Eli Carpenter spent several days in Heppner the past week, taking treatment from Dr. Calloway. He has been suffering a protracted spell of lumbago and thought a little osteopathic treatment would prove beneficial. Mr. Carpenter returned to Arlington the first of the week.

Believing the motto "Make Heppner the Dahlia City" Mayor Smead's beautiful garden of dahlias is still blooming in the open, and those who pass by his place are struck with the beauty of display there. Should the frost hold off long enough, he will have a fine display even after the election has passed.

W. R. Irwin and son, Stephen came home from Eugene on Tuesday. Stephen put in a couple of weeks tussling with the Spanish influenza and fighting off pneumonia in a Eugene hospital and now seems to be entirely recovered. He is a little weak yet from the experience but is able to be about the streets. The many friends of Stephen in Heppner are glad to greet him again and know that he is quite fully restored to health.

Teddy Young got home the first of the week from the East. He has been "seeing America" this summer and spent several months in various parts of the country along the Atlantic seaboard. He took in many of the principal cities and comes home quite enriched in experience and knowledge gained while running about. Ted is glad to be back to Heppner and thankful that he got through on the trip without encountering an attack of the flu, which epidemic was raging through most of the eastern part of the country while he was there.

Merril Perry was taken to the pest house on Monday where he is now being cared for as a small pox patient. He was rooming at the Barnard rooming house when he broke out, having been sick for a few days before. At this time he is reported to be getting along as well as could be expected.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

Because It's For One Thing Only, and Heppner People Appreciate This.

Nothing can be good for everything.

Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for one thing only.

For weak or disordered kidneys. Here is Heppner evidence to prove their worth.

J. C. Ball, retired farmer, says: "It has been several years since I have had occasion to take Doan's Kidney Pills, but speaking from past experience, I can conscientiously say they are a splendid medicine for backache and kidney disorders."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ball had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"NO CIVILIZATION EVER RISES ABOVE THE LEVEL OF ITS HOMES" and no home rises above the level of its reading. The Youth's Companion introduces the whole family to the best writers of the day—those who contribute the things that make better minds and happier homes. "No other publication would appeal to me at this time" tells the exact story of the hopefulness and entertainment and information and suggestion and economy that The Companion gives each week in the year. Every age is liberally provided for, every wholesome interest encouraged. Serials, Short Stories, Rare Articles, Digest of the War News, Special Pages and Exceptional Editorials. It is true that your family needs The Companion the coming year. They deserve it with all its help. It takes the variety of many papers, so great is its variety—and at the price of one. Still $2.00 a year, 52 issues.

Don't miss Grace Richmond's great serial, Anne Exeter, 10 chapters, beginning December 12.

The following special offer is made to new subscribers:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues of 1919.
 2. All the remaining weekly issues of 1918.
 3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1919.
- All the above for only $2.00, or you may include
4. McCall's Magazine—12 fashion numbers. All for only $2.50. The two magazines may be sent to separate addressees if desired.
