The HEPPNER GARAGE

Gasoline 23½ Cents Per Gallon

THE machine and repair shops of this Garage are now in charge of Messrs. RIVERS & ACKLEY, men who thoroughly understand the business. All accessories, tires and car sales business continued under old management.

ALBERT BOWKER, Proprietor

Uncle Sam Says

Corporations Must Get Their Business on a Cash Basis

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR THANKS TO OUR MANY PATRONS FOR THE PAST YEAR.

We hope to be able to serve you in a more efficient manner in the future.

Owing to the demand of the Government for ready cash, we are forced to handle our business to comply with their orders.

Hereafter all accounts become due the first of each month.

Fuel C. O. D. The Yard

Health and Prosperity to All. Yours to serve

Tum-A Lum Lumber Co.

LEXINGTON AND IONE

Market Day Auction Sale

Fourth Saturday of each Month at

MORROW CO. FAIR GROUNDS, HEPPNER

The FARMERS' EXCHANGE of the Inland Empire has had so many requests for the Sale that we have decided to make it a regular event at Heppner. If you have something to sell—remember nothing too small—nothing too large—list early and get the advantage of advertising.

FOURTH SATURDAY OF EACH MONTH

See our list of Stock Ranches, Wheat Farms and Summer Range for sale. We have two bargains in registered Stallions.

Do you want the latest information regarding INCOME TAX returns? We have it. Come and see us. Phone or write.

Farmers' Exchange of the Inland Empire

Rooms 5 and 6, Roberts Building.

F. A. McMENAMIN, Auctioneer. F. R. BROWN, Manager.

TEUTONISM TRIMMED TO A "T"

You may say what you like about what won the war, and maybe the debate will go on a hundred years, but the fact remains that the following caustic arraignment of Teutonism appeared on November 9 and the Germans signed the armistice on the 11th. Facts are facts, and anybody can draw his own conclusions. This remarkable document is the work of Mr. Charles Dutton, of Montclair, N. J., and it appeared in the Montclair Times. Mr. Dutton is eighty-one years old, yet is ranked as among the best active corporations auditors in New York City. In the following essay he achieved the task of writing a complete essay on "Teutonism," using no word that did not begin with a letter "t." The essay is as follows:

Truthful thinkers turning their thought to these troubleous times trace the tributary terrors to Teutonism.

To test this theorem the tale-teller tersely tells this tragic tho truthful tale.

The Teutons turn their thought to treachery, to trickery, to tyranny.

They transmit these three thought types to transactions that testify to the truth that these triplicate Teutonic trafts transcend the Turk's topmost tyrannous thought.

Technically, the Teutons themselves think, tho truthfully told 'tis the Teutonic throne that thinks.

The tenantry, the throne's tools, truckle to the throne thought.

Tenantry talk takes the throne talk trajectory; the throne threateningly talks; the tenantry timidly talk; these twin talks tally.

The Teutonic throne, through their typographical text, through their Tageblatt, tells the tenantry that their Teutonic traditions, their technical training, their tremendous trade, their theocratic theories, their trained troops thoroughly testify to their tenable Teutonic transcendency.

This tirade, toothsome to themselves, they trumpet to those territories that the Teutons tote, tho to the transatlantic territory they temper their threatening tone.

The transmarine territory's transactions tantalized the Teutonic throne; therefore, to tame these taunting Tommies, the Teutons traversed the thrifty tract 'twixt the two territories.

There their troops thronged the terraced towns; they trampled the tillage; they tore to tatters the tenements, throwing the tenants to the tempest; they torpedoed the temples, turning tablatures to tinder; they terrified the toddling tots; they trailed the traditional Tophet through the thoroughfares.

The Teutons' tyrannical treatment terminated the tattered territory's tolerance; that the Teutons termed timidity.

They tackled the tramping troops; their terrific thrusts thwarted the Teutons' trespassing till the territories, tolerant till then, took to themselves the task to turn the tyrannous tide.

Together toiled the transmarine, the transcontinental, the transmontane, the transatlantic territories; together they took their turn trumping the Teutonic trick.

The tricky treaties tempted the Tzar's territories to turn their thought to themselves, the ties tightened that tied the trustworthy territories together.

They taxed their treasuries; they tested their thrift; they trained troops to trigger tactics; they toughened them to trench terrors; they taught them to trail their titanic tanks through the tangled terrane.

Those thoroughly tested they tutored to tower the thunder-clouds; to t[illegible] a topography; to t[illegible] the ter[illegible] to torpedo their tackle the Taubes; [illegible] tops. targets through the [illegible]r time.

Thousands tendered th[illegible] tend their talents, themselves, to [illegible]. tattered troops, to treat torn flesh.

Then transports, tripling the tonnage, took these thousand times thousand to the trenches to test the Teuton's trumpeted transcendency.

There they'll tarry till the Teutonic throne tumbles.

Trust these thoroughbreds; trust their traditional tenor, their true typical tact, their tested trend, their tenacity.

Trust them to transform Teutonic toil to tranquility; to trammel treaty trickery; to thwart the treacherous threatening to Teutonize this terrestrial.

Thoroughly trust them to terminate Teutonism's tiniest trace.

They'll taintlessly, totolly triumph.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our thanks for the sympathy and kindness shown by our many friends during our recent bereavement.

MARY. E. RASMUS
FRANK O. RASMUS
ORVILLE RASMUS.

Albert Osmin stepped in on us Tuesday and gladdened our hearts by a substantial deposit which guarantees his receiving the G.-T. for 1919. Albert is one among those who have taken the Gazette during the most of its existence, and is appreciated as an old-time friend.

Miss Mabel Noyes and Miss Angeline Amidon, two popular teachers of Heppner school, spent Sunday in Pendleton.

Have YOU settled your subscription account yet?

FOR

The New Year

We extend hearty greetings. Your liberal patronage is appreciated, and we wish you bountiful prosperity for the

NEW YEAR

Gilliam & Bisbee