Swift & Company Publicity

At a recent hearing of the Federal Trade Commission there was introduced correspondence taken from the private files of Swift & Company, which showed that the Company had been considering for some time an educational advertising campaign.

The need for this publicity has been apparent to us for several years. The gross misrepresentation to which we have recently been subjected has convinced us that we should no longer delay in putting before the public the basic facts of our business, relying on the fair-mindedness of the American people.

The feeling against the American packer is based largely on the belief that the income and well-being of the producer and consumer are adversely affected by the packers' operations, resulting in unreasonably large profits.

Swift & Company's net profit is reasonable, and represents an insignificant factor in the cost of living.

For the fiscal year 1917 the total sales and net profit of Swift & Company were as follows:

Sales	$875,000,000.
Profits	$34,650,000.

This is equivalent to a $3,465. profit on a business of $87,500.

If Swift & Company had made no profit at all, the cattle raiser would have received only one-eighth of a cent per pound more for his cattle, or the consumer would have saved only one-quarter of a cent per pound on dressed beef.

Advance Loan Subscription.
The East Oregonian carries a tale of a subscription from Pilot Rock for $2500 worth of the third issue of Liberty bonds, and credits this with being the first subscription of the kind in the county. That the paper is in error regarding this matter is the opinion of R. B. Stanfield, of the Bank of Echo. He can beat that record, for six weeks ago a $10,000 certificate of deposit was delivered to him with instructions to buy that amount of bonds as soon as the third issue is put on the market.—Echo News.

Harry P. Huffman went to Portland on Saturday to consult a specialist regarding an abdominal affection which has been giving him concern for several weeks. His wife and baby are staying in town with her mother, Mrs. Frank Melotte.—Enterprise Record-Chieftain.

Frank Swaggart First Subscriber in Our New Home.
Frank Swaggart, young farmer and stockman of Little Butter creek, was the first new subscriber to The Gazette-Times after we moved into our new home. Mr. Swaggart crossed the portal of our editorial sanctum before the air was fouled with printers' ink and was much pleased with the appearance of things hereabouts.
Mr. Swaggart is the son of Link Swaggart, pioneer of the Athena country, and came down here last Fall after he had purchased the old Ayers ranch from J. B. Culick on Butter creek. The young man was in town Monday after a load of alfalfa seed. Besides putting 200 acres in wheat, Mr. Swaggart says he will do considerable spring seeding and expects to increase the hay yield of the ranch by many tons.

Barr Is Lieutenant.
Mrs. Alice Barr of this city received a message from her son, Jack Barr announcing that he has been appointed first lieutenant in the aviation corps. Lieutenant Barr is at present an instructor in aviation at Columbus, O.—The Dalles Optimist.

Doherty Starting Farming.
Barney Doherty, prominent Sand Hollow sheepman, is starting to farm part of the 400 acres owned by him in that neighborhood. He has a tractor employed plowing, and has purchased a supply of new farm implements. Echo Mercantile Co. had a crew at his ranch Sunday setting up a number of the new machines.—Echo News.

Echo Man Near Internment.
Tom Ross came near being interned last week as an alien enemy, according to a story told by a member of the Pendleton secret service. The detective had been watching a Teuton of mysterious manner, and followed him to the railroad station. Mr. Ross was there waiting for the motor, and when the German saw him he advanced with outstretched hand, and saluted Ross with what the detective says is the salutation sign of the alien sympathizer: "It is Ludwig, my friend, yes?" Instead of coming back with the phrase that would have branded him as an associate of the German spy, Ross berated the stranger so strongly for mistaking him for an individual with a Teuton name, that the secret service man was satisfied Ross was not an agent of the Kaiser. Mr. Ross does not yet know how close he was to arrest.—Echo News.

August Walker of Grants Pass has been here the past week visiting friends and relatives. It is understood that he is talking some of putting up a building on the Walker corner to replace the one destroyed by the fire in January.—Tone Independent.

Candidate For the Republican Nomination for Governor.
Dr. Anderson is best known throughout the state as the "Father" of prohibition, as he introduced in the state legislature the prohibition law of 1915 as well as the "bone-dry" law of 1917. That he is proud of the title is evidenced by the fact that when he filed notice of his candidacy for Governor he ordered the words "Bone Dry; Win the War; Develop Oregon" printed after his name on the ballot.
He is a native of Illinois, but has resided in Oregon for the past sixteen years, all of the time in The Dalles.
As a member of the Oregon legislature in 1913-1915 and 1917 he has always been actively identified with the constructive measures coming before that body. He was a member of the committee which in 1913 put through the measure faking the state printing out of politics, thus saving thousands of dollars to the Oregon taxpayers. He supported Workmen's Compensation; Permanent Registration; Mother's Pension; State Board of Control; Rural Credits as well as all Social Hygiene and other moral uplift measures. During the three sessions he served in the House he has supported every measure which promised a relief and protection to the men and women who toil, and in 1917 took the floor in active opposition to the anti-picket bill. The railroad men have appreciated his support and have officially thanked him for his assistance in passing the Electric Headlight bill; the Pull Crew were vitally interested.

DR. J. E. ANDERSON
