

Town and Country.

Glenn Hayes was in from his Rhea creek ranch Wednesday.

Rufus Cochran and family were visitors in Heppner from Ione on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Connell were visitors in Heppner this week from their Rhea creek ranch.

C. B. Sperry, accompanied by his son-in-law, Mose Gamble, was in Heppner Saturday from Ione.

Charles Osmirn was in town on business Wednesday from the home place a few miles above town.

L. E. Bisbee and family and C. C. Patterson and daughter, Miss Mary, spent Sunday at Ditch creek prairie.

John L. Jenkins was over from Boardman on Saturday attending to some business in the county seat.

Cashier W. P. Mahoney of the First National Bank is in Portland this week on business and pleasure combined.

Those having knitting needles belonging to the Red Cross, and are not using them, are requested to return them to the Chapter.

H. A. Emry recently of Boardman, is contemplating going into business in Heppner, associating himself with A. Z. Barnard in the transfer business.

Miss Lera Githens departed Tuesday morning for Morgan, where she will visit for a week or ten days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Woodson.

A. Henriksen and son, of Cecil were in Heppner on Saturday on their way to the mountain ranch, where Mr. H. is fattening off a fine bunch of cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor of Ione passed through Heppner Monday on their way to the mountains, where they will spend a few days in the shade of the pines.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sharp of Wheeler county came over to attend the funeral of Glenn Sharp on Friday. Mr. Sharp is a brother of Clint Sharp of this place.

Roy Neill was in from Butter creek Saturday and reports lots of dry weather out his way. Work of putting up the hay crop has progressed well and alfalfa is a good yield.

Mrs. Cyrus Aiken is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Aiken in Heppner. She will be joined later on by her husband, who will make a visit of a few weeks at the home of his parents.

Miss Lena Hughes is sick at the Heppner Sanatorium, suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. Miss Hughes but recently returned from Monmouth where she has been attending the State Normal the past year.

Bob Carsner telegraphs the First National Bank that he has reached Chicago with his big shipment of cattle and found the market very satisfactory. From this we take it that Mr. Carsner did well in the disposition of the stock.

Jas. Murtha, prominent Gilliam county sheep man, was in Heppner on Monday from his Rock creek ranch. Mr. Murtha formerly engaged in the sheep business in this county before taking over the Blake ranch in Gilliam county a few years ago.

A. G. Long, dealer in fire fighting equipment, is up from Portland this week and entered into a contract with the City of Heppner to furnish its fire department with a new auto fire truck. The new equipment will be coming along within a very short time.

Mrs. N. A. Clark returned home on Sunday from Illinois. She has been absent for the past two months at the home of her father, P. D. Kibler, at Montrose, who has been very ill. At the time of leaving, however, Mr. Kibler was much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farnsworth of Fox, Oregon, were in town Wednesday. Mr. Farnsworth says that the hay crop in his part of the country is very light this year and it may be necessary to bring his sheep to the Willow creek valley for the winter months.

W. Prewitt Cox departed this morning by auto for Portland and Gresham. Mr. Cox goes below to claim Miss Nettie Currin as his bride, and for a honeymoon trip the young people will go on to Tacoma, Camp Lewis and Seattle, returning later by car to Heppner.

Harley Anderson, son of Theodore Anderson of Eight Mile is in town this week receiving treatment for a bad throat. A cold which had bothered him for some time settled in his throat, but under the care of a physician he is rapidly being straightened out.

Gay M. Anderson, deputy county clerk, left for Vancouver, Wash., on Monday for his vacation. Mr. Anderson will look up work in the shipyards while away and he may decide to accept a position with one of the big yards doing government work in that city.

Ben Yen returned from below Monday and says he is much improved in health. He spent some time at the coast and then visited various points where he consulted with physicians and is now taking treatment that is straightening him up in good shape.

John Sheridan got in from Sumpter Tuesday. He has been out in the mountains for the past month, having his sheep located over there. His range is mostly on logged off land and the grass is getting pretty badly dried up. The sheep have been doing well, however, up to the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barratt departed for the coast yesterday. They expected on leaving Heppner, to go to the beach at Rockaway, and Mr. Barratt has in contemplation the purchase of a cottage there and should he do this, the Barratts will figure on spending each summer at this popular resort.

Mrs. A. C. Wheeler and Mrs. L. H. Compton, sisters of J. C. Sharp of this place, arrived at Heppner on Friday evening to attend the funeral of little Glenn Sharp who suffered accidental death at the Sharp home in Newman Canyon on Wednesday last. Mrs. Compton went on to Boise from here to visit other relatives.

Martin Reid has secured the agency at Heppner for the Garford truck and has one of the machines on exhibition here. He is contemplating putting this machine on the road to bring lumber to town from Reid's mill. He has been forced to do this from the fact that it is almost impossible to get men and teams for the work.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo and wife returned on Friday from an extended auto trip which took them as far north as Sardis, B. C., where they enjoyed a short stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Storey. They also visited Seattle and other Sound cities, and Dr. McMurdo attended the medical convention in Portland. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Prof. D. W. Boltrott and family arrived at Heppner on Monday forenoon from Eugene. Prof. Boltrott has been attending the sessions of the summer school at the University of Oregon for the past six weeks. He will now make arrangements to set up housekeeping in Heppner and prepare for the opening of school here, which will be on the 23rd of September.

J. S. Buesick and son are over from Blue Mountain Springs for a day or two. Mr. Buesick has not decided to go into the sheep business again and thinks he will wait until the war is over before venturing as it is next to impossible now for a man to get help of any kind. Men are leaving the ranches in Grant county to take up work in the chrome mines near Prairie and Canyon City, where very attractive wages are being paid.

Miss Sue Dustin and Miss Winnifred Roe, two teachers of the Monument school, arrived in Heppner Monday from Monmouth, where they have been attending the summer school and further preparing themselves for their work. Miss Dustin has charge of the primary department in the Monument school and during her stay in Heppner was a guest at the home of Mr. and Frank Turner. Miss Roe was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sprouts.

Vawter Crawford, editor of this paper, left yesterday for Portland, and from there will join other editors of the state for a trip to Coos Bay, where the meeting of the State Editorial Association will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. This promises to be one of the most interesting and profitable meetings of the Association yet held, and the people of the Coos Bay country are arranging royal entertainment for Oregon's pencil pushers. One important feature of the entertainment will be a reception tendered the entire delegation at the palatial home of L. J. Simpson at Shoreacres on the bluff overlooking the broad Pacific. And for a royal entertainer, Louis J. Simpson does not have to take second place to any citizen of the state.

A 10-20 and 12-25 Case Gas Tractor, guaranteed to be in good condition, for sale by Vaughn & Sons, Heppner.

What about houses in Heppner to care for those who will be coming to town when school opens. Not a house to be had now and the demand will grow rapidly in a very few weeks. Prof. Boltrott, the superintendent of the schools is now in town and all this week has been searching for even a part of a house into which he and his wife and one child might move but has not succeeded so far in finding a place. The school should be built up and there is urgent need for residences to rent. The situation was bad before the fire came and now it is of course much worse on that account. Can't something be done to relieve the situation, or will these people have to live in tents?

Ben Yen, proprietor of the Elkhorn restaurant, departed yesterday morning for San Francisco where he will board a ship bound for China. Ben said he would be gone for six months or more, and intimated to some friends that he very likely would not return alone.

Even Small Deposits are invited

We encourage them because large accounts begin in a small way.

The small deposit of today becomes the large one in the future.

More people would become depositors if they realized what an aid to the upbuilding of credit and success an account with a strong bank can be.
