

An engine that runs with softness, due to the now noted "Hot-Spot" and "Ram's-Horn" Manifold—Chalmers features

In the days of yesterday, "roar" and "wallop" were the terms used to define an engine's power.

Today, it is the softness of power, the controllability of it that fascinates.

It is a new kind of power to many, brought to public attention through the famous "Hot-Spot" and "Ram's-Horn" Manifold of the Chalmers.

For here the gas is heated, and "cracked-up" at the throat of the carburetor by the "Hot-Spot" and then rushed quickly via the "Ram's-Horn" Manifold into the combustion chambers.

It is "toasted" so nicely, "pulverized" so fine, that the instant after sparking there is well-nigh no waste of gas.

Little of power comes out of the exhaust. All the power comes out of the rear wheels—and such pleasing, well-harnessed power, that your enthusiasm for driving reaches a new peak.

UNCONFIRMED REPORTS USED TO BOOST SACKS

Report That Ships May Be Requisitioned to Carry Bags From Calcutta Is Misleading.

Corvallis, Ore., March 10.—The unconfirmed statement made at the recent Wheat Handling Convention at Spokane that two ships were available near Calcutta and that the Government might be influenced to requisition those ships to stimulate further interest in bags.

Also an attempt has been made to frighten farmers into placing their orders for bags at the exorbitant prices now prevailing. Many wheat growers know that it is cheaper to bulk even with bags at minimum prices, and many more recognize the urgent need of the government for ships for that the request to divert tonnage from more necessary war enterprises to bring 25 cent grain bags to the Pacific Coast is not only unpractical but extremely unpatriotic. The placing of bag orders at this time serves only to delay the ultimate change from sack to bulk. It further helps to maintain the exorbitant prices placed on bags and to reduce profits on the wheat. Recognizing the entire feasibility of preparing for bulk handling in time for the 1918 crop, few farmers are being stampeded into bag contracts at 25 to 27 cents per sack.

Uncertainty of deliveries is another factor stimulating bulk handling interest in even the most conservative "bag handling" sections.

The Oregon Agricultural College is distributing plans for Farm Granaries and is being assisted in the work of bulk handling and elevator organization by the United States Department of Agriculture.—G. R. Hy-slop, O. A. C.

Club Men Went to Pendleton.

Eight members of the Heppner Gun Club went to Pendleton last Sunday to tender an invitation to the Pendleton Gun Club to shoot with the locals next month. The Pendleton gunners have accepted the invitation and about thirty of them will be here when the two teams meet in the Inland Empire Shoot. Those who made the trip to Pendleton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bowker, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, Bert Stone, Ed Adkins, Adam Knoblock and Jimmie Wilson.

Returns from Portland.

Dell Ward returned Saturday from Portland where he had been for several weeks with Mrs. Ward, who has been receiving treatment from a physician. While below, Mr. Ward made a visit with Mark Crawford of Lone Rock, who is in the Good Samaritan hospital. Mr. Crawford was badly injured sometime ago in an automobile accident and his hip bone was crushed. He has undergone one operation and it is feared that another one must be performed before the injured man can get well.

Heppner Men Buy Cars.

During the past week Vaughn & Sons, local agents for the Chevrolet, sold three of these cars to Heppner men. The buyers were George J. Currin, Hugh C. Githns and R. T. Brown.

Business Trip to Pendleton.

S. W. Spencer, cashier of the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank of this city, was in Pendleton over the week end on business. He returned home Monday evening.

Down from Walla Walla.

C. A. Stanton, Walla Walla business man, spent a few days in Morrow county during the past week. He was accompanied by J. H. Hall, a real estate man of Walla Walla, and Mr. Stanton took him out over the Eight Mile country, where Mr. Stanton is the owner of some valuable wheat lands.

Spent the Week in Portland.

W. Pruitt Cox, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner, spent the past week in Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Issued License to Wed.

County Clerk Waters issued a marriage license last week to Faye McNabb of Ione and Miss Lottie Benedict of Morgan. Both parties are from well and favorably known families of the Ione-Morgan section, where Mr. McNabb is engaged in farming at the present time.

Sugar Supply Assured for Manufacturers of Food Products.

Manufacturers of essential food products have been advised by the Food Administration that they will be able to obtain their full necessary requirements of sugar for manufacturing purposes during the coming year.

This applies particularly to packers of fruit, condensed milk, such vegetables for the preservation of which sugar may be necessary, as well as to the housewives for usage in preserving purposes. As soon as the car shortage is relieved, according to the Food Administration state-
