Passengers carried to all points Heppner. General jitney business to outside towns. O. M. WHITTINGTON.

Bert Stone is able to be around again after a two weeks tussle with tonsillitis. His sickness trimmed him down a lot.

W. Prewitt Cox, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, is confined at his home this week, being a victim of the flu.

EVERY AUTO OWNER should have a Peterson Tire Welder. Sold by W. W. SHAMHART at the Verdor Second Hand Store. 4-t pd

Kenneth Mahoney, bookkeeper at the First National, is on the sick list this week. His trouble seems to be an attack of Spanish influenza.

H. E. Storm, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner is back on the job this week, after having had a tussle with the flu.

Attorney F. H. Robinson was in the city Monday to attend the opening of Circuit Court and take care of some cases he was interested in.

Miss Ruby Corrigan, bookkeeper in the First National Bank, is numbered among those who are laid up this week with the Spanish influenza. She is having it in a mild form.

Mrs. Mary Bartholomew is having some extensive concrete work done at her residence. A retaining wall is being put in and also new walks. The wall will protect the property from high water.

Jimmy Cowins returned home Sunday from Camp Fremont, Calif., where he has been stationed since being inducted into the service. He received his discharge, owing to his leg going bad on him.

H. C. Ashbaugh is preparing to open a butcher shop in the small building next door to his blacksmith shop. The tools and equipment are on the ground and the building is being put in shape to receive them.

R. L. Bengtson has added to his holdings in Six Dollar canyon by the purchase of the Ralph Scott place of 600 acres. The consideration was $12,000, and this purchase gives Mr. Bengtson a fine bunch of wheat land in that locality.

Numerous new cases of the Spanish flu are reported this week, and it would seem that the epidemic is not going to stop until it has got us all. It seems to be light here, however, and so far our people have not been as sick as at other points.

Mrs. Dick Wells states that the last word received from her husband was to the effect that he is still at Camp Mills, Long Island but expecting to sail at any time. The new order of things may alter the program and a lot of the boys will not have to go over.

H. A. Duncan, popular clerk at Thomson Bros., was a pleasant caller at this office early this morning, and left a deposit for this family weekly. This in response to our kindly invitation which he had just received in the mails. He makes us glad and we are all tuned up to receive a few hundred such calls.

L. W. Holmes, manager of Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. at Lexington, was in Heppner this morning for a short time. Mr. Holmes has an announcement in this issue regarding the lifting of the ban on building operations that should be of interest to all those who contemplate putting up new houses and barns.

C. B. Sperry, warehouseman of Ione, visited Heppner on Monday. Mr. Sperry reports that the Ione section has a few cases of influenza but that in the main they are very light. The family of E. J. Bristow are all sick with the epidemic but were expected to recover in due course of time.

Numerous parties were out in Juniper canyon from Heppner on Sunday, rabbit shooting. The black-tails are very thick down that way this season and there is good sport offered in shooting them, beside they make fine chicken feed and some of our local poultrymen gather them in for this purpose.

Tom Craig, farmer of the North Ione section was doing business in Heppner today and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Craig states that this has been a fine fall for work in his locality and grain is coming along fine, giving promise of a splendid yield the coming season.

The Emergency Hospital is ready at all times to take patients who have influenza. Trained nurses and help are employed to see that proper care is given the sick. It is under the management of the Morrow County Chapter of the Red Cross, who will gladly take care of all who come.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Payne from Upper Butter Creek were here the first of the week visiting at the home of their son, H. L. Payne, now owner of the Isaac Jay place east of town. Another son, C. B. Payne of Heppner, was also here, and like his parents looked over the project with a view to locating later.—Hermiston Herald.

A. E. Scott exhibited some very fine potatoes in town today that were raised on the place of Ralph Scott in Six Dollar canyon. There were four of them and Mr. Scott says he was offered 30 cents for the lot. They would weigh about 14 pounds. He also had a few vines on which were growing fully developed spuds, there not being room in the ground for them. Mr. Scott says he has about 100 sacks of these dry land potatoes.

Arch Cox came in from Weiser, Idaho, last Sunday evening and remained over Monday, looking after business affairs here. Mr. Cox is engaged in the stock business in Idaho, his postoffice address being Brownlee, Oregon. He and Mrs. Cox have just recovered from the Spanish flu and Arch says they have had plenty of the epidemic in their part of the country. He returned home Tuesday.
