

YOU! Do Your Christmas Coaling Early

HEED FUEL ADMINISTRATION OR GARFIELD'S WARNIN.

PULL TOGETHER—GET SERIOUS—WE'RE AT WAR
There is plenty of coal to supply all

BUT

It can't be mined and transported in eight months. It takes twelve full months to mine a year's supply.

There are only 200 days left until the snow flies. Deliveries are blocked!

DON'T ARGUE—PROVIDE STORAGE ROOM—
If you haven't the cash on hand, borrow it.

Store Coal Now
IN MAY, JUNE AND JULY

Make what sacrifice is needed to keep your home warm, your factory running, and the food, clothing, arms and ammunition necessary for our Soldiers "Over There" flowing in a steady stream to the front.

Help win the war and protect yourself and your business at the same time.

"Tum-A-Lump"
(FOR ALL THATS GOOD—IN COAL OR WOOD)

SEE LEW AT LEXINGTON OR BILL AT IONE

Town and Country.

E. N. Gonty has returned from Portland greatly improved in health.

Dr. C. C. Chick of Ione was in Heppner Monday on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carmichael of Lexington, were Monday visitors in Heppner.

Bert Palmateer of Morgan was a brief business caller in Heppner last Saturday.

Fred Bradford and Will Kirk have returned to Heppner after working in the Portland shipyards for a few months.

Miss Isabel Wilson, a graduate of the 1918 class from Heppner High school, has accepted a position in the Heppner postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fulford of Pendleton are visiting at the home of Mrs. Fulford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cox, on the upper Hinton creek ranch.

Harvey McAllister of Lexington was in the city for a few hours on Monday. Everything is running smoothly in the Morrow county wheat center, according to Mr. McAllister.

Lou Holmes of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. at Lexington, was in Heppner Monday. Mr. Holmes reports a number of improvements under way in Lexington and vicinity.

Rev. G. B. VanWaters, general missionary of Episcopal churches in eastern Oregon, came up to Pendleton to meet his daughter, who arrived from Chicago.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Johannes Troedson and daughter Miss Anna of Morgan, were in Heppner Monday. Their son, Carl, is now in France, having enlisted a short time ago with a regiment of engineers.

Judge G. W. Phelps came over from Pendleton last Friday morning to pass on some naturalization cases and a case in equity. He was accompanied by Mrs. Phelps and Court Stenographer Beckwith.

Mrs. Tom Keeny of Monument underwent an operation Monday at the Heppner sanatorium for the removal of gall stones. The operation was a success and the condition of Mrs. Keeny is much improved.

Isalah Wren, a former Clarks Canyon farmer of this county, is making a visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. J. Hunt, at the Hunt farm home west of Heppner. This is Mr. Wren's first visit here in eleven years.

Miss Mabel Bay is a guest for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomson in this city. Miss Bay is a teacher in the Coquille schools and is on her way to her home at Fort Collins, Colorado, the old home town of Mrs. Thomson.

George D. Anderson, who tends camp for Hynd Brothers, spent a few days in Heppner last week and the first of this week getting ready to make the trip into the high mountains, where the sheep will find summer range. His postoffice will be Granite and he will keep informed on what goes on at home through the columns of The Gazette-Times.

John B. Coxen, Lexington barber who recently purchased the Roy Whitte's homestead on Willow creek below Heppner, was in the city Monday to receive medical dressing for his left hand, which he injured Sunday night. While doing some work on his new house, Mr. Coxen ran a sliver about four inches in length through the palm of his hand. He was accompanied by his wife and baby.

Attorney John P. "Jerry" Rusk has just returned from Portland, where he went to connect with an important commission in Red Cross war work, says the Pendleton East Oregonian. Mr. Rusk has received the appointment of assistant chief to the French commissioner of the American Red Cross. He will be required to be in New York by June 10 to enter upon the duties of his new position. Mr. Rusk is a well known La Grande attorney.

W. B. Potter of Winona, Wash., motored down to Heppner Wednesday. He was accompanied by his son Miles, who is home on a short furlough. Miles now wears the sailor blue, having enlisted a few months ago. He is stationed at Mare Island, and is with the hospital corps. Miles says all the Heppner boys are in good health at this time although he and Harold Cohn were in quarantine with the mumps at the same time. Sidney Hallock is now in the Philippine Islands, training the Hun by killing mosquitoes. According to a letter from Sid recently, those Philippine mosquitoes have "some motors" on them. Miles will be here until Saturday, when he will report for duty.

L. Monterestelli, of the Monterestelli Marble Works at Pendleton, has been spending several days in Heppner, placing tombstones and other monument work in Masonic cemetery. He shipped over a carload of stones.

Earl Gordon, who has been a student in pharmacy at the North Pacific School of Pharmacy in Portland during the past several months, has returned to Heppner for a short visit. He will spend the summer vacation in the Blumebaur-Frank Drug Co. at Portland.

Mrs. C. S. Emry of Philomath visited last week in Heppner at the home of her son, Clarence Bowers. While here, Mrs. Emry also enjoyed a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Marion Gray, who came over from Hamilton. Mrs. Emry returned to her home the last of the week, as did Mrs. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stevens of Condon were in Heppner last Friday to attend the graduation exercises of the local high school. They were accompanied home by their niece, Mrs. Esther Turner and little daughter, Pattie. Mrs. Turner, who has just completed a successful term of school at Pilot Rock, will live on her homestead this summer.

