

BROWNIE

HOLIDAY Gifts of candy, stationery or dainty toilet luxuries are always welcome, either to others or to yourself, and you will have your tastes interpreted more exactly here than anywhere else we know.

ALTHOUGH you have a grandfather's clock in the hall, a Dresden clock on the drawing room mantle and an alarm clock in your bed room, you always wear a watch.

You may have other cameras, but you need a Vest Pocket Kodak. You can wear it like a watch.

FROM the kindergarten days up, there's wholesome fun for the children, and lasting joy for all the family, in the Kodak and Brownie pictures the children make—and Christmas day, with its home pictures, is an excellent time to start.

Come in and see our stock of Kodaks and Brownies. There's no obligation.

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With The Oregon Farmer
Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.

Highway Construction Urged By the Council of Defense

Construction of the main highways is urged by the Council of National Defense and by leading military men, according to a letter received by State Highway Commissioner Thompson from the secretary of the National Association of State Highway Commissioners.

In the letter the secretary refers to the advice of General Black, chief engineer of the United States Army, and General Wood, who urge the tremendous importance of construction of the through routes, even under present conditions. It is suggested, however, that scenic roads and strictly branch roads should be left alone until conditions are more settled.

Through routes, it is explained, are those which lead from one center of population or commerce to another, and one of the chief reasons for their improvement at this time is the inability of the railroads to cope with the immense amount of transportation business which is required.

"This is the policy which was adopted by the Oregon commission some time ago," said Mr. Thompson, "and we are glad to receive the approbation of these authorities."—Pendleton Tribune.

THANKS TO THOSE MAKING DRIVE SUCCESS

Portland, Ore., December 30, 1917

Mr. S. E. Van Vactor, Campaign Manager, Christmas Red Cross Membership drive, Heppner, Oregon.
Dear Mr. Van Vactor:

Your campaign workers braved the weather and went from house to house and farm to farm, canvassing for Red Cross memberships. There was no hardship they were not willing to undergo. The distressing shortage of buttons and other supplies embarrassed them, but they went ahead with lofty courage. They were animated by love of our country, affection for our soldier boys and a desire to be of actual service in relieving the suffering caused by frightful war; also they were determined Morrow County should do its full share in the enrollment of members in response to the appeal of President Wilson asking every man and woman to join the Red Cross.

The results in Morrow County speak for themselves. To your heroic workers belongs the credit. It was individual work like this all over our state that won for Oregon the proud distinction of being among the foremost states of our Union in patriotic achievement.

No mere letter of thanks can convey to your workers anything like the credit that is their due. Their devotion demonstrates that they were not striving for personal credit. Their rich reward is in the consciousness of sacrifice made and duty done, but in behalf of the Northwestern Division Campaign Committee, will you kindly convey to each and all of them,
