

Town and Country.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans and son were Saturday visitors in Heppner from Lexington.

D. E. Gilman departed Tuesday for the Monument section where he has business interests.

Emmet Cochran, retired stockman of Grant county, has been spending the past week at Heppner, coming up from his home in Portland.

J. L. Wilkins and family left the first of the week for Arlington, where they expect to remain for a time, or until they find a suitable location, having decided not to go to Hot Lake as heretofore announced.

Mrs. Roy Cochran arrived from Seattle on Sunday and has accepted a place in the postoffice as head clerk. Mr. Cochran is located in army service at Seattle, where he expects to be for some time.

Mearl and Roy Blake, well known boys and prominent there in high school athletics for several years, were in Heppner the last of the week. Mearl is a member of the Students' Army Training Corps at Eugene and is returning there to take up his work for the coming year.

D. S. Barlow, Eight Mile wheat-raiser was a busy man about town yesterday.

Walter Kilcup, stockman of Jones Canyon, was doing business at the court house yesterday.

W. W. Howard, of Butter creek, was among the people of that section in Heppner Wednesday.

Born—Monday, Sept. 30, to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gillespie, a girl. Dr. N. E. Winnard, attending.

Dry slabwood to BURN. 4 foot lengths per cord, $1.00. 16 inch per cord, $1.25. PARKERS MILL.

L. P. Davidson, capitalist and farmer of Ione, was doing a little business at the sheriff's office yesterday, settling up his tax account.

G. W. Verdot and wife left on Tuesday on their journey to Arkansas. They go by auto and expect to be six weeks or two months on the way.

Pelix Johnson was over from Range, Oregon for a few days visit with Heppner relatives the past week. He was accompanied by his family.

LOST—On Sunday evening, between Slocum's mill and Heppner, pair of truck chains. Finder please notify E. A. ZOCHERT, Lexington, Oregon.

W. C. Lacey, former Heppnerite, came up from his Portland home Tuesday and will spend a few days in this locality looking after his interests.

Earl W. Gordon left for Portland Thursday last and this week will enter school again at North Pacific Medical College, where he is taking the course in pharmacy.

Jake Bowman, of Lower Butter creek was a new name added to the Gazette-Times list this week. Mr. Bowman is running the Wattenburg place just below Pine City.

Nels H. Justus and J. F. Lucus returned Tuesday from Chicago, where they went with a shipment of sheep. They had a good trip and found the market satisfactory.

Roy Whites, local wheat buyer, purchased the big crop of Andy Rood the past week. Mr. Rood's wheat was largely Turkey red and he got a price of $2.12 for it through Mr. Whites' agency.

J. C. Ballinger, business man of Boardman, was in Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Ballinger is connected with the Boardman Lumber Co. and came to Heppner to have some matters fixed up in his questionnaire.

Paul Webb and Jos. M. Hayes returned Tuesday evening from their trip to Chicago. Mr. Webb made a shipment of two cars of sheep and reports having had a fine trip and a good time, though the sheep market was hardly up to his expectations.

Henry Cohn left this morning for Camp Fremont, Calif., where he will be inducted into the special limited service of the Army. Just where he will go from there will be announced later, when he has passed his examinations and receives his instructions.

W. M. Ayers was down from Hardman yesterday. This office acknowledges a short call from him wherein he took time to pay up on his subscription to the Gazette-Times and leave a nice little order for job work. For all of which we are duly thankful.

W. F. Barnett of Lexington was in Heppner a short time Tuesday morning on business. Mr. Barnett has finished up the seeding on his farm near Lexington and is now awaiting a good rain to bring the grain along. The ground was in fine condition for seeding.

Victor Carlson, prominent wheat grower of Gooseberry, was doing business in Heppner on Tuesday evening. Mr. Carlson states that there will be a large amount of fall sowing in his section and conditions of ground and climate were never better than at this time.

Carl Bergstrom of Ione, was a new subscriber added to our list this week. Carl is one of the prosperous young farmers of the Gooseberry section. For a few years past he has been engaged in wheat raising with his father, Erik Bergstrom, but now has the Frank Holmes place and is living there.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Huston, of Dufer, Oregon, are visiting this week at the home of Luther Huston in Heppner, and with their son, Silvia Huston, of Eight Mile. Some 25 years ago, Mr. Huston was a farmer of the Eight Mile section and was connected with the early history of that part of the county.

T. J. Merrill was a visitor in Heppner from his home near Monument on Friday, coming over with M. E. Weatherford. Mr. Merrill has been engaged in the stock business at Monument for a number of years, going there from Hardman. He had thought some of disposing of his Grant county ranch and stock business and moving to some point in the Willamette valley, but a visit there this summer convinced him that he was just as well situated under present conditions, so he has withdrawn his place on the John Day from sale.
