small savings capacity in England, Wales and Scotland have lent their government $400,000,000 out of sixteen months savings.

Mr. Blackett speaking of the larger features of the campaign said: "The war savings movement has in the first place increased savings bank deposits during the war. Still more important, it is educating a vast new army of future clients for savings institutions after the war. Finally, it can not fail to be of enormous significance in the future state of England that one in every four of its population, at the very least, is a direct holder of government securities."

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
