

Town and Country.

W. L. McCaleb is in the city from Arlington.

Good second hand Ford for sale. W. T. McROBERTS.

Andrew Reaney was up from Lexington for a short time on Saturday.

E. E. Miller, hardware dealer of Ione, was doing business in this city yesterday.

C. W. McNamer was among the business men in Heppner Saturday from Ione.

Irvin Wilkes, rancher from near Ione, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday.

Glenn Boyer, who runs an alfalfa farm near Jordan Siding, was a visitor in Heppner Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rhea were visitors in Heppner on Saturday from their home on Rhea creek.

Herman Neilson was down from his home in Rood canyon on Thursday last and made this office a pleasant call.

L. L. Jakes was in town from his farm near Fairview school on Monday. He has just recovered from a tussle with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Barlow, accompanied by several members of their family, were visitors in Heppner from Eight Mile on Wednesday.

Fred Ashbaugh, of Toll Rock, was down to Heppner on Monday. The fine weather is appreciated out that way, but Fred says it has spoiled all his plans for logging so far this winter, there being no snow.

W. L. Holmes, wide-awake manager of the Tum-a-Lum Lumber Co. at Lexington, was in Heppner a short time Saturday forenoon, being accompanied by W. P. Hershey of the head office at Walla Walla.

George McDonald, farmer and stockman of Rock creek, visited Heppner the first time in months on Saturday. Mr. McDonald says they are enjoying fine winter weather in his section and stock are doing well.

Copies of Senate and House bills have been forwarded to this office by Hon. G. E. Woodson, our representative, and they are here for your inspection when interested in looking up any measures now before the legislature.

J. H. Bryson and M. B. Haines were business men of Ione in Heppner for a short while on Monday. Mr. Bryson has but recently returned from Portland, where he spent the past summer and fall, and is now in charge of the Independent Garage at Ione.

A letter receiver from Rev. T. S. Handsaker this week, states that he has had the pleasure of visiting with several of the Heppner boys who are in the service and stationed at San Diego, Calif. He mentions having just recently seen Kenneth Binns and Elra Hayes.

County court was in session yesterday to dispose of matters that had been adjourned from the regular January term. As adjournment had been taken to the 20th but Commissioner Padberg was unable to get here at that time, being under quarantine. He was here yesterday.

Assessor Wells and Clerk Waters are busy these days making the final extensions on the new tax rolls and they will soon be ready and placed in the hands of the sheriff for collection. While thinking about your income tax it might be well to remember that the local tax man will be on your rail in a very short time.

County Attorney Notson is busy this week moving his office and fixtures back to the court house, where he will again occupy the room vacated by him when he gave up the office of county school superintendent. Friend Notson's neighbors in the Roberts building are sorry to have him get so far away from town.

Dr. J. H. Fell and wife of Prairie City have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Fell's aunt, Mrs. Mary McHaley, in Heppner during the past week. Dr. Fell has also been assisting Dr. McMurdo in waiting upon Miss Amy McHaley, who has been very seriously ill. As soon as she can make the trip, Miss McHaley will be taken to Portland, where it is hoped the change in altitude may prove beneficial.

Mrs. Luther Huston departed for Portland yesterday morning, to be at the bedside of her mother who is critically ill at her home in that city. Mrs. Huston is also mourning the loss of her father, A. J. McHaley, whose death occurred at Portland on Saturday, but she was unable to be in attendance at the funeral on Monday on account of sickness in her own family. Mr. McHaley was a brother of the late J. H. McHaley of Heppner and at the time of his death was 80 years of age.

A pleasant communication was received by this paper this week from W. L. Mallory of Portland. Mr. Mallory still cherishes kind memories of his many old Heppner friends and enjoys hearing from them from week to week through the columns of the Gazette-Times. For a number of years Mr. Mallory was engaged in the livery business in Portland but he disposed of this last spring and has put in much of the time since working in the ship yards. He had the misfortune of having to spend some weeks in a hospital, where he underwent an operation that laid him up for some time. He wishes to be remembered to all Heppner friends.

John Tash and wife are here from Buhl, Idaho, on a short visit with the family of his brother, Fred Tash. Mr. and Mrs. Tash have been visiting for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Tash at Walla Walla just prior to coming to Heppner. It has been nine years since John left the Heppner country and went to Idaho and he is quite busy greeting his many friends here. He is on an irrigated tract at Buhl and states that times are very good there and the Buhl project has proven a great success. Mr. Tash also states that Mr. Marquardson, who formerly runs the Fair Store at Heppner, is living on a tract of irrigated land at Buhl and is doing well. His son, Ernest, is with the army in France, holding down a position at one of the supply depots.

Bakery Re-Opens.

Mr. Bowling is now on the job again at the old stand of the Heppner Bakery, and is turning out his usual baking of excellent bread each day. The building, which was badly damaged by fire a short time ago, is nicely repaired and Mr. Bowling is in position to serve the public better than ever. Give the home bakery your patronage.

REMOVALSALE

In order to reduce stock as much as possible before moving to our new building we are offering many staple articles at greatly reduced prices. Dressers, Chiffoniers, Dining Tables, Ranges, Heaters, and many other things, including a big cut in wall paper: seventy-five patterns reduced from 25¢ to 50¢. Dishes and enamel ware will also go at slaughter prices, as we have many odd lines which will be closed out at extremely low figures.
