Day-Old Chicks Made Four Day Trip.

Mrs. J. A. Waters, one of Heppner's chicken fanciers, received a shipment of day old Mottled Ancona chicks last Saturday evening from "somewhere in Idaho." The chicks were one day old when they started on their belated journey, but by the time they arrived in Heppner they had been in this world four days. The casualties were not large, but two or three of them dying while enroute, or shortly after reaching their destination. This trip would have ordinarily consumed two days and the chicks as a rule will not live for a longer time on the rations provided by nature. Mrs. Waters feels fortunate in receiving this shipment of high grade poultry without greater loss, considering the circumstances.

923 MORE OREGON MEN CALLED TO COLORS

Portland, April 10.—Nine hundred and twenty-three more Oregon men are to be called to the colors immediately for the National Army.

They will be inducted into the military service from Class One, in the sequence of their order numbers. Orders have been received from the War Department by the Adjutant General of Oregon that all these men must be entrained for Camp Lewis, Wash., in the five day period beginning April 26.

This quota of 923 men is in addition to the draft quota of 329 men who were called into service from Oregon on March 29.

The 923 men comprise 12.5 per cent of Oregon's gross quota in the first draft.

No county in the state will be exempted from furnishing its proportionate quota of men to meet this call. At the same time it is announced by the War Department that each county will receive full credit on the next net draft quota for the men sent now.

Though men from Class One are to be inducted into service in the sequence of their order numbers, the calling of men actively, completely and assiduously engaged in the planting and cultivation of farm crops, by direction of the President, will be deferred until the end of the new quota.

Following is the official allocation, prepared by Captain John E. Cullison, O. R. C., officer in charge of the execution of the selective service law in Oregon, showing the number of men each county must furnish by April 26 to fill the call for 923 men:

- Baker, 26; Benton, 16; Clackamas, 39; Clatsop, 32; Columbia, 19; Coos, 30; Crook, 6; Curry, 4; Deschutes, 12; Douglas, 24; Gilliam, 8; Grant, 9; Harney, 9; Hood River, 9; Jackson, 20; Jefferson, 6; Josephine, 9; Klamath, 18; Lake, 10; Lane, 37; Lincoln, 6; Linn, 26; Malheur, 18; Marion (2 boards) 44; Morrow, 9; Multnomah (outside Portland) 16; City of Portland (10 divisions) 279; Polk, 18; Sherman, 7; Tillamook, 11; Umatilla, 35; Union, 23; Wallowa, 16; Wasco, 17; Washington, 28; Wheeler, 5; Yamhill, 22. Total 923.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Yardley, who spent the winter at Bend, have returned to Morrow county and Mr. Yardley will work through the shearing season.

RIFLE AND HOE WILL WIN THE WAR.

Major Manchester of British and Canadian Recruiting Mission Points Out Facts Regarding Ultimate Outcome of World's Struggle.

"The war will be won with the rifle and the hoe," says Major C. S. Manchester of the British and Canadian Recruiting Mission who sends a parting message to the people of the Northwest.

To the editor of the Gazette-Times, Major Manchester writes the following:

San Francisco, Calif.
April 12, 1918.

To the Editor:

Sir: On relinquishing my command of the Pacific Coast Division of the British and Canadian Recruiting Mission, I take this opportunity to thank you for your generous cooperation in giving our Mission publicity from time to time. The work done by your paper has been of inestimable value to our cause and I trust you will treat my successor, Captain F. L. Goord, with the same courtesy and consideration as you have accorded me.

I feel this is an opportune moment to speak an encouraging word in the face of what looks like disaster on the Western Front, and would say that either Army at any time, if they are determined to break through a line, can do so by concentrating a sufficient number of men, without regard to cost, and our victory is assured by the fact of the number of German lives it is costing to capture the small area they have been fighting for.

A very good lesson is pointed out, if one will only learn, and that is that the strength of the Germans lies in their aptitude to follow the dictates of their Government, without question. Germany is peopled by a race that is united in thought, word and deed. Our people are from all parts of the world, and are made up of classes that think and act independently, and in this Western country particularly, we have little idea of the immensity of the struggle that is going on "Over There."

Let every individual amongst us ponder on the part he or she is playing in this gigantic conflict. It is all very well to say, "I am only one and my services will not amount to much." Offer your services; stand by like a man; cut out squabbling and differences of political opinions and jealousies of other men and join in whole-hearted support of every effort our Government is making to win this war before it is brought home to your doors.

War problems are not always settled nowadays in halls or on the streets; it is in the trenches and in the fields, with the rifle and the hoe, that the emancipation of mankind is brought about.

Our forefathers died to uphold freedom. Have we a better example to follow than that laid down by them?

Again thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your support, I am
Faithfully yours,
C. S. MANCHESTER,
Major.

FOOD CONSERVATION.

A great many people are asking for recipes for war breads.

You can obtain a book of recipes by writing to Scott, Foresman and Company, Chicago, Ill., and asking for Our Country's Call to Service. It will cost 12 cents and contains valuable information regarding:

- How to win the war for Democracy, (1) Conserving food, (2) Planting Home Gardens, (3) Saving Fuel, (4) Thrift, War Savings Stamps, etc., (5) Helping the Red Cross, (6) What Democracy Means.

You may also get a book entitled "Food Problems," by Farmer & Huntington from Ginn & Company, 20 Second St., San Francisco, Cal., for 27 cents. This is a book that should be in every home as well as in every school library in the county. Or write to your U. S. Senator, N. J. Sinnott for Bulletin No. 807, "Bread and Bread Making."

The following are two recipes taken from the first named book:

- Barley Yeast Bread.
- 1 cup milk and water, or water (8 ounces)
 - 1 tablespoon sugar (½ ounce)
 - 1 tablespoon fat (½ ounce)
 - 1 teaspoon salt (¼ ounce)
 - ½ cake compressed yeast (¼ ounce)
 - 1 1-6 cups barley flour (4 ounces)
 - 2 1-3 cups wheat flour (9 1-3 ounces)

Soften the yeast in part of the liquid. Combine ingredients. Mix into a dough. Knead and let rise to double original bulk. Knead again. Put in the pan, and when again double in bulk bake about 45 minutes.

- Potato Yeast Bread.
- (The following amounts make three loaves of bread.)
- ½ cup milk and water, or water (4 ounces)
 - 4 tablespoons sugar (2 ounces)
 - 4 tablespoons fat (2 ounces)
 - 1½ teaspoons salt (¾ ounces)
 - 4 cups boiled mashed potatoes
 - 8 cups flour (32 ounces)

¾ cake of compressed yeast (¾ ounce)
¾ cup warm water (2 ounces)
Potato Yeast Bread.—Boiled potatoes, mashed and combined with wheat flour may be used in making a bread of good flavor and texture. The potato bread is slightly darker in color than patent flour bread and is also somewhat more moist. It is relished by persons who do not care for any but so called "white-bread." Two manipulations are satisfactory. Either all of the flour may be added in the first mixture, making a dough which is very stiff and difficult to knead or a part of the flour may be reserved and added with the second kneading. In either case the dough is soft at the second handling, but after baking it produces a satisfactory loaf.

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With The Oregon Farmer Offers Unusal Opportunity to its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly and indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruit-grower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
