CHANDLER MOTOR CAR COMPANY, CLEVELAND, O.

OREGON LIFE INVESTS HERE.

Takes $1000 in Liberty Bonds.

Oregon Life, Oregon's premier insurance company, has invested $1000 through the First National Bank of Heppner, in Liberty Loan Bonds. The purchase of bonds was placed by the district agent of the company, W. S. Bowen.

Mr. Bowen has subscribed for like amounts for the company at Condon and Moro. In the first two bond issues, Oregon Life bought Liberty Bonds to the extent of $25,000, all of the $50,000 being subscribed thru the Portland district. This time the company took $50,000, dividing it half with Portland and half with the districts over the state.

HEPPNER FLAT FARMER BUYS BONDS.

Wm. Hendrix Takes On $2500.

Among the larger subscribers for the third issue of Liberty Loan Bonds is Wm. Hendrix of Heppner Flat, who has taken $2500. Mr. Hendrix is among the most enthusiastic subscribers to the loan and exceeded the quota as set down for him by local campaign officials.

Lexington Get-Together Meeting Success.

Karl L. Beach was in the city from Lexington on Saturday and reports that the get-together meeting held at the Congregational church in Lexington on Friday evening was a complete success from every standpoint. There was a large gathering of the members and friends of the church, a good social time was had by all, and plans for the future work of the church were laid. Mr. Beach states that both the church and Sunday school are in a prosperous condition and a successful work is being accomplished by the Congregational church at Lexington. Recent improvements to the church building have put the structure in better shape for the carrying on of the work and was made necessary by the growing conditions.

LABOR COMMISSIONER CANDIDATE IS GRAM

C. H. Gram, candidate for the Republican nomination for Commissioner of Labor Statistics and Inspector of Factories and Workshops, was born in Denmark in 1868, has lived nearly all his life on the Pacific Coast and the last 20 years in Oregon. Has a wife and two children, a daughter teaching in the public schools and a son with Co. C, 162 U. S. Infantry, now in France.

For 10 years Mr. Gram was connected with the factory inspection department of the Labor Bureau, together with his activities in fields for moral and material betterment of people who labor, has given him an experience that eminently fits him for the position he seeks.

Mr. Gram has held many positions of trust in the Trade Union movement.

ment. Served as president of the Oregon State Federation of Labor for six terms and was organizer for the American Federation of Labor for several years. Always stood for things that were fair, honest and conservative—outspoken in his opposition to radicalism and the I. W. W. element. Mr. Gram says: "The successful prosecution of the war is the foremost object of every patriotic citizen today. Harmonious relation between employer and employee adds much to the productivity that go to sustain our Arms; to this end, if I am elected Labor Commissioner, I shall devote every effort and influence to bring about conditions to most effectively continue our fight for Democracy."

Mr. and Mrs. Loy M. Turner motored to Pendleton last Saturday, where they met Mrs. Turner's mother, who came up from Portland. The two women went on to Baker for a visit with relatives. Mrs. Turner expects to be absent from Heppner a month.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barlow, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell of Lone, were Monday callers in Heppner.

Four Men to Shoot.

Not a sufficient number of members of the Pendleton Gun club were out at the meeting Thursday night to make a definite decision on the business at hand, but it was evident a strong sentiment for sending to Portland a five-man team to represent the club in the state shoot there May 22. The three men who are assured of places on the team, as having won the city tournament are Earl Coultts, Dan Bowman and Dr. Ingram. By a peculiar coincidence, the three men are led with 131 birds each out of a possible 150. A meeting has been called for next Thursday when an effort will be made to line up 8 to 10 cars to make the trip to Heppner a week from Sunday when the Pendleton and Heppner teams meet in the Columbia-Willamette tournament.—Pendleton Tribune.

Issues Year Book.

Swift & Co. of Chicago has issued a most comprehensive year book containing interesting and instructive facts about the cost of livestock and the prices of meat. A copy of the book will be sent to anyone writing to the Swift & Co. offices at Chicago.

New Red Cross Nurse at Lexington.

W. L. Holmes, manager for the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company at Lexington was in Heppner Monday wearing a smile of a happy father. A nine pound daughter arrived at his home the first of the week.

W. P. Cox, assistant cashier of the First National Bank made a hurried business trip to Portland the last of the week. He left Heppner by auto Saturday night and returned Monday morning.

W. S. Bowen, district agent for the Oregon Life Insurance Company, is spending several days in this vicinity on business.

John F. Vaughn, local auto dealer, accompanied by Clifford M. Sims, assistant cashier of the Farmers and Stockgrowers National Bank, went to Portland Saturday, returning home the first of the week.

Rev. F. A. Andrews of the Christian church visited Lone on Sunday last and held services in the church at that place in the afternoon, being greeted by a large congregation of people.

Jas. Thomas, farmer of the Lexington district, was in the city Monday. He says he has his crop all in.
