

Three Weeks Till Christmas

LETS BE THANKFUL that the war is over, that right has triumphed over might. Let us all give of our abundance to spread the message of good cheer throughout the land as a fitting token of the deep gratitude we all feel for the return of Peace.

All restrictions as to Christmas giving have been withdrawn.

Uncle Sam Says: "GO THE LIMIT"

You will find all departments of our store well supplied with appropriate and seasonable stocks

DRY GOODS

IVORY WARE OF ALL SORTS

LEATHER GOODS—PURSES, ETC.

COMFY SLIPPERS AND KIMONAS

SILK DRESS AND WAIST PATTERNS

TOYS OF ALL SORTS FOR THE CHILDREN

MEN'S WEAR

SAFETY RAZORS AND TOILET SETS

SHIRTS AND NECKWEAR

BATH ROBES AND SLIPPERS

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

CLOTHES AND HAT BRUSHES

GROCERIES

APPLES AND ORANGES

FRUITS AND SPICES

PICKLES AND PRESERVES

NUTS AND CANDIES

EVERYTHING FOR THE TABLE

Come and See Us

MINOR & COMPANY -:- HEPPNER, OREGON

Town and Country.

Frank Engelman, business man of Ione, was in Heppner a few hours on Wednesday.

E. H. Turner, who farms a large tract of land near Ione, was in Heppner on Tuesday.

J. H. Wyland, leading sheepman of the Hardman section, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday.

County Agent Brown returned on Sunday from a short visit with his family at Spokane the past week.

Jack Hynd, extensive sheep owner and alfalfa raiser of Cecil, was doing business in the county seat on Friday last.

Walter S. Smith, realty dealer of Ione, was in Heppner for a short time on Saturday looking after business affairs.

L. P. Davidson and Joe Woods were in Heppner yesterday from Ione. Mr. Woods runs the Davidson ranch at Gooseberry.

Henry Schwarz wants your poultry and livestock. Will take same dressed or alive, and pay cash. Get him over Ione, 636, Heppner.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys left for Portland Monday and will be absent during the week attending a business meeting of the state C. W. B. M.

Everett Logan, an alfalfa raiser of lower Willow creek, was doing business in Heppner on Monday, making arrangements to dispose of some of his surplus hay.

F. R. Brown, county agent, expects his family to arrive from Spokane on Sunday and they will take up their abode in Heppner for the winter.

J. L. Wilkins writes this paper from Butte, Mont. that he is now located in that city and is with the Finlen Hotel. Mr. Wilkins just recently went to Butte.

County Superintendent Shurte announces that the regular examination for teachers will be held at the court house in Heppner, beginning on Wednesday forenoon, December 18th.

Matt Hughes made a shipment of cattle and sheep to Portland the past week. He did not find the market as brisk as it had been as the yards were pretty well overstocked when he arrived.

F. A. Andrews, pastor of the Christian church, departed for Portland to be absent during the week, attending a business meeting of representatives of the church from over the state.

Mrs. Jos. J. Nys is spending the week visiting in Portland and Salem.

M. B. Haines, popular hotel man of Ione, was doing business in Heppner Tuesday.

Ralph Hymer, business man of Ione was a visitor in this town on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Furlong of Eight Mile, were Monday visitors in Heppner. We acknowledge a pleasant call from Charley.

Guy Cason and wife were up from their Ione home on Thanksgiving and ate turkey dinner with the W. C. Cason family of Heppner.

Hon. H. V. Gates, president of Heppner Light & Water Co., is in Heppner this week on business connected with his interests in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Padberg, extensive farmers of the Heppner Flat country, were visitors in Heppner Monday and made this office a pleasant call.

A. W. Gammell, who farms a part of the fertile Lexington country, was doing business in Heppner Saturday and made this office a short, but substantial call.

Miss Cecil Stephens and her mother, from Hardman, have been quite sick for several days. Her mother came in to care for her and was stricken also.

Helmer Pierce, representing the Remington Typewriter Co., with offices at Walla Walla, was in Heppner on Tuesday looking after the typewriter trade.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoy, of Monument at Heppner on Saturday, Nov. 30, and mother and child are reported to be getting along well.

Jeff and Frank Evans of Lexington were visitors in Heppner yesterday. These men now run an alfalfa farm just below Lexington, where they are building them a nice home.

W. W. Cryder, supervisor of the Umatilla forest reserve, came over from Pendleton on Saturday for an inspection of this end of his district. He went on out to Hardman, accompanied by Ranger Keithly of Heppner.

Frank Glinder, meat cutter at the Peoples Cash Market, was suddenly called by telegram to his home at Prosser on Monday. The message did not state what was the matter but Mr. Glinder rushed home immediately.

J. T. Knappenberg was down from Parkers Mill yesterday to look after business matters in Heppner.

Attorney S. E. VanVactor, accompanied by his stenographer, Miss Lucile Elder, spent Saturday last in Condon, where Mr. VanVactor was interested in an estate case. They returned to Heppner on Sunday.

George D. Fell arrived from Pendleton Tuesday afternoon, being accompanied by workmen who will proceed at once to put in a septic tank at the rear of the restaurant and Star theater property of which Mr. Fell is the owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Roberts returned from a stay of six weeks at Chico, Calif. At the time of going to California, Mr. Roberts was not in good health but he returns now apparently fully recovered and glad to get back to Morrow county.

George Allyn was up from Lexington Tuesday afternoon with his young son who was suffering an injury to his hand, caused by being thrown from a bicycle. The lad had the hand dressed by a physician and the injury should be all healed in a short time.

Cecil Casper, connected with the United States Internal Revenue office at Portland, spent Sunday night in Heppner, visiting with his friend, F. A. McMenamin. Mr. Casper had been on official business to several different points in Eastern Oregon. He returned to Portland on Monday.

Al Troedson and Wid Palmateer, high muck-mucks of the Morgan section, were cavorting about Heppner Monday. These farmers have their fall seeding all done, and are now waiting for a little moisture that they may continue with the winter plowing.

John Kiehn, Ollie Forbes and Walt Puyear were an Ione auto party in Heppner on Monday. Mr. Kiehn was chauffeur for the party, and had the misfortune to get mixed up with the speed cop and was called on to make a fifteen dollar donation to the city treasury. Hardly the proper reception for out-of-town visitors.

Andrew Reaney was in Heppner for a short time on Saturday from his home at Lexington. Mr. Reaney states that there was six members of his family sick with the flu at the same time, and some of them were good and sick, too. He was among the number and had all of it he wanted. He is glad to report that they all came through in good shape and are now fully recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Henriksen and son Clifford were in Heppner Saturday last from their home at Cecil.

Whatever your plans are for Christmas buying you will find nothing as acceptable as a gift of a nice Diamond Ring, Bar Pin, Lavalier, Scarf Pin, Watch; in fact anything in the Jewellery line.

Our stock is also most complete in the following:

Sterling Silver and Community Plated Ware.

Libby Cut Glass. Hand Painted China.

Umbrellas. Nut Bowls. Fountain Pens.

Let us help you make your selection.

Oscar Borg

Jeweler & Optometrist.