H. C. Githens, Agent for Morrow Co

S. J. Devine, well known wheat farmer of the Lexington section who was in Heppner Monday to get in good standing for another year of the Gazette-Times, says crops have not been hurt any down his way by the lack of rain. Fall grain is doing especially well and is bound to make a big yield, while a rain at the right time will insure the Spring grain.

In a recent issue of the O. A. C. Barometer the names of Alva and Glen Jones of Heppner appear in the list of 118 men from the school of commerce of the Agricultural College who have entered the Nation's service. Alva is listed with the infantry and Glen with the navy. The boys graduated in the 1912 class.

MORGAN ITEMS.

The Red Cross entertainment at Morgan Friday night was a grand success. A fine program was rendered by the pupils of Miss Irene Douglas's school. After the program a number of articles donated by the Morgan Red Cross were sold at auction by Ed Miller of Ione. Among the things sold were two pigs donated by F. M. Broady and Earl Morgan. A dance was given after the supper by Miss Douglas and supper was served by the ladies of the Red Cross in the I. O. O. F. Hall. Over $200 was taken in from the sale and supper.

W. F. Palmateer made a business trip to the Valley last week.

Gives Carload of Potatoes.

Harry E. Bartholomew of Stanfield, according to the Pendleton East Oregonian, has made a substantial gift to the Red Cross chapter in the shape of a carload of potatoes. Mr. Bartholomew had a big spud crop last year and has been unable to dispose of it all. The chapter will furnish the sacks, and get the potatoes delivered in Pendleton, where they will be disposed of for the benefit of the chapter.
