

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

A 10-20 and 12-25 Case Gas Tractor, guaranteed to be in good condition, for sale by Vaughn & Sons, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pettijohn left Heppner Tuesday morning for Missouri, where they will make their home in the future.

Lee Cantwell has purchased the Cecil Humphreys residence in the south end of town and is now settled there. This house has been occupied by E. M. Shutt.

W. L. Barlow, Fairview farmer, was transacting business in Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Barlow just recently received a letter from his son, Floyd L., who has been confined in the hospital at Camp Lewis for several months. After having been operated upon several times, Floyd is now recovering rapidly and will soon be able to get into training again. Before taking sick Floyd had passed all tests for a machine gunner.

Mrs. Silas Christofferson and Mrs. J. H. Cook passed through Heppner Saturday on their way to Denver. They will return to Portland by way of California, and are touring the country in the interest of the Marine Corps. Mrs. Christofferson is the wife of Silas Christofferson, the famous aviator, and has been in Heppner before, having accompanied her husband here five years ago when he entertained the Morrow County Fair crowds with his aeroplane stunts.

Gay M. Anderson, for he past four years deputy county clerk of Morrow county, has resigned his position and gone to Portland, where he has secured a job in North Portland. Mrs. Anderson and the children will leave to join him Saturday. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson here are very sorry to see them leave Heppner, and wish for them all the luck and prosperity possible in their new location.

Onis Parker, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, who farm above Heppner, was rather painfully injured last Saturday when a pony he was riding stepped in a badger hole. The boy was thrown off and the horse stepped on him, one hoof striking him over one eye. He was brought to the Heppner Sanatorium for treatment and is now reported to be getting along nicely. It is thought that the sight of the injured boy will not be affected.

Mrs. T. S. Handsaker, wife of Rev. T. S. Handsaker, formerly pastor of the First Christian Church of this town, was a pleasant visitor in Heppner over the week-end. Mrs. Handsaker, who was accompanied by her small son, Jean, was on her way from Walla Walla to Eugene, where she will join Mr. Handsaker. She had been spending several weeks at Walla Walla where she was called on account of the serious illness of her father. A reception was given her Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Humphreys, and Sunday evening Mrs. Handsaker addressed an audience at the Christian Church. The Handsakers are now located at San Diego, Cal., and are very well pleased with their work there. They will spend the month of August at Eugene where Mr. Handsaker's parents live.

Footprints Lead to Arrest.
The incendiary fires that have been keeping the people of Mayville and vicinity in a state of excitement for the past couple of weeks came to a climax on Saturday night when a big stack of barley, the property of Lee Butler, a farmer in the Greasewood country, went up in flames.

On receiving the alarm the State Police were quickly on the scene and with Sheriff Kelsay of Wheeler county, arrested two young men named Streece and lodged them in jail in Fossil. Sheriff Lilly, District Attorney Weinke and C. N. Laughrider were also present and the officers and Police have some very strong circumstantial evidence against one of the boys, quite enough to cause the committing magistrate to bind him over to the grand jury in the sum of $1000. This was secured by the boy's father and he was released. The second boy was also released without bonds.

The evidence for the prosecution will consist of a marked discrepancy in time, according to questions answered by the accused, also tracks round the stack and leading up to it. These tracks correspond with the shoes worn by the young man especially as to the nails and one that had a patch on the sole.

DAUGHTER OR MOTHER
Can you imagine a woman who was spending her last dollar to impress an American millionaire, and who had him hanging on the ropes, as it were, rolling a proposal around on his tongue, being interrupted in this most important moment of her whole life by the entrance of her seventeen-year-old daughter? That's just what happened to the mother in "A Mother's Secret," which will be seen for the first time on Sunday and Monday at the Star Theatre. And that seventeen-year-old daughter was the mother's secret. The millionaire thought it was a mighty fine secret, too, and he began to pay almost as much attention to the daughter as to the mother, only he brought the mother roses and the daughter toys. For mother was wise. "You would not think I was the mother of a thirteen-year-old daughter, now, would you?" And the daughter was the only one who kicked on the thirteen. For she was half in love with the millionaire herself. So you see, there is some situation to "A Mother's Secret."

HE COULD NOT GET AWAY FROM DRINK
Wherever he turned liquor was for sale. This is the situation Dick Rosson found in the Triangle play, "A Case at Law," at the Star Theatre on Tuesday, August 20.
Jimmy Baggs, newspaper reporter, was a good boy; he tried his best to make good but his inherited taste for liquor held him down. He lost one job after another, always because of his ever predominant desire for drink. How Jimmy finally realized the folly of his ways and overcomes his inherited taint, is the interesting story of "A Case at Law," featuring Dick Rosson and Pauline Curley.

R. J. Carsner, Wheeler and Morrow county stockman, was a business visitor in Heppner Wednesday.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE
One of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Heppner man is confirmed after six years. J. H. Cox, carpenter, Baltimore St., says: "When I catch the least cold, I suffer from pain in my back. At times it has been so bad I simply couldn't move and have had to stay in bed for a week or ten days. I have used a great many medicines, but Doan's Kidney Pills have done me more good than anything else I haven't had an attack of this trouble for some time."

Over six years later Mr. Cox said: "It has been a long time since I have had any occasion to take a kidney medicine. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a good reliable medicine for backache and kidney disorders." 50c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
