HEPPNER' SECOND FIRE

ance on lodging house. The plant of Heppner Herald is total loss, and S. A. Pattison, owner, is sufferer on this account to the extent of $1800, nothing being saved except his account books. Ed Buckman was running the lodging house and had a loss of $2000 with $1000 insurance. The Ayers estate loss here was covered by $1500 insurance.

Mrs. E. F. Campbell residence with most of its contents. Loss, $2500; insurance $1400.

J. G. Thomson, residence and garage, with contents, $5500; insurance $1900. But very few household articles were saved.

Louis Groshens residence with all contents. Loss $3500, no insurance so we understand.

T. Quid estate, residence and office building, $2500. Some insurance. Residence occupied by Mrs. Mattie Adkins whose household effects were practically all destroyed. Her loss is $1500 and no insurance. The office building was unoccupied.

Willis Stewart, livery barn; loss $3000 and no insurance. Most all the contents were moved out and saved. Mr. Stewart not losing more than $200 from this source.

E. M. Shutt, building occupied by himself and M. J. Bradford. Mr. Shutt's loss, $800, no insurance. Mr. Bradford's loss, $400, with $200 insurance.

O. B. Hotman occupied one of the small buildings in this block belonging to Vic Groshens. All his household effects were destroyed and he had no insurance. Loss $600. Allan McFerrin and family lived in another one of the buildings and all they had was destroyed.

Eliza Ayers estate residence on corner of August and Main streets, occupied by S. A. Pattison and family. Building and all contents burned. Loss of building, $1500 with $800 insurance. Mr. Pattison's loss here is fully $1500 and no insurance.

Borg estate, residence and garage, occupied by Oscar Borg. Loss to estate of $3500, with $1200 insurance. Loss of contents to Oscar Borg, $3,500 covered by $1500 insurance.

M. L. Cantwell, residence and contents, total loss of $3000.

G. W. Thompson residence, occupied by E. R. Merritt. Loss of residence covered by insurance of $800. All contents, except piano, destroyed. Mr. Merritt's loss around $600.

Arthur McAtee residence. Most of contents saved. Loss $1500 with some insurance.

M. E. Church, South, parsonage and church building. Loss $6000. Insurance $2300. Residence occupied by Ed Adkins, most of contents saved.

Miss Lulu Hager, residence. Loss $3500, covered by $2000 of insurance. Contents mostly saved.

The Dr. McMurdo residence now stands as the only building in this entire block and it escaped injury. The garage was partially burned.

On the west side of Main street the Dennis McNamee corner was swept out, with a complete loss to Mr. McNamee of $3000. He carried no insurance.

J. B. Natter was cleaned up on a row of four small buildings and suffered a loss of $2000, besides the destruction of most of his fine shade trees. His residence escaped.

The Star Brewery building, formerly owned by Mr. Natter, was licked up at a loss of $1500. This building was occupied by the Red Cross who had a lot of goods on hand, the most of which had been made up. Whatever their loss was is partially covered by $1000 of insurance.

The old Mountain House, owned by Phill Fairbanks. Loss $1500.

Residence of Mrs. McCraw, completely destroyed with contents. Loss $3000. Insurance $800.

Mack Smith residence and all contents. Loss $2500.

Residence occupied by Bert Kramer and family. Building owned by I. N. Harris of Grant county. Loss $1000. Contents entire loss to Mr. Kramer of $700.

Residence and contents of Mrs. Blanche Watkins. Loss $2000.

Heppner Light & Water Co. destruction of fuel, garage, well boring outfit and large quantity of wire and poles. Aggregate loss around $10,000. Partially insured.

The First National Bank suffered a loss of $500 to plate glass windows. The Heppner estate, $800 and Thomson Bros., $600. All the plate glass fronts in these buildings were broken out by the heat. M. L. Case suffered no loss in his building but had some $1200 worth of furniture destroyed that was out on installment payments. A large portion of this was in the Palace hotel.

Other losses that we have not been able to list in detail will probably aggregate $2500, making this by far the most destructive fire in the history of Heppner.

While there has been no definite announcements on the part of the fire sufferers as to what they will do toward rebuilding, we feel that it can safely be said that the most of them will construct new homes and the burnt district will shortly be rehabilitated with modern structures, making Heppner a far more beautiful and substantial city.

CARD OF THANKS.

The good people of Heppner all have our thanks for their assistance and help during the fire. The most of our goods were saved from the flames and the kindly expressions of sympathy shall always be remembered.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR McATEE.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the people of Heppner for the assistance and help that we have received at their hands. It sure makes one feel that it is a good community to live in.

MR. AND MRS. W. H. HERREN.

I would kindly request that all those who were owing me on account of board and room rent at the time of the fire, will now settle up. I have many adjustments to make and need all that is coming, and need it promptly. Will you assist me.

PALACE HOTEL CO.
J. L. Wilkins, Manager.

Will Go To The Hills. M. J. Bradford, the painter, has come to the conclusion that he is somewhat of a hoo doo. In the fire of a month ago he suffered the loss of his paint shop, and had not much more than got set up again in the Shutt building on upper Main street when the big fire came along on the Fourth and cleaned him out. He thinks now of locating his shop on one of the high hills about Heppner and out of reach of every building of the town, where he can't burn anybody else or be consumed himself. Good idea, Brad, but you want to look out for the rain.

J. L. Wilkins got home from the East on Wednesday evening, in answer to a dispatch informing him of the destruction of the Palace hotel. Mr. Wilkins was hard hit by the fire and has not had time to gather himself together yet and plan for the future.

Sheep To Idaho.
L. V. Gentry disposed of six cars of yearling wethers the past week to Austin L. Martin of Yakima. Mr. Martin loaded the sheep at the Heppner yards on Thursday morning last and they were taken to Idaho for summer range on the reserve in the northern part of the state and near the Montana line.

Gets Arm Broken.
Mrs. C. R. Pointer, of Lexington, is suffering the fracture of her right arm between the wrist and elbow, the result of a kick back while cranking her car on Wednesday last. Dr. Chick of Ione was called and reduced the fracture and Mrs. Pointer is now getting along nicely.

S. P. Honnewalt, representative of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. had a room in the Palace hotel the day of the fire and came near getting caught in the building. He made his escape by sliding down the fire hose from one of the upper story windows. He is still a live insurance agent.

CRENSHAW-MAIDMENT
Two young people who have spent their lives in this county, and whose families are both respected pioneer ones were united in marriage at the home of Mrs. Sarah Scott at Lone-rock on Wednesday, when Miss Ethel Maidment became the bride of Perry Crenshaw. Miss Maidment is the daughter of John Maidment, county commissioner, and is beloved and admired by numerous friends. The groom is a son of Jay Crenshaw of Lone-rock, and is an ambitious and industrious young man. The young people will make their home at Lone-rock.—Condon Times

Editor Pattison of the Herald is getting his paper out this week on the plant of the Independent at Ione. L. W. Charles, recently editor of the Independent has gone to Junction City to take charge of a paper, thus leaving Ione without a newspaper man. To fill in for the time being, Mr. Pattison will also issue the Independent until some party can be engaged to keep the paper going.

Dr. Turner, eye specialist, of Portland, will be in Heppner again Saturday, July 20th. In Ione Friday, July 19th.

Fred Ashbaugh was a visitor in the city today from his mill at Toll Rock.
