

The Lyceum's Favorite Entertainers The Ward Waters Company

MUSIC :- READINGS

This, the first number of Heppner's Lyceum Course, is one of extraordinary merit.

The Ward Waters Company presents to the public a program of unusual interest and originality.

Edna Falk, the contralto soloist, is a very gifted young singer. Her voice is deep and rich and has that beautiful mellow quality seldom heard.

DRAMATIC SKETCHES

Mr. Waters as a character make-up artist ranks among the best of platform entertainers. His sketches are new and original. With Mrs. Waters he will do some whistling duets, and the company will give a little dramatic play whenever desired. Their dramatic work is especially good, as Mrs. Waters has had several years' experience in stock companies. Her child impersonations are clever indeed.

R. C. HOLDS ELECTION

this year, the proof of membership being the signing of the Red Cross roll and the wearing of the 1919 button.

Red Cross leaders wish every wearer of a Red Cross 1919 button to ask every non-wearer: "Where's your button?"

There are over 248,000 Red Cross members in Oregon. Everyone, it is expected, will renew membership, while it is hoped to add 1,000,000 new members.

But there will be no quotas issued. The aim is to enroll every adult. That means that the aim is in view for every city and town is at least one out of every three men, women and children in the community.

Wilbur E. Coman is state chairman for Oregon for the Red Cross Roll Call and Herman E. Witham, State Manager, Miss Getta Wesserman being Executive Secretary. Portland is inaugurating a novelty in the campaign by having an exclusive all-woman organization from the leaders down to the last worker.

Because of the campaign there will be no public sale of Christmas seals this year. Instead every Red Cross member will be given ten of the seals, while $2,500,000 will be given by the American Red Cross for the 1919 tuberculosis work of the National Tuberculosis association this being about the total of the sales of Christmas seals last year. This money will be spent toward the eradication of tuberculosis.

President Wilson has sounded the keynote of the campaign with his "I summon you to the comradeship" message.

The campaign slogan is the single word: "Join."

Notes.

A novelty in the way of a lecture on the Red Cross is planned to be given in Heppner on the evening of December 26, nothing preventing. It will be delivered by Chief Red Fox and his cousin Black Hawk, aristocratic members of the Yakima tribe, who will come here from Tappanish, Wash. These two Indians travel in state on their own ponies and will appear in their most gorgeous attire. Chief Red Fox comes recommended by Secretary of War Baker, as well as having other highly esteemed commendations and his lecture on behalf of the American Red Cross promises to be a very interesting feature. Further announcements regarding this will appear later.

Mr. Albright, who was a patient at the emergency hospital for a couple of weeks while he was wrestling with a very severe case of flu, expressed his kindly appreciation for the splendid care and attention given him. Mr. Albright stated to some Red Cross ladies that he knew there were a lot of good people in the world but was not heretofore convinced that they all lived in Heppner. He departed for his home at Butte, Montana on Tuesday, apparently fully recovered and as happy as a man could be. The Red Cross acknowledges the receipt of a donation from Mr. Albright of $10.00.

There still remains a number of articles of bedding at the Federated church building, used during the time of the emergency hospital. Parties desiring to get such articles as belong to them, can do so by calling on Mrs. J. A. Patterson.

One dollar sent by Mrs. W. P. Prophet of Hardman, accompanied by the following letter, which is self-explanatory:

Hardman, Oregon, Oct. 14, 1918. The American Red Cross, Hardman, Oregon.

I got first honors, also a dollar in the Junior four minute men speaking contest, which I greatly appreciate.

I could easily spend it for my own benefit or pleasure. I want a kodak ever so bad but our country is first and I am sending the dollar to you. Please give me credit on the books for it.

If some tired Sammy should get some comfort from it, it is better than I had it.

Sincerely yours,
ADRIAN C. RECHTIGOLT.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

S. E. VanVactor, local attorney, is in Portland this week on legal business.

N. A. Clark and family are moving into their new residence recently purchased from Shelly Baldwin, today.

Earl Wiglesworth, sheepman of Butter creek, was a business visitor in Heppner on Tuesday.

Ed Buckman returned the first of the week from the Earl Wigles-worth ranch on Butter creek, where he had been putting in concrete watering troughs at the Wiglesworth sheep barns.

J. W. Osborn was in the city yesterday from his home near Cecil. He states that a finer fall for farmwork has not been experienced in that part of Morrow county and a great amount of fall seeding has been done.

Stacy Roberts reports that the influenza epidemic was very bad in Chileo during their visit there, there being as high as 15 funerals a day. Mr. Roberts says there is much malaria in that part of California, and he attributes the high death rate to this cause.

W. O. Hill, cashier of Lexington State Bank was in Heppner for the first time in several weeks, Tuesday. Mr. Hill has but recently recovered from a bad spell of Spanish flu and is now able to be on duty full time at the bank again. He states that he had all the flu he wanted. Its no picnic.

Wm. O'Rourke was over from Camp Lewis for a few days this week, arriving in the city on Thursday evening last and returning to Camp on Sunday. Billy has been right on the job at Camp Lewis ever since convincing the commanding officer there that he was big enough and the kind of material real soldiers are made of. His numerous friends here were glad to greet Billy and to congratulate him on his having made good.

A telegram was received early Tuesday morning by N. A. Clark, of this city, announcing the death of Monday, at Newton, Ill., of P. D. Kibler. Mr. Kibler is the father of Mrs. Clark and Mrs. O. M. Whittington of this city and had been an invalid for more than a year past. His death was not unexpected by his relatives here as they were in receipt of letters the last of the week announcing that the end was fast approaching. Mr. Kibler was 65 years of age. He visited with his relatives here about two years ago.

Mrs. Guy Boyer is in receipt of a letter, dated Nov. 5, from her brother, Lieut. Everett May, stating that he was discharged from the hospital and was apparently fully recovered from his injuries. It was thought that Lieut. May had probably suffered entire blindness, having been injured by a bursting shell, but proper care in the hospital brought him out all right. This will be welcome news to the great number of friends of Lieut. May throughout the state of Oregon.

At the Fair pavilion on Thursday evening a dance was given and a good time enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. This was the first ball of the season, music of a high order being furnished by LeRoy's Jazz band from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell of Lexington visited at the home of Mr. Campbell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Campbell of Heppner, on Wednesday.