Jas. Sheridan, sheepman of Jones Canyon, met with painful though not serious injuries one night last week while driving in his car from Heppner out to the ranch. Owing to poor lights, Mr. Sheridan drove the car off of a bridge near the Klkenny sheep shed, and when the car plunged over the bank, Mr. Sheridan was badly cut about the neck and face when he fell against the wind-shield.

Managers Noble of the Mt. Vernon Hot Springs was in Canyon on business Thursday. He stated that he was making arrangements for a big celebration at the Springs on the 4th. He is working on the program and will make it just as attractive as possible. By that time he expects to have the hotel and grounds illuminated by electricity. The power plant will be installed within the coming two weeks.—Canyon Blue Mountain Eagle.

G. M. Allyn, Lexington garage man who was in Heppner Sunday, says he had a near-fire at his home one day last week. A live spark from the passing locomotive on the Heppner branch line landed in some blankets on a bed in the corner of the Allyn yard near the woodshed and was discovered just in time. Gus Witcox reports that a fire started in the grass in much the same manner at his ranch and it was discovered before it had reached his barn. Since the railroad company resumed the use of coal for fuel, the danger from fire has been prevalent.

FOR SALE—Sixteen-foot Holt Combine in good condition. Price reasonable. Inquire Gazette-Times office.

Arthur Parker, who formerly lived at Parkers Mill, came over from Monument last week to transact business.

Mrs. Riels of Irrigon was in Heppner this week, coming over to attend the hearing which was held for J. L. Straighter and sons.

County Agent F. R. Brown was a visitor in Condon a week ago Sunday, conferring with J. C. Hawkins, the Gilliam county agent.

Dr. J. L. Caloway, who has taken over Dr. Purkey's practice, returned from Portland Tuesday. He will assume his duties immediately.

S. W. Spencer, cashier of the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank of this city, went to Bend this morning on a brief business visit.

Ed Day, former Morrow county sheepman, came up from his home at St. Johns Sunday to spend a few days here looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Seaman and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Doble of Irrigon spent a few days in Heppner this week, coming over to give evidence in a case before Judge Cornett in the Justice court.

J. A. Adams of Hardman was in the city on business Friday. He was accompanied by his son, who recently returned from Corvallis where he had been attending the Oregon Agricultural College.

Stacy Roberts has sold his Hardman property to Mrs. Mitt Leathers. The house on this property was recently destroyed by fire, but it is understood that Mrs. Leathers will build a new one.

Time flies. There are but a few remaining days and then the Gazette-Times goes to $2.00 per year. One of our subscribers, Mrs. Ed Hunt came in and took five years at the present rate. She saved money.

Emmett Hughes, son of Matt Hughes of south of this city, arrived in Heppner last Friday from Corvallis, where he has been a student at the Oregon Agricultural College. Mr. Hughes is taking a course in pharmacy at the college.

P. G. Farley, who has been in the hospital for several months, is now on the road to recovery and expects to be able to leave the Heppner Sanatorium before many days. He spent two months in the Portland Surgical hospital receiving treatments.

Frank Roberts is spending the week in Condon.

Henry Cohn is a business visitor in Portland during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor of Ione spent Sunday with relatives in Heppner.

Walter Kleup of Jones Canyon was transacting business in Heppner Wednesday.

WANTED—Woman to do general house work. Wages $1.00 per day. Inquire at this office.

Jas. Thomas and J. S. Devine, farmers of the Lexington section, were Heppner visitors on Wednesday.

Mrs. Blanche Watkins, Miss Opal Briggs and Miss Martina Thiele are assisting Mrs. Shurte in the work of correcting and marking eighth grade examination papers.

Clarence, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carmichael of Lexington, underwent a successful operation for appendicitis at the Heppner sanatorium last Monday morning. His condition is improving rapidly.

Steady Power

The Gasoline of Quality

A continuous, uniform chain of boiling points makes "Red Crown" dependable. No "mixture" can give the same satisfactory results. Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

National and Local Meat Business

The meat business of the country is conducted by various agencies—

By small slaughter-houses in villages—

By local Abattoirs or small Packing Houses in towns—

both

Using only a part of the local live stock supply

and

Furnishing only a part of the local demand for meat.

These slaughtering and distributing agencies fill a well defined but necessarily restricted place in the distribution of the products of live stock.

But only packers like Swift & Company, organized on a national scale, are able to undertake the service that is more vitally important, involving

An Obligation to the Producer
To purchase for spot cash all the live stock the producer may send to market for slaughter.

An Obligation to the Consumer
To make available to every consumer, everywhere, in variety and out, the full supply and season of meat products, of the highest standard that the market affords.

Year Book of interesting and instructive facts sent on request. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Illinois

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

The Price of Cotton is soaring Higher, ever Higher, but the Price of

Worthmore Waists and Welworth Blouses

STILL REMAINS THE SAME!

Before the War the Price of these Popular Garments were
$1.00 and $2.00

And they still remain at the same Price

Before the War these Garments were regarded as the best value that money could buy. They are still just as slightly and just as serviceable.

The price of cotton and cotton fabrics has advanced excessively, reaching the highest figure since Civil War days and still their price remains the same.

Highest in Quality - Lowest in Price - Style the Latest and Best. Sold here only.

MINOR & COMPANY